MURDER OF 10 MEN TOLD BY WITNESS

Some Knocked in Head With Ax; Others Tied Together and Drowned; Sack of Rock Tied on Neck of Another

Grewsome Details Are Given By Colored Man of Alleged Killing of Hands On Georgia Peon Plantation

By E. A. SHELNUT.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

COURTHOUSE, COVINGTON, Ga., April 6.—"The boys begged mighty hard, but Mr. John said throw them in the river.

"Me and Charlie Chisholm pitched them over the bridge."

This statement was made today by Clyde Manning, colored, to the jury in the case of John S. Williams, on trial for the murder of eleven colored people killed on and near his Jasper county farm.

Manning said "the boys" he and Chisholm drowned were Lindsey Peterson, Willie Preston and Harry Price, peon farmhands on Williams' plantation.

Chisholm later was killed to keep him from talking, it is alleged.

"Boss, I don' recollec' the exact date," said Manning. "But it was on a Saturday night late in February or early in March.

"Peterson and Preston were tied together and thrown in the Yellow river.

"They begged awfully hard, but we had to throw them in the water.

"Price was drowned in the South river.

BOYS KILLED AFTER PEON PROBE STARTS

"The three boys were killed the next week after government agents had talked to us about peonage conditions."

Attorney W. M. Howard, special prosecutor, asked Manning where Price was when Peterson and Preston were being drowned.

"In the car—"

Here Greene F. Johnston, cousel for Williams, moved that Manning's testimony regarding Price's death be stricken from the record.

Judge John B. Hutchinson overruled the motion.

Resuming the stand after lunch, Manning continued his story.

"We took Price in the car to the South River, about a mile and a half away.

"He begged us not to throw him in the river, saying he would jump in himself.

"I helped him climb on the bridge railing.

"He said, 'Lordy have mercy on my soul,' as he jumped into the water.

"Mr. John drove the car from Allen's bridge to the South River."

Manning said Williams told the three victims he was taking them to the station when they started on the "death ride."

Manning knew, he said, two or three days in advance that the three were to be killed.

VICTIM KNOCKED IN HEAD WITH AXE

"I told Mr. John I didn't want to kill them.

"He told me it was either my life or theirs.

"I knew he meant it. And I helped him kill them."

Manning was asked by Special Prosecutor Howard regarding the murder of eight other colored men on Williams' plantation.

A colored man named John Williams was put to death by Manning two or three days before Preston, Peterson and Price were drowned, the witness said.

"I knocked him in the head with an axe," said Manning.

"John Brown and another negro, 'Little Bit,' were drowned in the Ockmulgee river by myself, Charlie Chisholm and Williams," Manning said.

These two were tied together, he said.

"Big John, under pretext of digging a well, was forced to dig his own grave by Williams," Manning said. "Charlie Chisholm killed him while he was in the hole. Charlie hit him a hard blow on the head with an axe. He fell in the hole.

WHOLESALE MURDER TOLD BY WITNESS

Johnny Greene and Willie Gibbons were killed Sunday following the triple drowning, Manning said.

"I knocked them in the head with an axe," said Manning. "We covered them up and left their bodies there.

"Mr. John was with me when this was done."

Charlie Chisholm, who helped Williams and Manning kill Peterson, Preston, Price, Williams, Brown, "Little Bit," "Big John," Greene and Gibbons, was killed later by Manning, the witness said.

"I knocked him in the head," said Manning.

"Fletcher Smith was killed the week following the triple drowning.

"He was shot by Mr. Johnny.

"Mr. Johnny had sent me over the hill from where Smith was plowing.

"But I heard the shot. When I returned, Smith was dead. Mr. Johnny told me to dig a hole and cover the body up."

Root Has Recovered From Slight Illness

Society Woman Regains Lost Pearls

MRS. PHILIP T. CLAY of Piedmont who owes the return of her $18,000 pearl necklace, lost on Monday, to Miss Caroline Huntington, saleswoman for S. & G. Gump, San Francisco.

Missing $18,000 Necklace Found In S. F. Art Store

Saleswoman Picks Up Gems That Fell from String Worn By Mrs. Philip T. Clay

Miss Caroline Huntington, a saleswoman in the jewelry department of S. & G. Gump Company, 246 Post street, San Francisco, living at 1922 Sacramento street, was the finder of the $18,000 pearl and diamond necklace which Mrs. Philip T. Clay, society woman of Piedmont, lost on Monday. Scattered over the floor of her department were the 130 rare gems, dropped from the string as it fell from the neck of its owner.

Miss Huntington recognized the value of the jewels, carefully searched until she had discovered them all and immediately turned them into the office of the cashier.

Monday night Mrs. Clay reported to the police of the bay cities the loss of the trinket valued at a small fortune, and special detectives were detailed on the case. The insurance company was notified of the loss and began to search San Francisco and its suburbs in an effort to locate the gems.

Representatives visited the Gump store late yesterday afternoon to find the broken string with the entire number of pearls awaiting its owner. This morning Mrs. Clay was notified and went immediately to San Francisco to claim her jewels.

When Mrs. Clay left her home, 31 Seaview avenue, Monday afternoon, she wore the necklace set with 130 rare pearls fastened with a diamond and platinum clasp. She took the 1:40 p. m. K. Route train to San Francisco, contemplating a shopping tour. She remembers last seeing the necklace on the boat. Upon her arrival in San Francisco she discovered the loss. The necklace was covered by $12,000 insurance.

Mrs. Clay's pearls were among the finest in a private collection in this city. Mrs. Clay is prominently known in society on both sides of the bay. The family residence is one of the show places of Piedmont.

Minister Ends Life At Daughter's Inquest

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

MARIETTA, O., April 6.—Rev. J. H. Mindling, 48, minister of the Methodist Episcopal church of Waterford, near here, committed suicide in the courthouse at noon today. He had just stepped out of the courtroom where an inquest was being held on the death of his daughter, Miss Elizabeth Mindling, 19, and where he had confessed that he had performed a criminal operation that resulted in her death last Thursday.

Sheriff Roberts had started for the jail with Mindling, but left him alone for a few minutes. When he returned he found the minister lying on the floor breathing his last.

Despondent Blind Woman Is Suicide

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Because she despaired of regaining her sight, Mrs. Dora Hoffman, blind for the past year, committed suicide at her home, 936 Oak street, today. Her husband, John, a painter, and a son, Walter, found her in a little room choking with gas fumes when they went down to breakfast this morning. She had arisen in the night and gone to the small apartment adjoining the kitchen. Plugging the keyhole and the cracks in the door, she turned on the gas. She was 53 years old.

Alameda Council Decides Against Alternative Plan

Resolution Records Body As Being Opposed to County Division

ALAMEDA, April 6.—The Alameda city council went on record last night as being unalterably opposed to any proposition of consolidation, and especially that which would provide an alternative resulting in a county division. The resolution supporting the action of the council was submitted by Mayor Frank Otis as a member of the council and was unanimously endorsed by the other members of the body.

The resolution is as follows:

Whereas, freeholders are engaged in drafting a consolidated city and county charter for the county of Alameda under article 11 of the state constitution and pressure is being brought to bear upon them to include an alternative proposition which would permit the city of Oakland to withdraw from the county, and

Whereas, the people of the city of Alameda are overwhelmingly opposed to consolidation under any form and especially under said objectionable section, and

Whereas, the proposition of consolidation should be determined by the submission of the question and not by the inclusion of any alternative proposition which would cloud the issue in the minds of voters and, if adopted, would have the effect of forcing the smaller municipalities into a union to which they are opposed:

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the council of the city of Alameda that we hereby renew our opposition to consolidation in any form, and particularly to the submission of an alternative proposition, or anything which would result in county division.

Traction Car Hits Train; 4 Men Hurt

Special to THE TRIBUNE.

STOCKTON, April 6.—Four men in a crowded Central California traction car were injured last night when a Western Pacific passenger train crashed into it here. None was badly hurt. Reuben Slaughter of Oroville is still in the hospital suffering from injuries about the hip, but will leave the hospital today.

Motorman C. A. Birch saved his life by jumping when the brakes refused to work. The crew states that the rails were slippery from oil and asphalt spilled by wagons hauling material along the street. The traction car was badly damaged.

C. Doran.

GIANT GRAIN POOL IS AIM OF FARMERS

Growers Through Committee Adopt Plans For Corporation To Control Marketing of All Cereal Crops

Secretary of Agriculture To Aid, Declaring Combine Is Necessary To Prosperity of the Nation's Business

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO, April 6.—Demand for compulsory pooling of a percentage of farmers' grain arose among a section of delegates to the ratification meeting, held here today, on a proposed plan for the national cooperative marketing of grain by producers. The plan was brought in this morning by the farmers' grain marketing committee of seventeen, which called the meeting. The committee had left pooling optional.

Opposition came chiefly from representatives of the Northwest Wheat Growers' Association in Washington, Idaho, Oregon and Montana and from the Wheat Growers' Association of America, with headquarters at Wichita, Kas.

Aaron Sapiro of San Francisco, a delegate from the Northwest wheat growers, declared compulsory pooling of 25 per cent of a farmer's grain the "irreducible minimum."

Sapiro, who is interested in California cooperative commodity marketing, had another amendment to offer, providing that the national marketing organization should not handle grain previously bought by individual grain elevators.

The plans call for optional pooling of grain for cooperative marketing, pressure for compulsory pooling having been defeated in the committee.

The committee had worked for six months on its report and called the conference today as a ratification meeting. The report declared curbing of speculation which it asserted "almost staggers human comprehension," was one of the chief aims.

CONTRACTS CALL FOR GIANT GRAIN POOL

Besides announcing plans for the corporation and its by-laws, the report outlined contracts binding farmers who enroll in the plan. Salient details of the contract feature of the plan are these:

There are two contracts, the first running from the farmer to the farmers' cooperative elevators; the second from the elevator to the central agency.

The farmer signing the contract must sell his grain exclusively to these agencies for five years, renewable thereafter from year to year. There are two types of contract a farmer may make: He may adopt the regular sales method now followed, through which the farmer sells to the elevator and the elevator sells at the market. These may be direct sales or sales on consignment. The second method is pooling. Farmers of a community adopting this plan may pool or farmers of two or more communities may join in a pool of their grain.

If either of the two optional methods in the contract proves unlawful it is so stated that it will be automatically stricken from the contract and the balance stands.

EXPORT CORPORATION IS PROVIDED FOR

Other features of the plan require that all members of the United States Grain Growers, Inc., must be bona-fide growers of grain.

Provision is also made for establishment of subsidiary corporations, including an export corporation, a warehouse corporation, a corporation to purchase seats on exchanges and a finance corporation.

The Department of Agriculture should lend the same aid to farmers in marketing their crops as it does on their production, Secretary Wallace told the committee. "There is just as much reason," he said, "why the department should assist the farmer in developing methods of marketing his crops efficiently as that it should assist him in increasing his production."

"The farmer should understand to produce intelligently and adjust his production to the needs of consumption," Secretary Wallace said.

"It is coming to be recognized," he said, "that if prices are to be satisfactory there must be a right adjustment of production to marketing conditions."

WALLACE SAYS FARM PRICES ARE TOO LOW

Calling attention to the current low prices for farm products while "practically everything the farmers buy is from 50 to 100 per cent above pre-war normals," Secretary Wallace said, "it is not strange that thousands of them should be willing and ready to adopt drastic measures to correct a condition which is so grossly unjust and which is causing widespread hardship and suffering."

"We are told that the farmer now receives 34 cents of the dollar that the consumer pays for farm products," said C. H. Gustafson, chairman of the committee. "There is need to change that ratio. It has apparently been the function of the farmers to produce and then take his chance with market fluctuations and with market conditions where waste, duplication, manipulation and speculation have operated to turn the law of supply and demand upside down.

FAIR RETURN FOR GROWER IS ASKED.

"With all other farmers I resent the discovery that the just and equitable share of profits from my labor and the labor of my neighbors has erected a brownstone front on Lakeshore Drive or outfitted a palace pleasure boat instead of being returned to me, wherewith to purchase the new dress that my wife had been waiting two years for, or to enable me to give my girl some of the advantages that her town girl friends enjoy."

French Journals Differ On Views Concerning American Attitude; Premier Briand Seeks Closer Co-operation

One Editor Interprets Note to Mean That Washington's Attitude Will Create a Decidedly Grave Situation

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PARIS, April 6.—France will support the American position on Yap, according to the Temps, which usually reflects the official views accurately. The American note, received yesterday, contains some very strong arguments, but advances no theory that menaces French interests, the newspaper declares.

Premier Briand had the American note in his possession when he told the Senate yesterday that he wished close co-operation with the United States, the article says.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

PARIS, April 6.—A note of considerable length from Charles E. Hughes, American Secretary of State, has been received by the French Foreign Office through the American Embassy here. The document, which bears the date of April 4, affirms the rights of the United States in all settlements arising from the world war.

Identical communications were sent to the British and Italian governments, it is understood, with notice that the text will be issued at the State Department in Washington immediately after all the interested governments have received it.

"Pertinax," political editor of the Echo De Paris, who appears to have had access to the note, declares he considers it means that America declines to recognize any decision of the allies in the treaty of Versailles, or taken by the supreme council or by the League of Nations. He asserts that this is a grave attitude on the part of the United States.

OUTLINES POLICY OF NEW ADMINISTRATION

It was learned in official circles today that while the communication bears principally upon the action of the council of the League of Nations last December in approving the mandates passed upon at that meeting, including the Japanese mandate over the North Pacific islands, taking in the island of Yap, it also outlines the policy of the new administration regarding questions arising from the war, and declares the approval of the United States to be necessary for a final settlement.

A disposition to recognize the justice of the American claim was indicated in official quarters, although with the reservation that it was scarcely possible to give the United States the right of veto in the settlement of questions which necessarily were discussed in the absence of representatives of the American government.

The reply will probably express the intense satisfaction of the allies if the United States is disposed to resume collaboration with them in the settlement of war questions.

S. F. Harbor Bill Is Passed By Assembly

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—The San Francisco delegation's bill to cede the state control of San Francisco harbor to the city and county of San Francisco was passed by the assembly today by a vote of 42 aye to 33 no. It now goes to the senate for concurrence.

The vote followed a call of the house that lasted about two hours.

Eckskard of San Mateo, who originally voted against the bill, changed his vote from no to aye for the purpose of moving reconsideration.

The debate on the measure was brief, being opened by Rosenshine and closed by Morris, both of San Francisco and both supporting the bill. It would, if approved by the senate and the governor, grant the San Francisco harbor in trust to that city and county, with safeguards against the property ever passing into private hands or being diverted from its proper uses as a public utility. Fishing rights are reserved to the public, and provision is made for turning the earnings into the state treasury.

U. S. Consul in Cork Nearly Meets Death

CORK, April 6.—(By Associated Press.) — Mason Mitchell, United States consul in Queenstown, narrowly escaped being shot a few days ago while motoring from Queenstown to Cork, it was learned here today.

Mitchell was riding with Benj. Harrigan, an official of the Ford works. Both men are slightly deaf and when the automobile passed a group of soldiers in the street they failed to hear the challenge to halt.

The officer in charge ordered the men to take aim and was about to give the word to fire on the car when Manager Pelly of the Hibernian Bank of Cork, who witnessed the incident, rushed in front of the raised rifles, shouting:

"For God's sake, don't shoot! That is the American consul!"

America Tells Allies Fruits of World War Victory Not to Be Waived

FIRM DEMAND IS MADE ON YAP

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Failure of the United States to ratify the treaty of Versailles will not be allowed to detract from this country's right to participate in peace settlements, Secretary Hughes declares in notes addressed to Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan.

The note to Japan differed from the other three in that it referred more specifically to the Japanese mandate over the island of Yap. All four of them reiterated the contention that the United States had sacrificed no rights in the peace settlement by reason of its unwillingness to join the League of Nations.

"The fact that the United States has not ratified the treaty of Versailles," the notes said, "cannot detract from rights which the United States has already acquired, and it is hardly necessary to suggest that a treaty to which the United States is not a party could not affect those rights."

EQUAL RIGHTS SHOULD BE SECURED BY U. S.

It was also noted that the treaty of Versailles did not purport to secure to Japan, it was pointed out, or to any other nation, any right in the overseas possessions of Germany except that an equal right should be secured to the United States.

Article 119 of the treaty provides, Hughes said, that Germany renounces in favor of the principal allied and associated powers all her rights and titles in her overseas possessions. The secretary then emphasized that the United States is one of the principal allied and associated powers and that the position of the government of Japan could derive no strength from the treaty of Versailles or from any discussion preliminary to it.

Continuing, Secretary Hughes said:

"As the United States did not enter this convention or into any treaty relating to the subject, this government is unable to understand upon what ground it was thereafter attempted to confer the mandate without the agreement of the United States. It is manifest that the League of Nations was without authority to bind the United States and that the confirmation of the mandate in question and the definition of its terms by the council of the League of Nations in December, 1920, can not be regarded as having efficacy with respect to the United States."

FORMER PRESIDENT WILSON'S ATTITUDE

The attitude of former President Wilson upon the disposition of Yap was set forth in a statement which he made to the State Department on March 3, 1921. The former President was quoted as saying that his first information of a contention that the "so-called decision of May 7, 1919," by the Council of Four, assigning Yap to Japan was given to him by Norman Davis. Wilson then said that he informed Davis he had never consented to such an assignment.

Wilson said that on several occasions he had made specific reservations regarding the island of Yap and had taken the position that it should not be assigned under any mandate to any one power, but should be internationalized for cable purposes.

Secretary Hughes insisted in his note that any omission to make protest against the assignment of Yap to Japan could not operate as a cession of its rights since the proceedings of the supreme council did not and could not have finality.

"As no treaty has ever been concluded with the United States," Secretary Hughes wrote, "relating to the island of Yap, and as no one has even been authorized to cede or surrender the right or interest of the United States in the island, this government must insist that it has not lost its right or interest as it existed prior to any action of the supreme council or the league of nations and cannot recognize the allocation of the island or the validity of the mandate to Japan."

EXCLUSIVE INTEREST IS NOT SOUGHT

"This government," the note concludes, "as has been clearly stated in previous communications, seeks no exclusive interest in the island of Yap and has no desire to secure any privileges without having similar privileges accorded to other powers, including, of course, Japan, and relying upon the sense of justice of the government of Japan and of the governments of the other allied and associated powers, this government looks with confidence to a disposition of the matter whereby the just interests of all may be properly conserved."

The copy of the note sent to Japan was not made public. It is said, however, to be very similar to those to Great Britain, France and Italy, except that it contained some additional paragraphs referring to previous correspondence between the two governments relating to Yap.

Navy Asks Change In Bill to Get Larger Base Site

Letter From Acting Secretary Approving Additional Area Sought.

The Oakland Chamber of Commerce received today a copy of a letter sent Rear Admiral Halstead, commandant of the Twelfth naval district, by Theodore Roosevelt, acting secretary of the navy, asking for certain changes in the Crowley bill to cede naval base lands to the government.

The letter of Colonel Roosevelt is regarded as refuting the contentions of opponents that the navy department has never made any official request for the lands.

Acting Secretary Roosevelt says that the department would like to have the time limitation removed in the Crowley bill, which provides that work on the naval base must begin by January 1, 1924. This is in the same language as the original law passed by the legislature, granting the tidelands to Alameda for transfer to the navy and of the deed of gift from the city of Alameda to the United States.

The Roosevelt letter to Admiral Halstead plainly sets forth that the bureau of yards and docks of the navy department is interested in the bill.

At the hearing in Sacramento last Monday night, the Mare Island supporters, attacking the Crowley bill, laid stress on the absence of any official request from the navy or congress for the cession of the lands covered in the measure. A telegram was read from Congressman Charles F. Curry, quoting Acting Secretary Roosevelt to that effect.

The delegation from Oakland and Alameda came back from the hearing greatly encouraged by the showing made in favor of the bill, and now with Roosevelt's letter it is felt that the passage of the bill is assured.

Admiral Halstead has transmitted the letter to the attorney-general's office in Sacramento and the Chamber of Commerce has informed the Alameda delegation of it.

It is planned to place the letter before both the senate and the assembly, and in view of the statements of a number of legislators that they will vote for the bill if they can be assured that the government wants the land, it is predicted that the measure will go through.

Austria Plots For Union With Germany

PARIS, April 6.—A Zurich despatch to the newspaper L'Information says the pan-Germans of Austria are preparing for a coup d'etat by which they intend proclaiming the union of Austria with Germany in the belief that the allies will be powerless to prevent.

EUREKA, April 6.—Willie Clark, 16-year-old boy bandit, who sawed his way from the county jail Sunday night, and later escaped in a shower of bullets when surprised in the act of looting the safe in the Northwestern Pacific freight office, is surrounded by an armed posse in the freight yards near town. Heavily armed, the boy has taken a station on a freight train and is holding the posse at bay.

The train is surrounded by armed officers who are attempting to induce the boy to surrender.

The boy's death or capture was expected momentarily.

HIS CRIMINAL CAREER LISTS SIX ESCAPES.

The young incorrigible, who is small for his age, has a unique criminal career.

His activities include over twenty known burglaries, six escapes from jail and reform school, one army desertion, passing of worthless checks and an automobile theft.

A posse of officers from the sheriff's office pursued him from Eureka following his escape from the county jail, where he was under sentence to the Preston reformatory, but he escaped in a gun battle and fled into a lumber yard at Fields Landing, seven miles south of here.

HAD ESCAPED FROM EUREKA CITY JAIL.

He later made his way to a freight train.

Clark was sentenced to the reform school Saturday by Judge Denver Sevier.

"No jail can hold me," said the boy bandit. Placed in a cell, he is believed to have drawn a saw concealed in his leather puttees and immediately to have gone to work on the heavy bars.

Just a week ago the boy was arrested and placed in the city jail. He escaped, committed four burglaries in one night and fled on a southbound train, after a butcher had detected him looting his cash register.

Refusal of Workmen to Guarantee Pumping Pending Negotiation Causes Plans of Lloyd George to go Awry

Premier's Demand For Protection Made Follow Condition Submitted to Him By Owners; Unions Wait

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, April 6.—"A hitch has occurred in the negotiations," said Premier Lloyd George, addressing the House of Commons this afternoon. This hitch, he added, made a resumption of the negotiations at the present time "quite impossible."

This was not taken to mean, however, that all efforts at a get-together between government, miners and mine owners are off.

The premier appealed to the miners' representatives in the House to intervene with the miners' union for a backdown on the guarantee he had demanded as a condition for the joint conference.

He said that the miners' stand in refusing to guarantee pumping the mines pending the negotiations was responsible for the temporary break.

The premier's demand for that guarantee had been made in response to the condition set by the mine owners who had declared they would join the conference only if the miners gave a guarantee of safeguarding the mining property against sabotage.

TRANSPORT WORKERS AID MINE STRIKERS

LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, April 6.—Decision to support the British miners in their strike was reached by the Transportation Workers' Federation at a meeting held here this morning.

The vote taken by the transport workers was unanimously in favor of lending aid to the miners. It was decided to meet in conference immediately with delegates of the National Union of Railway Men and the miners' union for the purpose of securing action on the strike situation by the triple alliance.

"TRIPLE ALLIANCE" CONFERENCE CALLED.

At the conclusion of the conference Robert Williams, general secretary of the transport workers, said:

"On recommendation from the executive committee the conference has decided to give all assistance in our power to whatever extent necessary to help the miners and at once to enter into negotiations with the railway men and the miners for the purpose of taking joint action throughout the remainder of the contest."

CLARENDON, Tex., April 6. — Damage approximated at a quarter of a million dollars was done here last night when a cyclone struck the main street of this city, smashing plate glass windows, wrenching awnings and signs out of place and leaving debris in its wake. Fire started in the business section shortly after 11 o'clock and wiped out three business buildings.

No reports of persons killed or seriously injured in the tornado have been made this morning.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., April 6.—With first reports of loss of human life in the flood condition which prevails in counties in western and southwestern Oklahoma contained in a report from Hollis, Harmon county, that two lives were lost near there, known damage from a cloudburst Monday night is increasing heavily.

It was learned that railroad and other traffic in that section is demoralized almost completely. Railroad officials near Clinton, Custer county, said eleven miles of track of the St. Louis and San Francisco line near Clinton, along the Washita river, was practically undermined and that other tracks were in such a condition that it was doubtful if traffic could be resumed for ten days.

Loss of livestock near Hobart, Kiowa county, is reported as totaling hundreds of head, while alfalfa crops ready to cut are said to be damaged.

ıropodists' Bill Favorably Reported

ACRAMENTO, April 6.—The asbly committee on medical and al laws last night reported out a favorable recommendation a by Senator Crowley to license opodists. The bill was amended the committee to permit shoe es to sell certain appliances and ial footwear that, as it was originally prepared, could not have been handled.

A similar assembly bill by Hornblower was tabled.

Aged Man Is Given Work; Dies on Job

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Faint from hunger and exhaustion, Robert Roy Taylor, an aged man, applied at the home of Mrs. Virginia O'Neil, 1220 Geary street, this morning for something to eat and a job, if one was to be had. Ten minutes later he had fallen to his death from the third story, having been overcome by faintness from lack of nutrition while washing windows. Mrs. O'Neil had never seen the man before, but was struck by his frankness of manner and his evident willingness to work. He did not ask charity and she offered him a meal and the labor he desired.

He had been washing the windows only a few moments when he lost his balance, plunged from the sill and fell in a court below. When picked up he was dying, and had expired when the Central Emergency hospital was reached.

Attorney Dropped From Legion Rolls

George E. Price, Oakland attorney, under federal indictment on a charge of misappropriating money that it is alleged belonged to William Grassing, a former service man, whom Price represented, and for whom a warrant was issued more than a week ago charging embezzlement on another count, was last night dropped from the membership of Oakland Post No. 5 of the American Legion by unanimous vote at the regular business meeting of the post. Several hundred members were present.

Price failed to appear before the executive committee to answer to the charges and that body recommended that he be dropped fromm the Legion's rolls.

A police search has failed to locate the missing attorney.

Emperor Charles Is Now in Switzerland

BUCHS, Switzerland, April 6 (by the Associated Press).—Former Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary is back in Switzerland after his unsuccessful attempt to reseat himself upon the Hungarian throne. He crossed the Austrian-Swiss frontier on his return journey from Hungary at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

SEEKS RETURN OF GIRL

Mrs. Martha Smith, colored, of 322 Fifth street, yesterday swore out a felony warrant for the arrest of Oscar Hunt, colored, of 2312 Fillmore street, San Francisco, charging him with connection with the disappearance of her 15-year-old daughter, Cecelia. According to Mrs. Smith, Hunt disappeared at the same time. She asked the police to arrest him and secure the return of the girl.

Secret Ammunition Dumps in Dublin Bare Scheme; Nine Police Wounded.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, April 6.—Three big secret underground ammunition dumps have been discovered in Dublin, according to a despatch from that city today. Most of the ammunition boxes found bear markings of a Massachusetts firm, it is added, and as a result the authorities are working on the theory of a system of gun smuggling in Ireland by American sympathizers through isolated ports on the Irish west coast, where the Sinn Feiners have wireless stations. Clews indicating gun running operations from Germany also are being investigated.

LONDON, April 6.—A Dublin despatch reports a series of Sinn Fein attacks on the police throughout County Tyrone. Nine policemen were so seriously wounded that they had to be removed to hospitals. Reinforcements were summoned to various barracks where the police were being beleagued by Sinn Feiners.

SET FOR APRIL 15

By EARLE C. REEVES,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

LONDON, April 6.—Revelations of an alleged plot for a revolt in Ireland, originally meant to coincide with the opening of the British coal strike, opened this, the critical day, of the kingdom's industrial tieup.

Scotland Yard, it was announced, had gathered evidence showing the Sinn Feiners expected the coal strike negotiations to drag along until about April 15 for which date a revolution "on a grand scale" was being prepared.

Ammunition smuggled into Ireland from America, notably Massachusetts, and from Germany, it was averred, was being hoarded by the Sinn Fein for the day of the uprising.

SERIOUS DISORDERS

Meanwhile, violence is increasing in the coal fields, some of which have become veritable battlefields. Serious disorders were reported from the Scotch fields, notably at Cowden Beath, in Fife.

At the Hattonrig collieries 400 strikers, armed with hammers and steel bars, went on a sabotage rampage, smashing property to pieces.

Riots were also reported from many districts in Lanarkshire, where the striking miners renewed their attempts at intimidating the pumping crews. Shots were exchanged in a battle at Hamilton. No details as to casualties are given.

TROOPS IN READINESS

Here in London, however, no doubt is left by the government that it proposes to show a strong military hand at the slightest sign of rioting. The capital vividly resembles its wartime aspect. Thousands of troops in front-line equipment are quartered at strategical positions, including the great Kensington Gardens which have been closed to the public.

Many were injured at the Eaton colliery in Lanarkshire when miners attacked the police guarding the properties.

Near Shotts, miners held up and destroyed government motor cars and put fire to huge haystacks piled up around the collieries. Twelve destroyers have been ordered to proceed from Portsmouth to various ports on strike duty.

Lockwood School Folk Movie Actors

A motion picture company, working up a thirty-reel film showing the process of education and the various phases of school government, has picked Lockwood as its scene and is now "taking" everything from kindergarten to higher mathematics, including recess, dinner-hour, playtime and even disciplinary measures.

By agreement with the Board of Education, the motion picture company has arranged to improve certain parts of the grounds for picture purposes and will leave these improvements to the school when the pictures are over. Principal H. O. Welty of the school is handling this matter, and assisting in the making of the film.

COUNCIL ORDERS ESTUARY BRIDGE AND TUBE TESTS

Alameda Board Calls For Survey To Decide Which Shall Be Built.

ALAMEDA, April 6.—At the suggestion of Lociel M. King, chairman of the City Planning Commission, the City Council last night took steps to have City Manager C. E. Hewes, City Attorney W. J. Locke and City Engineer C. E. Hickok frame a resolution for submission to the supervisors urging that body to take immediate steps to vote an appropriation for taking soundings, borings and making other necessary tests to determine the advisability of construction of tube or basqule bridge.

King, who is connected with the State Harbor Commission, favors the tube. He urges quick action because of the present congested traffic conditions and because the government engineers have decreed that the present bridges must be out of the way by June 1, 1923.

Owing to the fact that the attorneys representing the various ark dwellers of the estuary were unable to be present last night the hearing of the ark situation went over until the next meeting of the Council. A number of the owners were present, however, and stated their position. Eugene Maillot, city building inspector, has cited fifteen of the "arkites" to appear before the Council.

Following a report from the memorial committee made by Dr. George Thompson, its chairman, the Council made plans to hold a joint meeting with the committee and the Board of Education to prepare for the floating of a bond issue to carry out the memorial plans. The committee more than a year ago recommended that the memorial be in the form of a new high school, or an addition to the present one, and carrying community features.

The Board of Education endorsed the idea, but owing to the high cost of materials it was decided to postpone definite action in the construction until prices came down.

The Council instructed the city clerk to issue a call for sealed bids for the construction of a baseball backstop in Washington park. The first reading of resolutions providing for the carrying out of extensive street work in both the east and west end sections of the city also took place last night.

The Council voted to have City Attorney Locke draw up an ordinance confining the discharge of fireworks in the city limits of Alameda to five days immediately around the time of the Fourth of July.

Attempt Made To Kill Man, He Says

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—When Andrew Passas, of 10A Sumner place, was about to enter his home early today, he was confronted, he says, by Thomas Thomas, an acquaintance, who presented a revolver at his head and said, "I'm going to kill you." Passas succeeded in wresting the gun from his hand and forced him into the house where he was held until the arrival of a posse of police under Sergeant Foley of the Southern Station.

Passas told the officers that there had been a disagreement between the two men over a woman. Thomas was charged with assault with intent to commit murder.

HUSBAND ASKS DIVORCE

William H. Carroll of 2042 Ninety-fourth avenue, declares in his suit for divorce that Florence H. Carroll has taken the "Mrs." off her name, substituting a "Miss" therefor, and that she has made a practice of going out without his consent. Carroll asks custody of Margaret, aged 9; Richard, aged 7; Daisy, aged 6, and James, aged 4 years.

Strap-Hangers Appear in Planes On London Route

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, April 6.—London has long known the strap-hanger in subway, street car and omnibus, but only recently the first instance of aerial strap-hanging was recorded. On the second day of the resumed British air service to Paris, it was found that one of the departing planes had no seats for three of its passengers. They made the journey standing in the passageway holding on to the luggage racks.

'BOHEMIAN CLUB' NEW SHIP'S NAME

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—The new Shipping Board vessel constructed by the Moore Shipbuilding company will be christened "Bohemian Club" when it slides from its ways on Saturday evening, May 14. The name is in honor of the organization by that name in San Francisco. This is the first instance in the United States wherein a government vessel has been named after a civic or fraternal club.

Mrs. Haig Patigian, wife of the president of the Bohemian club of San Francisco, will be the sponsor of the new vessel, which is now known only as Hull 2862, a 10,000-ton craft.

The Bohemian club will participate in the ceremonies by holding an entertainment and dinner immediately following the launching.

The government favored the San Francisco Bohemian club by conferring its name upon a government ship to fulfill a desire to reciprocate the hospitality shown service men by the club during and after the war.

Lubin Makes Plea For Housing Board

SACRAMENTO, April 6 (United Press).—S. J. Lubin, president of the immigration and housing commission, appeared before the joint reorganization committee last night and presented his plea to the legislator to save the commission from consolidation with other agencies under the so-called Fischer bill and the governor's reorganization plan.

The immigration and housing commission saves the State a half million dollars yearly, said Lubin. Lubin declared the commission was already consolidated, having three distinc functions—housing law enforcement, labor camp inspection and Americanization work among immigrants.

Judge A. E. Grauptner, industrial accident commission; Katherine Phillip Edson, industrial welfare board, and Labor Commissioner McLaughlin denied duplication of functions, and challenged proponents of reorganization to prove extravagance.

DAMAGES ASKED

A. H. Hughes and William L. Huddleston have filed suits against George Kawashima for $6100 and $2500 damages respectively for personal injury suffered when Kawashima's automobile crashed into their smaller car at Eighty-second avenue and Foothill boulevard, March 6.

MOTION PICTURE BOARD OF REVIEW BILL IS ARGUED

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—Senator Eden's bill to establish a motion picture board of review was all but smothered in the Senate judiciary committee last night. Following extended argument by representatives of the motion picture producers and of the Parent-Teachers' Associations, a motion to table the bill failed to carry, and Senator Eden had further consideration of the bill continued until next Tuesday.

Most of the members of the committee present expressed themselves in opposition to the bill on the ground that it would establish virtual censorship, but refrained from tabling the bill as a matter of courtesy to Senator Eden. There were only seven members of the committee present. Eden hopes to have a sufficient number in attendance at the meeting of the committee Tuesday to get the bill reported out. Opponents, however, said there was "little chance of its ever reaching the floor of the Senate."

SPEAKS FOR PRODUCERS

Attorney Isador Golden of San Francisco spoke for the picture producers. He said that the appointment of a board of review by the State executive, as provided for in the bill, would open the way to "official dictation in the matter of public taste and for official government propaganda, both of which are repugnant to American traditions and ideals."

"Nothing," he added, "could be more menacing to individual liberty. In some of the eastern States where they have a censorship there have been the most absurd results. In one State, for instance, a 10-foot kiss on a movie reel is wrong, but an 8-foot kiss is all right."

BACKED BY MOTHERS

Mrs. Hugh Bradford, Mrs. J. B. Bowman and Mrs. J. T. Greene of Sacramento, and Mrs. S. M. Richardson of Truckee, all representing branches of the parent-teachers' organization, said that the mothers of the State desired the passage of the bill so there might be a review of all films by some public authority which would give notice to parents in advance "what kind of pictures they were sending their children to see."

The woman advocates of the bill also declared that unless the motion picture interests consented to a modified censorship and co-operated with the parents' organizations, to "purify" the movies, the mothers of the State would be thoroughly organized to establish a rigid censorship in the future.

Duchess Declared Not Seeking Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Reports that the Duchess of Manchester, formerly Miss Helen Zimmerman of Cincinnati, O., is in this country for the purpose of seeking a divorce from the Duke of Manchester were denied today by members of her party upon her arrival here from the south. The duchess denied herself to newspapermen and it was stated that she would continue to shun publicity. A member of her party told newspapermen that the duchess is now en route East and will return to London shortly. She is accompanied by her daughter.

Crookes— A Lens For All Purposes

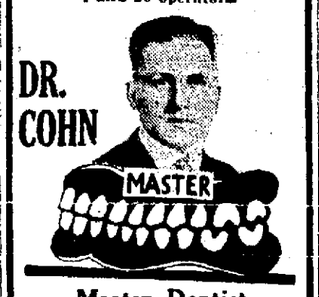

Until the development of Crookes glass by Sir William Crookes, the English scientist, it was impossible to obtain a colored glass to wear for all purposes. Light Crookes glass is so slightly tinted that it is imperceptible, but it has a more beneficial influence on the eyes than many darker glasses.

Whether you need protection from artificial light while working or require a colored lens for a vacation trip, Crookes glass ground to your own correction will admirably meet your requirements.

Of Interest to Women

A prominent physician says that by far the largest number of women's ailments are not surgical ones, that is they are not caused by serious displacements, or growths. Symptoms similar in character are often brought about by much simpler conditions. We therefore urge every woman who suffers from backache, headaches, bearing down pains, side ache, irregularities, nervous despondency, or weakness to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It acts as a natural restorative and often prevents more serious troubles.—Advertisement.

RUSH TO FILE ON POWER SITES IS AROUSING CITIES

Private Corporations Reported Acquiring Locations At Loss To State.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, SACRAMENTO, April 6.—Out of the demand of California for hydro-electric power to take the place of a decreasing oil supply, and out of the publication by the Marshall plan proponents of a list of the reservoir and power sites in the State has developed an acute situation which may result in the loss to the State of millions of dollars in potential wealth. With these facts available to the public and with the passage by Congress last June of a bill opening the public domain to power filings, private parties are sponsoring expeditions to the foothills and gulleys and, by the hundreds, are filing claims on sites that are included in the big development schemes that are designed for a comprehensive State program.

So serious has the situation become, from the standpoint of the men who would have the State control its hydro-electric wealth and storage facilities that the demand is being sounded here that California act at once and file for itself on all of the hundreds of sites that have been surveyed.

The time for action, these men say, is at hand. Under the new Federal law there is a provision that in issuing preliminary permits, or licenses where no preliminary permits have been issued, and in issuing licenses to new licensees, the commission shall give preference to the application therefor by States and municipalities.

ALAMEDA MOVES

Among the first cities in the State to be aroused to action is Alameda, and Alameda county is bidding fair to be the first that will take steps to protect its water power and storage sites from a situation which would mean their control by scores of individuals who might file claims in the hillsides. City Manager C. E. Hewes and City Engineer C. E. Hickok of Alameda have been here in conference with the Marshall plan proponents and others and have determined on a policy to urge the local acquisition of all of the sites within the county border.

The public is given a further bit of protection under the law by the fact that it is stated: "Upon filing of any application for a permit by any person, association or corporation, the commission, before granting such application, shall at once give notice, in writing, to any State or municipality likely to be affected by such application."

Despite this protection there has been an apathy shown regarding the situation and scores of claims have been filed within the area considered for the comprehensive State plan for a general storage and power system to include the entire California valley. Unless the State files on these reservoir sites hundreds more claims will be filed. In the south municipalities are making spasmodic and ineffectual efforts to file on certain claims.

STORAGE FIGURES

It is estimated that in the sites listed in the State there is a capacity for the storing of 60,000,000 acre feet of water. In a publication issued in the interests of the Marshall plan the sites have been presented. The word has gone out and the opportunity for speculation has been presented. As a result there has been started a water site rush somewhat akin to a gold rush, and in all sections men are invading the hills for the purpose of sewing up the storage facilities of the State that they may sell their claims for a high figure.

It is the argument of the Marshall plan people and others that the State should act while it has time and that efforts should be made to guarantee that no one who did not intend to develop a site should be allowed to prevent its being made available for State, district or city use.

Stephens Budget Plans Are Finding Road Rough

By AD B. SCHUSTER

TRIBUNE BUREAU, SACRAMENTO, April 6.—These are days of joyous triumph for the opponents of the King tax bill. With the admission of Chester Rowell and other members of the railroad commission that the recent gas rate was largely due to the passage of the tax bill, and with the successful attack on the report of the budget steering committee, the men who fought the King measure have been put in that enviable position which some weeks ago they predicted could be theirs. There is a chorus of "I told you so."

The report of the budget steering committee has been shot full of holes, turned wrong side out, and made an entirely new document. As it was presented it was designed to give a bill of credit to the budget board and to make the Senate go on record as saying that the King bill proponents, the administration camp, were the only Simon-pure economy workers in the field. But the report did not go through. Not a single declaration of the seven escaped without amendment or tabling and, in addition, two were added.

BREED'S THROWS SAND

One of the new ones, presented by Senator Arthur H. Breed, hit directly at the budget board's system of presenting condensed reports in which no salary lists were given and in which indefinite items like "support" were made to include salaries, traveling expenses and maintenance. This system was scored roundly by Max Thelen and others during the budget hearings, but in the steering committee report no cognizance was taken of these criticisms and the budget board was given nothing but the most fulsome of praise. The Breed declaration which was adopted reads:

"It is the sense of the Senate, sitting as a committee of the whole, that in preparing its budget report for subsequent sessions of the legislature, the budget board should report separately as to each state agency all proposed appropriations, whether general, special or emergency, together with any other funds available for its support; also under appropriate and uniform heads a detailed statement, under sub-heads, all expenditures during each of the preceding two years; also, the information as to wages and salaries to show all propose increases as well as new positions; also, all anticipated revenue accruals; also, explanatory notes to show the reasons for the budget board's recommendations."

PUBLIC TO BE TOLD

This will mean that the budget board will be called upon to prepare a budget that may be understood by the general public, one of the kind that is issued by Illinois, New York and other states and that much of the same confusion that was apparent during the King tax bill and budget hearings will be obviated.

Notice was served on Senator W. J. Carr, in Governor Stephens' office, that if he brought in his report as drafted just such an attack would be made upon it, but he decided to risk the fight. The fact that the opposition to the administration has grown from a minority in the King bill days to a majority today was not appropriation measures. The veto is

The situation is bringing to Sacramento all of the big men in the administration camp. It will be reflected, it is believed, in the disposition that is to be made of various appropriation measures. The veto is to be applied, punishment is to be meted, but not even the most drastic sort of action will take from the King bill opponents the satisfaction they now enjoy in the developments which have brought home so quickly the effects of the passage of the measure.

78 OUT OF 120 STATE DISTRICTS REPORTED 'MOIST'

Alameda County Has Only One "Dry" Section, Reports State Secretary.

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan has compiled a statement of the vote on the prohibition issues for the elections of 1918 and 1919, according to legislative districts, showing that 28 out of the 40 senatorial districts carried a majority against "dry" measures, and that 50 of the 80 assembly districts defeated the same proposals. According to these figures the California legislature would be overwhelmingly "wet" if the members would carry out the expressed wishes of their constituents, but in several districts the men elected have contrary opinions to the recorded vote cast.

In view of the efforts of proponents of both "wet" and "dry" measures in the present session these figures are rather interesting in checking up the votes of the members with the votes of their districts. The advocates of more stringent enforcement of the Volstead act are seeking a state law similar to the so-called Harris act defeated last November, while those asking a modification of the act of Congress enforcing the eighteenth amendment are endeavoring to secure a resolution memorializing Congress to permit the manufacture and sale of light wines and beer.

FIGURES PRESENTED

The assembly has already gone on record in favor of light wines and beer, but the resolution addressed to Congress is being held in the senate, where there is some question of there being sufficient votes to have it carry.

The "Yes" and "No" vote of the people in 1918 and 1920 in the districts of Senators Carr, Otis, Breed and Anderson was as follows:

	Yes	No	Yes	No
THIRTEENTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT (CARR)
FOURTEENTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT (OTIS)

SIXTEENTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT (ANDERSON)
ASSEMBLY DISTRICTS

All the Alameda county assembly districts, with the exception of that represented by Mrs. Saylor, defeated prohibition in 1918 and the Harris bill in 1920. The vote for the two elections, by districts, follows:

CLEARY DEFENDS GAS RATE RULING

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—Assemblyman C. W. Cleary of Tulare county, who was one of the members of the joint legislative committee that investigated the state railroad commission, gave out a statement in which he expressed the opinion that the legislature should not interfere with the judicial function of the commission in the case of the Pacific Gas and Electric company or any other matter. The statement follows:

"Concerning the recent decision of the railroad commission granting an increase in gas rates to the Pacific Gas and Electric company, over which such a furor has arisen, I have read more or less carefully both this decision and the one of the same date by which the rates of the Southern California Edison company for electric service were reduced, which latter decision has received little publicity even though the element of increased taxes entered into the determination of rates to the same degree as in the P. G. & E. case. In them I find no particular basis for criticism of the commission.

"The fact that the increase in the rates of state taxes levied on public utility corporations was quite properly considered as an operating cost of the corporation in determining rates seems to me to have been greatly over emphasized in the case of the P. G. & E. decision.

"If any one of the protestants in the P. G. & E. case is convinced that the existent facts do not justify the decision it is quite properly their right to ask for a re-hearing of the case.

"It is not, however, in my opinion, a proper function of the legislature to demand or request a re-opening of a case decided by the commission."

State Ready to Give Additional Land for Base

TRIBUNE BUREAU, SACRAMENTO, April 6.—A report on the bill to grant the government title to lands to the west of the Alameda naval base site is expected tomorrow morning from the joint committee on commerce and navigation of which Senator J. M. Inman is chairman.

The results of the recent hearing, so far as may be obtained from talk about the legislature, is favorable to the Alameda presentation and it is believed that favorable action will be taken by the committee. In fact, a canvass of the membership would show a majority in favor of the bill so it is certain that the matter will be brought to the floor of the assembly and senate where more oratory will be heard and where favorable passage seems assured.

Six Measures Are Passed By Assembly

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—The following bills were passed by the assembly yesterday and sent to the senate at the morning session:

By Mather—Permitting officers at school elections the same compensation paid officers at the last preceding general election.

By Brooks—Permitting an election board of one judge, one inspector and two clerks at special municipal elections where four or less propositions are submitted to voters.

By Coombs—A San Mateo county government bill.

By Ream—A Siskiyou county government bill.

By Lewis—A bill authorizing the payment of not more than $60 annually by counties as expense for each of several specified officers to enable the latter to attend conventions of such officers.

By Fellom—A joint resolution for a memorial to Congress commending the present naval building program.

By Morrison—Making Labor day a school holiday.

By Brooks—Permitting poor persons to bring certain suits in court at public expense by proving poverty.

Court To Settle Dispute Over Canal

MERCED, Cal., April 6.—The board of directors of the Merced Irrigation District took preliminary steps toward instituting a condemnation suit against the canal system of the Crocker-Huffman Land and Water Company, following failure to reach an agreement with W. H. Crocker over a price for the property, it was announced here. The deadlock has been holding up plans for the irrigation of a district comprising nearly 200,000 acres around the city of Merced, according to the board.

The company set a valuation of $4,000,000 on its property. The board of directors offered to buy the system for $1,750,000.

Senate Votes Repeal Of Vaccination Law

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—Despite opposition and the absence of ten members, the senate yesterday passed, 23 to 7, Senator Crowley's bill to repeal the compulsory vaccination act and to place control of smallopx under direction of the State Board of Health.

Crowley and Osborne explained that the measure, which now goes to the assembly for approval, sought to do away with confusion in present laws and eliminate objection to compulsory vaccination.

Nelson and others particularly objected to the section of the bills stating that "the control of smallpox shall be under the direction of the State Board of Health and no rule or regulation on the subject of vaccination shall be adopted by school or local health authorities." They contended it would prevent communities from taking suitable action in case of epidemic.

Beal Prepares Bill For State Division

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—Assemblyman W. F. Beal of Imperial county, has prepared and expects to introduce a bill to authorize the first steps for the creation of a new state by cutting off from California as it now exists that portion of the state south of the Tehachapi divide.

Bills to the same effect have appeared at preceding sessions, but were never seriously considered. Beal said that the great growth of all sections of California and the consequent heavy increase in expense because of the large area to be administered, justified in his opinion, the renewal of the effort.

The preliminary bill will neither suggest a name for the new state nor attempt to locate a capital. It will merely provide machinery for the first step toward division should legislators view the move with favor.

Ella Kelley, Expert Bacteriologist, Dies

Miss Kelley was a bacteriologist known in medical circles on both sides of the bay, for many years connected with Providence hospital and the Pacific Wasserman laboratories. She was a native of Petaluma and for many years a resident of San Mateo county.

GIGANTIC RUINS ARE UNCOVERED IN SOUTH SEAS

Immense Temple Is Located in Marquesas Islands By Explorer.

HONOLULU T H April 6—Ruins said to be the most impressive ever discovered the famous ones of Central America not excepted have recently been located in the Marquesas Islands according to Ralph Linton, member of one of the expeditionary parties sent to the South Seas by the Bishop Museum of Honolulu

In writing to the museum here of his discovery Linton said that the ruin in question was that of a gigantic temple decorated with sculptured heads and tall figures in a manner unknown elsewhere in Polynesia but practised by the temple builders of Indo China and Central America The old temple is on the island of Hiva Oa in the Marquesas group a French possession

The figures with which the temple is adorned are from 8 to 10 feet high and are carved from great logs Their age is approximated at 400 years although it is believed they are copies of still older carvings

The Bishop museum has expeditions exploring in Hawaii, Tonga, the Austral Islands and the Marquesas and their discoveries have been so important they will be kept in the field for another six months or a year, according to Dr H E Gregory, director of the museum

What's Happening in the Motor World

by Jim Houlihan

Forty or more salesmen on Broadway are on the warpath for the man guy who perpetrated this joke on April 1

Scene 1—Nearly every salesroom in Oakland received a phone message on the morning of the first The man doing the talking represented himself to be a Mr Sanborn address 4065 or some such number, Foothill Boulevard He and his wife were very much interested in the Hupmobile, Willys Knight Oldsmobile Oakland Westcott Studebaker Buick Velie Lincoln, Marmon Cadillac Franklin or Haynes etc depending upon with what agency the conversation was being held They liked that particular car a little better than others in the same class and if the dealer would have one of his salesmen call at the aforesaid address at 4 p m that afternoon chances were this live prospect would sign his order Would the salesman come? He would He'd be there on the minute

Scene 2—Time 4 p m—Place above named address, Foothill Boulevard Characters present—said forty or more salesmen each with his car slicked up as any good demonstrator should be Did they ferret the joke? They did Also they blocked traffic in the neighborhood of the address for some few minutes Were they mad? We think they were, for we're told that if the blankety, blankety, blankety blank jokesmith could be revealed he'd never attempt a like prank again

MOTOR TRADE IS BRISK

April's advent with cold weather in its wake, hasn't curbed the avalanche of orders leading dealers are booking Indications point to a volume this month that will surpass even the March total, which, in some instances was so much greater than came in March of 1920 dealers scarcely could believe their own figures bearing on the increase The evidence exists and the deliveries have been made with promises in sight of an even better showing during the present month

Other branches of the automotive trade have begun to perk up Repair shops are filling up with motor cars that are to have their spring overhaul paint shops are beseiged with requests to rush through automobiles that are being dolled up, the tire and accessory men are commencing to feel the spurt while the battery men say the amount of repair and inspection work they are doing is much greater than usually comes in spring

The Call of the Open Road is finding its answer in these signs The clearing of the Wawona road into Yosemite has spurred the boosters in Placerville, Auburn and Colfax to force an opening of both main Tahoe routes These communities will undoubtedly have competition in Marysville and Oroville for the breaking down of the winter barriers on the Feather river highways The motorist should benefit from this activity and be able to get into his favorite spots quite a bit earlier than in years gone by

MOTOR VEHICLE CONFERENCE

A conference is being held today in Sacramento that should finally determine what form the new motor vehicle act will take Present at this meeting are the highway commissioners Supervisors from various parts of the state officials of motor car dealers and of the California Automobile Trade Association and representatives of the automobile clubs

There have been some heated battles during the last month between the highway commissioners and delegates from the automobile clubs There's no love lost between the two since the bombshell was let loose by the northern and southern associations censuring the methods pursued in building and maintaining the present California system of concrete roads

The commissioners are against nearly everything the clubs want, and, having the ear of the governor they may come closer to securing the kind of legislation they think is best for the state regardless of the viewpoint held by the two clubs

Motor Vehicle Superintendent Chenu wants the present act amended while the motor clubs are seeking practically an entirely new law

Although predictions may seem premature the writer's opinion is that the present act will remain as written with certain amendments to conform to the growth of automobiles and trucks

LEGION PLEDGES ANEW ITS FAITH IN AMERICAN IDEALS

Commander Pronounces Hostility to Hyphen and Hyphenates.

NEW YORK, April 6—Hostility to the 'hyphen and hyphenates" was pronounced here yesterday by F W Galbraith, Jr, national commander of the American Legion, who in a statement commemorative of the fourth anniversary of the declaration by the United States of war against Germany pledged anew the soldier organization's "faith in America, its traditions and its ideals"

"Four years ago tomorrow," said the statement "we declared war against Germany The hyphen, realizing that it was an ally of our enemy, promptly took cover The hyphen dug in and hid its head and so long as the roar of battle sounded it maintained an exceedingly low visibility

"Then there was an armistice which signified that the danger was over and with the passing of danger the hyphen crept back slowly into view Finally it became bold and asserted itself with its old arrogance

"This anniversary is a fitting time to serve notice on the hyphen and hyphenates that there may have been an armistice for our late enemies, but there never can be an armistice with the hyphen An honest adversary we can admire and forgive We never can make a truce with those citizens who affirm allegiance to two masters

"It is fitting that on this day, reminiscent of patriotic fervor, we pledge anew our faith in America, its traditions and its ideals—one country, one tongue, one flag"

SOUTH CAROLINA COUNTY BOASTS BLIND CORONER

YORK, S. C, April 6.—York county lays claim to the most active blind coroner in the United States The coroner, Paul G. McCorkle, former member of Congress from the Fifth South Carolina district, walks about the streets of this city unaided, save for a long cane He is able to distinguish hundreds of people by their voices. His office is on the second story of the building on the main square In the winter he descends several times each day from his office with a coal scuttle in his hand Walking down the stairway he finds his way to the coal pile, fills the scuttle and returns

Coroner McCorkle lost his eyesight many years ago when a horse which he was driving to a buggy ran away

Yosemite Park Opens Month Before Usual

YOSEMITE, April 6—Spring arrived at Yosemite National Park thirty days earlier than usual this year, Superintendent W B Lewis announced recently As a result automobile roads into the park were opened earlier than expected

Last year, more than 67,000 people visited the park and Superintendent Lewis predicted at least as heavy for this year

TIN CAN IS FOUND ONE OF GREATEST HOME BREAKERS

Kansas Is Spending $200,000 Yearly On Instruction in Housekeeping.

TOPEKA, Kas, April 5—"Why do men leave home?" is regarded as a more or less serious economic and social question in this country. Kansas has a feelin gthat may be it has found part of the answer In a good many cases Kansas has found that bad cooking is the cause for many a man to leave his home and family. Miss Virginia Campbell, secretary of the Topeka Provident Association a general charitable institution, has been studying a large number of cases of women and children being deserted by the husband and father

"The poor, deserted wife frequently does not deserve the sympathy given her" said Miss Campbell "The children deserve a lot of pity and generally the husband and father is entitled to a deal of sympathy, too

"There are any number of cases of wife desertion where the cause is directly traceable to bad housekeeping, bad cooking, laziness and a tyrannical disposition upon the part of the wife. The paper bag and the tin can are the curse of many homes. I have found many disrupted families where canned and ready-cooked food from the grocer and baker were the direct cause of the breaking up of the family ties.

Kansas is spending more than $200,000 a year trying to teach the girls of the state how to make happy and contented homes for their husbands.

Floors—Refinish Yours Yourself

with paint or varnish. We tell how

IT'S a simple matter, if you cannot get a painter, to refinish any floor—fun, in fact, to do the work yourself.

We make the finest finishes. They dry over night, so you can walk on them in the morning.

They are made for laymen's use as well as painter's—they flow and spread easily and cover well. The result is a smooth and lustrous finish—just the one you want to get, although you—an amateur—do the work.

Women can apply these products as well as men.

We make also a special line of paints, varnishes, enamels, etc., for all kinds of interior decorating. And we maintain a Free Advice Department that will tell you in detail how to use them. You simply describe the article, how finished now, and the effect you want to get

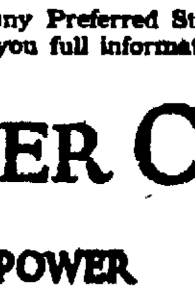

We've specified these materials and methods for you after 72 years' experience with paints and painting practice. We are one of the largest paint manufacturers in the United States.

Where to Buy

Oakland Spring Dollar Day—Wed., April 13

Two Hundred to Be Guests at Wedding Tonight

Two hundred invitations have been sent out for the marriage of Miss Juanita Ghirardelli and Harry Hush Magee, which will be solemnized this evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Louis Ghirardelli, in Vernon Heights. Rev. Charles Luther Kloss, pastor of Plymouth Congregational church, will officiate. Eight-thirty o'clock is the time set for the ceremony, the nuptial vows to be exchanged before an altar of pale pink sweetpeas in the drawing room. Miss Ghirardelli will wear the formal bridal gown of white satin, simple in design and embroidered in crystal beads. Her bridal veil of sheerest tulle will be held in place with orange blossoms and a handsome shower of butterfly orchids and valley lilies will complete the costume.

Miss Elva Ghirardelli, her sister, will be maid of honor and will wear a gown of blue chiffon. Miss Elizabeth Magee, Miss Katherine Armstrong and Miss Katherine Maxwell will wear bridesmaids frocks of pink chiffon, shading from the deep rose to palest pink. All will carry shower bouquets of pink rosebuds and fern.

William A. Magee Jr. will be best man for his brother.

Miss Ghirardelli is a sister of Louis and Alfred Ghirardelli and is a graduate of Miss Ransom's school in Piedmont.

PLANS FOR MARKET FETE

Many novel features are being planned for the big community market and carnival to be held by the Red Cross in the attractive gardens of the Hotel Claremont on the afternoon and evening of Saturday, April 23.

Society in Berkeley as a whole is taking an interest in the event and, in addition, clubwomen are lending their support to the benefit. With the spacious and picturesque gardens of the Hotel Claremont at their disposal, Mrs. Harry Allston Williams and her assistants are devising any number of original features for the occasion.

Differing from the usual carnivals there will be no set "booths" Attractively appointed tables surmounted by gaily colored parasols and canopies will be a Japanese tea garden presided over by Mrs. Hubert N. Ponting and a bevy of pretty maids in fetching costumes. The College Women's Club under the direction of Mrs. Roydon I. Woolsey is recruiting its best cooks to prepare and serve hot waffles to the market visitors, while the inner man—and woman—will be cared for further by the Mobilized Women's Organizations, members of which body will serve real home-made doughnuts and coffee. Mrs. Theodore Watson will be hostess at this latter "concession."

Twentieth Century Club members have agreed to take over the sale of ice cream cones, and Mrs. F. A. Keyston of that organization will direct activities along that line. Mrs. Henry Martinez, Mrs. Samuel B. McLenegan and Mrs. Helen Whitney will preside jointly over the candy concession and are appealing to Berkeley women who are good candy makers to tell them about it so that they can count on their donations on the day of the market.

Not to be left out of the community undertaking, co-eds at the University represented by the Young Women's Christian Association will serve "hot dogs" under the leadership of Miss Margaret Maxwell.

Features which are expected to make the benefit one of the most successful ever given in Berkeley are being added daily by Mrs. Williams, who in her capacity as director of last year's spring market, cleared several thousand dollars for outside relief purposes. Berkeley charities are assured the entire proceeds of this year's benefit and an even larger sum is expected to be cleared this month.

RETURNS FROM DEL MONTE

Mrs. Thomas F. Watson has returned from a trip to Del Monte and Pebble Beach and is planning a series of parties the first of which will be on April 16 at the home of the hostess in Lagunitas avenue. Another will be held May 3 at the Olympic Country club at Lakeside.

Cards have been received for a tea at which Miss Cecile Carrick will be hostess Thursday afternoon, April 14, at the Home club in Fourth Avenue Heights. Miss Catherine Hickson of Eureka, who is visiting here, will be the guest of honor and will assist the hostess to receive from 4 to 6 o'clock.

The marriage of Miss Tessa Howe and Milton T. Garrity, both of this city, took place at All Souls' Chapel in Berkeley, March 26, at a 5 o'clock ceremony, Rev. R M. Trelease officiating. Only the immediate relatives and a few friends of the two families were guests and among them were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Davis of Blue Island, Illinois. A wedding dinner was served at the Key Route Inn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Howe of Waverly street and is a graduate of Technical High school.

Garrity is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Garrity of Vallejo.

Miss Mabel Wessa and John Riolo were attendants upon the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrity are at their home in Oak street.

The date for the marriage of Miss Dorothy Taylor, daughter of the late Captain E. M. Taylor, and Murray Orrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Orrick of Vernon street, has been set for April 20, the service to be read in St. Paul's Episcopal church. Only immediate relatives will be present. Orrick is a brother of William Orrick and Mrs. Ralph Knowles (Elizabeth Orrick).

WHAT A WOMAN SHOULD DO WHEN SHE IS WEAK AND NERVOUS

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN HAVE SURPRISINGLY INCREASED THEIR STRENGTH, ENERGY AND ENDURANCE IN TWO WEEKS TIME BY THIS SIMPLE EXPERIMENT.

On account of the terrible weakness, nervousness and alarming symptoms, which are often produced by iron starvation of the blood, the sufferer frequently never suspects the real cause of her trouble but thinks she has some other ailment. As a result of iron starvation you may suffer from headaches, dizziness, shortness of breath or heart palpitation, pains across the back, loss of memory, weak will power, melancholy or the "blues," disturbed digestion, loss of appetite, sleepless nights, night sweats and so on. In such cases do not wait until you go all to pieces and collapse in a state of nervous prostration, but eat more spinach and green vegetables and take organic iron like Nuxated Iron with them for a while and see what a difference it makes. But be sure the iron you take is organic iron and not metallic iron which people usually take. Metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron, while organic iron like Nuxated Iron is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. Beware of substitutes. Look for the name "Nuxated" on every package and the letters N. I. on every tablet. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists. Advertisement.

"Yes, Mrs. Smith Resinol is wonderful"

"We always keep a jar on hand. It is the best thing I know for eczema and similar ills, and it is so gentle and soothing it is excellent for cuts, burns, or sores. We use Resinol Soap also—it's ideal for the complexion and bath. Yes, you can get all the Resinol products from your druggist."

Don't Spoil Your Hair By Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulsified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—Advertisement.

Writers to Pay Tribute to John Burroughs

BY EDNA B. KINARD.

A memorial to John Burroughs will be offered tonight by the California Writers' Club in the auditorium of the Oakland Technical high school. The first presentation of a film of the famous naturalist recently made will be a feature of the program which would do him honor. Many men and women about the bay claimed Burroughs as their personal friend. Several of these have been invited to give brief addresses, in reminiscent vein. The assembly hall accommodates but 1400. For this reason the club is announcing that admission will be by a courtesy card. The memorial is the first which has been announced for Burroughs on this side of the bay.

The California Writers' Club will honor one of its own members on Saturday afternoon at a matinee party at the Players' Club, where the Chinese play of Charles Caldwell Doble will be presented. Doble has completed a play for Ruth St. Denis, which will be produced across the bay on April 28.

The official program for the annual convention of the second district, California Congress of Mothers, which will meet in San Francisco for two days beginning Thursday, April 14, is announced today by Mrs. H. G. Tardy, president.

Greetings will be extended to the delegates and visitors in the Civic Auditorium Thursday morning by Mayor James Rolph, Mrs Sanborn, president of the San Francisco Board of Education, and Mrs. George Harrel, president of San Francisco Federation of Mothers' Clubs. Oakland will have an important place in the opening program in the persons of Mrs. Tardy, presiding officer, Mrs. James Warren Comstock, who will lead the pledge to the flag, and Mrs. L. C. Grasser, chairman of the credentials committee. Reports will be made by Mrs H. E. Hatch, chairman of resolutions; Mrs. Arthur Painter, chairman of nominations.

The following round tables will be held beginning at 1 p. m.: Presidents, speakers' bureau, program, Mrs. P. J. Kramer, Mrs. W. H. Marston; thrift, philanthropy, Miss Ada Chandon, Mrs. Charles Murphy; finance, scholarship, Mrs. P. J. Carr, Mrs. F. W. Durgin; Americanization, education, Mrs. Charles Godfrey, Mrs S. H. Jackson, financial secretaries, treasurers, Mrs I. E. Nelson, Mrs. P. C Smith; child labor, juvenile court, probation, Mrs. S Hopkins with Mrs. B. F. Schlesinger, speaker.

Old style parents and New Style Children," is the subject which Rev. Harvey V. Miller of Sacramento will present at the afternoon session Miss Florence La Ganke, supervisor of home economics, Oakland schools, will be a speaker. Election of officers will take place.

A resolutions and constitution forum supper at the Girls' high school is announced for 6 p. m., followed by a reception at 8 p. m.

Federation reports, round tables and open forums will divide attention on Friday morning. Mrs David O. Mears, Mrs Hugh Bradford, Roy Cloud, superintendent of schools in San Mateo county, and Mrs. J. M Wilson will be the afternoon speakers.

The convention luncheon will take place at Hotel Whitcomb on Friday. A reception and 5 o'clock tea is announced following adjournment at the same place.

Miss Gali Laughlin who has returned from attendance upon the national convention of the Woman's party in Washington, D. C., will be made the guest of honor tomorrow night at a dinner at Hotel Harrison, at which a group of the prominent women of the bay cities will be hostesses. Miss Laughlin will review the historical gathering in the capital and present the program of work which the leaders adopted.

"The Trials and Joys of a Woman Pharmacist" will be revealed by Mabel M Sawyer, Ph C., following the regular Thursday luncheon of the Business and Professional Woman's Club tomorrow at Hotel Harrison. A part of the session will be given over to business of the organization. Mrs Gladys Barndollar, president, will preside.

Lists or artists whose work deserves recognition are being sent from the state federation to Mrs. Rose V S Berry of Berkeley, chairman of the department of fine arts, General Federation of Woman's Clubs. Each state federation has been asked to gather a collection of its best fine art for exhibition in Salt Lake during the council week of the general federation, June 12-18. Admission to the exhibition hall will be complimentary not only to delegates and clubwomen, but to the citizens and tourists in Salt Lake.

Three-Told Horse's Fossil Is Unearthed

BIDLANDS, April 6.—Paleontologists are preparing for an expedition into the Moreno Hills near here following announcement that fossils of a two and three-toed horse have been found in a mountainous canyon there. The discovery was made by two prospectors and the fossils, together with the bones of a camel of prehistoric origin, have been sent to the Smithsonian Institution. These horses, according to William A Bryan, curator of the Los Angeles Museum of History, Science and Art, are between 100,000 and 200,000 years old, living prior to the Pleistocene age.

Convict Makes Trip To Prison Unguarded

CHESTER, Ill., April 6.—Lorus McDermott entered the penitentiary here today to serve from one to fourteen years for alleged embezzlement. He came as a trusty, being unaccompanied from Madison county, where he was convicted. Sheriff George Little gave McDermott $5 to defray the expense to prison and shook hands with him when he left.

LECTURE BY MASON.

Alameda, April 6.—An illustrated lecture "Observations of a Mason In France," will be given before the members of Oak Grove lodge in Park street Masonic Temple this evening. The speaker will be Maurice Stewart of Oakland. During the war he was sent to France in the Y. M. C. A service and while on the other side secured a great many interesting and remarkable pictures.

VILLA WOULD REBUILD CITY HE DESTROYED

LOS ANGELES, April 6.—Francisco Villa, one-time Mexican revolutionary leader, has offered to rebuild the city of Jiminez, which he helped to wreck during his bandit days, according to J. E. Hardy, American mining man, who has returned to Los Angeles after spending a year in the Mexican state of Durango.

Hardy said Villa is living in peace on his 300,000-acre ranch at Canutillo in Durango state. Many of his former lieutenants occupy small farms adjoining the Villa estate. The former bandit chief, in an effort to regain his popularity, the mining man said, has offered to rebuild Jiminez and to spend $20,000 to improve the school system of Parral, another Mexican city.

COL. ROOSEVELT WILL PAY VISIT TO WEST COAST

TACOMA, Wash., April 6.—Theodore Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, plans to be here May 9, when the scout cruiser Cincinnati is launched. It was announced by officials of the Todd Shipyards. Roosevelt will be present unless his executive duties make the Western trip impossible, it was said. The Cincinnati will be a sister ship of the Omaha and Milwaukee, launched here recently, and the three will be the fastest cruisers in the United States Navy.

San Francisco News

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—District Attorney Brady and members of his narcotic squad last night confiscated opium valued at about $40,000 in the hotel room of Charles Shreiber at 2162 Market street. Shreiber was placed under arrest, charged with a violation of the anti-narcotic law. Charles Neary, Milton Cohn and James Corridan were the members of the narcotic squad that worked with District Attorney Brady in obtaining the opium and effecting Shreiber's arrest.

LOOM WOVEN Lloyd Baby Carriages and Furniture

Lloyd Loom Woven Wickers Are First in Demand; In Every Way Better Than Those Made by Hand.

A Pretty Carriage for a Pretty Baby—Naturally!

The dearest, sweetest, finest, brightest baby in all the world, isn't he? How proudly Sister takes him out for all the world to see!

You're proud of his smart little Stroller, too, if it's a Lloyd—the wicker weaving as smooth and even and perfect as a fine fabric; the finish as careful as every little garment made for his layette.

Although they're so much better, Lloyd Carriages and Wicker Furniture are not the most expensive, because Marshall B. Lloyd invented a method and loom which produce Baby Carriages and Wicker Furniture thirty times faster and finer than the old hand woven products. These inventions cut labor costs, enabling Mr. Lloyd to weave the finest wickers, use the best materials, employ the most skilled workmen, add the latest refinements and still sell his wicker products at remarkable prices. That's the power of invention.

'Hooch Fruit' Invented; It's Loaded Melon

BURLINGTON, Colo., April 6.—"Hooch fruit," as a substitute for home brewed liquor, will result if the experiment of V. H. Chanlear, prominent watermelon grower here, proves a success. Chanlear, who has made hundreds of experi- ments, declares he has found a way whereby every watermelon can be made into a natural still.

When the watermelon is about half grown, Chanlear's method is to plug it, insert a yeast combina- tion of his own manufacture, then seal the hole with grafting wax. The yeast, acting on the sugar con- tent of the melon, will develop an unusual amount of alcohol, and at the same time the growth of the melon will be greatly stimulated by its own invigorator, Chanlear claims. Ninety per cent of the melons in a field will weigh more than 30 pounds each if given the yeast treatment, he said.

Several business men here con- tracted for an acre each of the melons with a ten per cent kick at a dollar per melon. Chanlear has turned over his contracts and methods to the Burlington Melon Growers' Association, which will test the experiment on an extensive scale.

Too much notoriety, correspond- dence and annoyance was Chan- lear's reason for giving up the project.

Council Orders Auto Stage Tax Ordinance

NAPA, April 6.—Following much discussion of the city dads of Napa and various civic organizations with a voting coupon sent to members of the Chamber of Commerce for their opinion regarding taxing the auto stage lines passing through the city streets, Napa's city council has gone on record in dealing with the matter.

At their regular meeting this week, City Attorney John M. York was di- rected to prepare an ordinance cov- ering the subject It will effect the stage line operated by Dunham be- tween Napa and Santa Rosa and the Western Auto stage line operating between Healdsburg and Oakland passing through Napa.

Campus Dance Figures of the Past Outdone in Partheneia

300 U. C. GIRLS WILL TAKE PART IN PARTHENEIA

BERKELEY, April 6.—Tomorrow, the date of the annual Partheneia at the university, will not be the first time bare-footed maidens have danced across the rolling lawns of Faculty Glade.

Beads and other articles found buried in the glade have convinced faculty experts that the spot was used in other days as a ceremonial ground of Indians. As if planned in keeping with the significance of the event a typically Californian masque, "The Lilies of Mirones," in which In- dian maids play a part will be pre- sented by the college girls.

"Mirones," the heroine, as played by Miss Barbara Bronson, makes the sacrifice of her life to prove her love for Manuel, played by Miss Florence Ivanoff.

Three hundred college girls will take part. The production is set for 3 o'clock tomorrow and Friday afternoons and arrangements have been made to accommodate 3000 persons. Bleachers have been erected on the south and west sides of the glade while mats will be spread on the lawns.

Besides Miss Bronson and Miss Ivanoff the following university stu- dents have been trained for their roles by Irving Pichel, assistant di- rector of the Greek theater, who is directing the masque:

Corteja, her father...Eileen Thorton
Marta, an old Indian.....
.....Florence Randall
Padre.....Geraldine Guy
Spirit of the Grove....Ruth Prager
Gold.....Pauline Taylor
Water Spirit.....Virginia Byrne
Indian Boy.....Miriam Mack
Indian Girl.....Harriette Owens
Old Indian.....Even Moreland
Death.....Katherine Ulrich

The solo dancers will be Mary Rix- ford, Dorothy Osborn, Rhea Boyton, Anita Avila, Gladys Goldie, Mary Kauffman, Florence Clark, Lorna McLean.

Salvation Army to Erect $120,000 Home for Girls

Application was made for a building permit to construct the $120,000 Salvation Army home for girls at Garden street between East Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth, to take the place of the old Beulah home.

The building will be a three- story, reinforced concrete structure and will have all modern appli- ances and conveniences. Maury Diggs is the architect and Palmer & Peterson are the contractors.

Application also was made for a permit to build a $24,000 two-story 24-room apartment house on Bel- mont street near Perkins. F. A Miller is the contractor and Mrs. A. P. Boyd the owner.

Briand Praises Note From America on Reparations

PARIS, April 6 (By the Associated Press).—Premier Briand paid trib- ute to the loyalty of the United States in resisting "insidious over- tures by Germany" in the Senate to- day, and served notice that if Ger- many continues to resist payment of reparations after May 1 France will lay a strong hand on her neck.

Henry de Jouvenel, chief editor of the Matin, who preceded Briand, de- clared that if President Wilson had intervened at the end of July, 1914, he could have prevented the war.

He pleaded with the Premier to ask the United States that, in case it decided later to consider a re- sumption of business relations with Russia, France be admitted as a party to the negotiations to protect the interests of the French people. He added:

"Cannot M. Viviani (former premier, who is in Washington now), ask President Harding whether it would not be proper to consider the status of the French debts to the United States as debts contracted common interest?"

THREATENS GERMANY

The Premier, in his speech, said negotiations opened by the Germans with the United States regarding reparations constituted their last re- sort in resistance to the payment of their obligations, but that after May 1, if they continued to resist, "the strong hand of France will fall on their coat collar."

The Germans have tried every way to divide the allies, he said.

The Temps also expresses pleasure over the reply of Secretary Hughes. This newspaper particularly is sat- isfied with the phrase of the Ameri- can Secretary of State saying that the United States stands with the allies as regards reparations.

VIVIANI DINNER GUEST

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Rene Viviani, envoy extraordinary of France, was the guest of President and Mrs. Harding at a dinner in his honor at the White House tonight.

Ambassador and Madame Jusse- rand also were present, as were Vice- President and Mrs. Coolidge, Speak- er and Mrs. Gillett, Secretary and Mrs. Hughes, Senator Lodge chair- man of the foreign relations commit- tee; Representative Porter, chairman of the House foreign affairs com- mittee, Under Secretary of State and Mrs. Fletcher, and Myron T. Her- rick of Ohio, who has been mention- ed as the next ambassador to France.

In a statement to the Associated Press today, Viviani said the purpose of his visit to the United States was to sound public opinion in America and inform the American people of conditions in France.

The French envoy expressed grat- ification that sentiment favorable to France had been observed in confer- ence with leading public officials.

'Lady Solon' Gives Views On Rouge, Short Skirts

By MILDRED MORRIS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Alice Robertson, Oklahoma's lady mem- ber of congress, today gave her impressions of "the cigarette smok- ing women of the east," with their rouge and knee skirts.

When it was suggested that they proved a bit of a shock to a citizen of the "cow country," she said calmly:

"You can see plenty of women in the southwest with rouge and skirts shorter than they ought to be. Some of them use even more rouge than the women in Washing- ton and New York. The people out there are not going to let the east get ahead of them in anything if they can help it.

WHY THEY DO IT.

"If the up-to-date skirt had more width and a little more length, it would be sensible.

"I don't call these extreme styles, with the bodice cut too low and the skirt too high, immoral. If they were immoral they would attract the men, but they don't. They dis- gust them. Women dress that way not to attract the men but to get ahead of one another.

"Maybe you've noticed that it's the women with the scrawniest necks and legs who wear the low- est waists and shortest skirts," ob- served the "lady from Oklahoma."

"The first time I saw women smoking was in New York while I was staying at the National Arts Club. It was interesting. If women want to smoke, that's their busi- ness. They don't hurt anyone but themselves. The men think it's disgusting."

WIFE USUALLY TO BLAME.

Sitting back in a comfortable chair in her office in the capitol, "Miss Alice," who gives promise of being as popular in Washington as in her home town, Muskogee, gave advice to wives, described the woman lobbyist as "something to be pitied," voiced disapproval of the league of women voters, and declared the Shepherd-Towner maternity bill "Bolshevistic in some of its features."

"The wife is usually to blame when the home is unhappy," she said. "Maybe she cooks badly or goes around in a soiled kimono in- stead of dressing up and looking as pretty as she used to be.

"Courtship is like hunting or fishing. After the game is caught the zest is gone. The woman makes the environment of the home and fits up to her to hold the interest of the man.

THE "DANGEROUS TIME."

"The dangerous time comes when the man begins to acquire money. When he takes a trip, the wife who is wise leaves the chil- dren with someone else and trots along with him. She keeps up her complexion and dresses as at- tractively as possible so he won't go trotting after some pretty girl on the outside.

"I represent the conservative woman who would rather cook a good meal than meddle with pol- itics," she said.

"The average woman in the United States wasn't interested in politics until she got the vote. The average woman didn't care any- thing about the vote. If she had, she would have got it long before she did.

"A WOMAN'S WOMAN"

"I don't believe in antagonizing the men. The league of women voters, in effect, says that if the men who make our laws will not make the kind of laws they want they will throw stones at them, acting like children and call them names. I am opposed to the Shepherd-Towner bill. It has paternalistic features which are Bolshevistic and I think it is faulty in construction. It would create many jobs for women and give them powers they may not be qualified to fill.

"I don't want any one to think that I'm not loyal to women. I'm a woman's woman, but now it's a 50-50 proposition with me. I was elected to represent both the men and women of Oklahoma."

Asked what she planned to "do" to her male colleagues in Congress, "Miss Alice" answered with a twin- kle:

"Well, I don't intend to feed them soup or talk them to death."

France May Seize Ruhr Basin Alone

By NEWTON C. PARKE,
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

PARIS, April 6.—Speculation con- cerning a further invasion of Ger- many was intensified today by an article from the pen of Raymond Recouly, who urged that if Eng- land refused, France must act alone in seizing the Ruhr basin.

Recouly's utterances are given added weight by the fact that he is an intimate friend of Marshal Foch. He declares the French general staff has prepared plans for such an in- vasion to the last detail, only two classes having to be mobilized to carry out the seizure of the Ruhr basin with swift success.

"England is so short of soldiers that she asked France to relieve British battalions in Upper Silesia. France will have to bear the military burden of the occupation," says Recouly.

FURUSETH ASKS HOOVER TO PLAN WAGE MEETINGS

Seamen's Union Wants To Talk Renewal of Agreements.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Secre- tary Hoover has been requested by Andrew Furuseth, president of the International Seamen's Union, to use his personal and official influence in arranging a conference between the American Shipowners' Association and officials of the Seamen's Union, with a view to negotiating renewals of wage and other agreements which expire April 30.

"The next six weeks will determine whether the United States is to have an adequate merchant marine or is to go back to the status of twenty years ago," Furuseth said.

It is reported here that the ship- owners are prepared to insist upon a wage reduction of 25 per cent, elimination of all overtime pro- visions in the present agreements and several changes in working con- ditions.

Furuseth said, however, that the headquarters of the Seamen's Asso- ciation here still was in ignorance of the extent to which the shipowners' demands would go, as no communi- cation had been received either from the Shipowners' Association or from the similar organization on the Pa- cific coast, although a request for a conference was first made in Janu- ary.

Furuseth also asked Secretary Hoover to take up the matter of pre- paring new regulations to enforce sections 4 and 13 of the seamen's act. The present regulations, Furu- seth said, "have seemed rather de- signed to hamstring those sections."

Section 4 provides that every American seaman shall be entitled to receive on demand at any port where the ship may touch one-half of the wages he has earned, and sec- tion 13 prohibits entrance into or the departure from an American port of any ship unless 75 per cent of her crew is able to speak the language of the ship's officers.

Health Center Work Gets Endorsement

ALAMEDA, April 6—The Alameda AA board of education unanimously en- dorsed the work which the Alameda Health Center is carrying on at its meeting last night. The board also pledged its heartiest co-operation in carrying out the work of the insti- tution.

The board received and accepted bids for machinery for the high school machine shops and desks for the elementary department to the total amount of $11,097.42.

Dancing Follows Boost Gathering

An evening of entertainment and dancing following the discussion of plans for cooperation in the cam- paigns to boost Alameda county now under way will comprise the pro- gram of the coming meeting of the East Side Board of Trade to be held in Woodmen's hall, 3256 East Four- teenth street, on the evening of April 15. Musical selections will be rendered by the orchestra of the Dewey school, according to an- nouncement of E. O. McCline, sec- retary of the organization.

Tilden Suggests Monument To Dead

BERKELEY, April 6.—Any me- morial which is erected to Berkeley's dead in the world war should take the form of a monument of some kind, according to Sculptor Douglas Tilden in a letter to the council.

As the memorial bond issue failed at the polls on Saturday the council filed the communication without comment. A new movement is on foot to raise $150,000 by private sub- scription, the nature of which has not yet been determined.

GOVERNOR DEATH LIST IS ONE LESS; TOTAL NOW IS 8

SEATTLE, April 6.—The name of "V. Brulsema, San Francisco," carried on the list of those missing when the steamer Governor sank off Point Wilson Wash., last week was removed from the list when it was discovered that "Brulsema" was in reality C Bense a passen- ger who was rescued, the Pacific Steamship Company announced.

Eight persons—five passengers and three members of the Govern- or's crew—still are unaccounted for.

Bense's name did not appear on the original passenger list of the Governor, according to E. G. Mc- Micken, passenger traffic manager of the company. Hasty handwrit- ing was believed to have been re- sponsible for his name appearing as "Brulsema," McMicken said.

Diver Jack Clouse was reported to have located the submerged wreck of the Governor in 37 fath- oms of water. Officials of the company said that the depth would not be too great for divers to make an inspection and carry on some salvage work, despite unusually strong tidal currents.

RAILWAYMAN ILL.

LOS ANGELES, April 6.—H. H. Williams, formerly for many years general manager of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, who passed the winter in Long Beach, near here, today started in a private car for his home in Seattle, Wash. He recently suffered a sud- den breakdown in health and friends expressed doubt as to whether he would survive the trip home. He is connected with a num- ber of enterprises in the Northwest.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

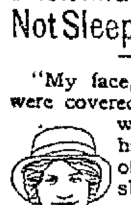

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c. —Advertisement.

ITCHY PIMPLES COVERED FACE

Back and Shoulders. Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Heals.

"My face, back, and shoulders were covered with pimples. They were very sore and I could hardly stand the weight of my clothes on my shoulders. The itching was so severe that I could not sleep at night, and my face was disfigured.

"The trouble lasted about three months. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Theo. Danielson, Jackson, Calif., July 27, 1920.

Blackheads Go Quick By This Simple Method

Blackheads — big ones or little ones—soft ones or hard ones—on any part of the body, go quick by a simple method that just dissolves them. To do this get about two ounces of calonite powder from your druggist—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—and wash off. You'll wonder where the blackheads have gone. The calonite powder and the hot water have just dissolved them. Pinching and squeezing blackheads only open the pores of the skin and leave them open and unsightly—and unless the blackheads are big and soft they will not come out, while the simple application of calonite powder and water dissolves them right out, leaving the skin soft and the pores in their natural condition. You can get calonite powder at any drug store and if you are troubled with these unsightly blemishes you should certainly try this simple method.—Advertisement.

SOLVED THE PROBLEM

"I was almost distracted with stomach trouble, gas and colic attacks and didn't know what to do. I had tried everything I heard of, and the doctor's medicine did not help me. A friend told me about Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and it has solved the problem, as I can now eat anything and have no distress." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists. —Advertisement.

OPTIMIST CLUB WILL HOLD ITS FIRST LUNCHEON

New Organization Preparing To Elect Officers and Begin Work.

With optimism and goodfellowship as the keynote of the gathering, the Optimists Club of Oakland will hold its first luncheon and "coming out" meeting at the Hotel Oakland tomorrow noon. Since R. J. Shoemaker, chief deputy of the Seventh District of the International Optimists Clubs' Association, began his organizing activities in Oakland one week ago, the local organization has gained 26 members.

Shoemaker stated today that the local club will probably name a temporary set of officers at the luncheon to carry on the work of the club pending arrival of a charter from the parent organization.

Organization of an Optimists club in San Francisco was recently effected by Chief Deputy Shoemaker, and that body now has more than 100 members. Shoemaker said today that the Optimists clubs are national and international in scope, taking in Canada as well as the United States. While each club is local in aspect and work, it is also affiliated with all the other Optimists clubs, as the organization, in its collectivity, is an allied institution.

Bert S. Hubbard, president of the Union Lithograph Company and president of the Optimists club in San Francisco, will be present tomorrow as a guest of the local club. Shoemaker announced today that anyone desiring more information concerning the scope and aim of the Optimists club can get in personal touch with him by telephoning to H. S. Crocker's.

Engineers Map New Golden Gate Channel

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—The Coast and Geodetic Survey has delivered to United States Engineer Colonel Herbert Deakyne a map which shows the completed soundings of the bar off the Golden Gate at the place where the United States War Department proposes to cut its ship channel.

The map was drawn from soundings made by 18 Coast and Geodetic Survey engineers. In making the soundings the engineers took almost two dozen trips to the place in the past ten weeks. Government dredges will go out over the bar to take samples of the deposit in order to estimate the cost of cutting the channel.

Recent soundings have shown that an average of two feet along the entire hump of the bar had been washed away since the Coast and Geodetic Survey made its soundings in 1918. The purpose of digging the channel is to establish a free passage through the Golden Gate equal in width and depth to the Panama Canal.

The first work of the dredgers will begin within two weeks, it was announced yesterday by Colonel Deakyne.

Tetrazzini Comes To Auditorium Tonight

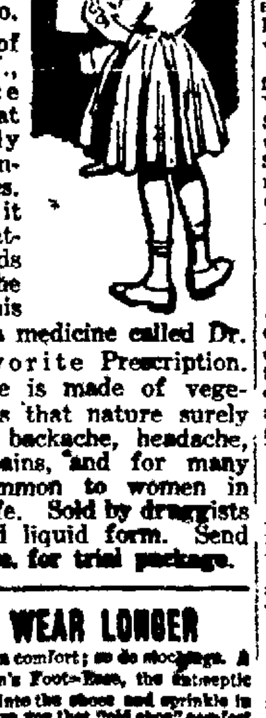

Luisa Tetrazzini will be heard in the last concert of her present California tour at 8:30 tonight in the Auditorium arena. Among the numbers of especial interest will be "Caro Nome," from "Rigoletto," and the Grand Aria, including the mad scene from "Lucia." There will be numerous extra and encore numbers.

Assisting Mme. Tetrazzini will be Francesco Longo, pianist; Max Gegna, 'cellist, and J. Henry Bove, flutist.

Oakland B'nai B'rith Initiates Candidates

News of the Churches

With the passing of the Lenten season the various activities of the different churches have been taken up where they were left off several weeks ago. Missions, home and foreign, religious education, community plans and church socials are receiving the attention of church men and women at this time.

In the First Baptist church the month of April is especially significant and promises to be exceptionally busy. On April 17 Rev. John Snape will celebrate the first anniversary of his pastorate. On April 15 a church social and reception to new members will be held in the church, with special entertainment consisting of musical numbers, humorous sketches by Max Horwinski, and the speech of the evening by Rev. H. A. Van Winkle of the First Christian church.

Tomorrow night a choir social will be held at the home of E. C. Lyon, 804 Walla Vista avenue, and on Friday night Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of Temple Baptist church, Los Angeles, will give one of his characteristic lectures in the church auditorium under the auspices of the Roger Williams club. His subject will be "Half-Baked, or Why So Many People Are Lop-sided."

BAPTIST CHURCH

The quarterly meeting of the Women's League of the First Baptist church, Berkeley, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the church. Professor Herbert F. Evans of the Pacific School of Religion will address the assembled women on the subject "Women and the World's Next Step Forward." Mrs. Evans is to have charge of the program and Mrs. C. S. Newton will lead the devotions.

The regular missionary meeting will follow Professor Evans' address. Quarterly reports from the various departments will be heard.

Mrs D. J. Geary and Mrs. C. W. Sender will be hostesses at the social hour which will follow the missionary meeting.

AT PLYMOUTH CHURCH

Mrs. B. V. Royce of the Stewart Institute, a school for Indian girls at Carson City, Nev., will address the Woman's club of Plymouth Congregational church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. She will tell of her work in the institute and will bring several of the girls with her to show how well her time has been employed. A reading by Mrs. Lillian Slemmons, entitled "My Son's Wife," and the reading of a letter from Miss Bertha Allen of the Foochow kindergarten, China, describing the celebration of Christmas Eve there, will be other features on the program.

On Friday evening the intermediate department in piano of the Plymouth conservatory of music will hold a recital in Mayflower hall. The public is invited to attend.

BIBLE STUDY TOPIC

Six mornings of study on the book "The Bible and Missions," by Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery, are being arranged by the missionary department of St. John's Presbyterian church, Berkeley. The first meeting will be held on April 13, at 10:30 o'clock, at the church.

The following women will lead the thought of the morning meetings: Mrs Frances Russell, April 13; Mrs W. T. Sherman, April 20; Mrs. Ernest F. Hall, April 27; Mrs. Charles Glunz, May 4; Mrs. W. H. Hathaway, May 11, and Mrs. William Wheeler, May 18.

The business girls' group of St. John's church will meet tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Dorothea Marr, 2845 Regent street. Miss Grayce Gove will be the leader.

FIRST CHRISTIAN

A reception was held last night in the First Christian church in honor of the 130 new members who have joined the church since October 1, 1920. Features of the program of the evening were the impersonations of D. Lloyd Morgan and instrumental musical numbers offered by a trio, consisting of piano, cello and violin. Rev. H. A. Van Winkle, the pastor, spoke during the evening.

BABES BAPTISED

At St. John's Presbyterian church, Berkeley, the following infants were baptised: Alfred Garvin Bean, Barbara Isabel Bean, Margaret Ellen Bean, Carl W. Caulkins Jr., Betty Talieferro Lawton, George Roy McDonald Jr., Jean Mitchell and Doris Louise Vote.

Many new members have been received into the fellowship of the churches during the past three weeks:

At Plymouth church the following members were received on confession last Sunday: Nancy Biggs, Bernice Blair, Doris Campbell, Florence Prosser, Ruth Schwarz, Mrs. Mary F. Stevens, John Arthur Swenson and Alice Katherine Swenson. A. L. Brinckman and Mrs. Mary Dickinson were received by letter.

At the First Baptist church the following members were received last Wednesday evening: Miss Alice Smart, Miss Evelyn Fordney, Mrs George H. Smith and Miss Evelyn Smith. Henry J. Saunders became a member of St. John's Presbyterian church on confession of faith last Sunday and George R. McDonald and wife were received by letter.

CHURCH MINSTRELS

The annual minstrel show and dance for the benefit of St. Leo's Catholic parish will be held on Tuesday evening, April 12, in Ebell auditorium. The Sa-le-an club which has charge of the program, is arranging an entertainment in which elaborate scenery, costuming and novelties will be features.

A chorus of forty girls has been practicing for several weeks under the direction of Miss Eva Garcia. Hugh J. Williams, tenor, and James Driscoll will render the solo numbers. Roland Springer, interlocutor, has arranged a line of "snappy stuff" for the entertainment of the audience.

PRESBYTERY TO MEET

The annual meeting of the Presbytery of San Francisco will be held at Northbrae Community church, Berkeley, beginning next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The sermon will be preached by Rev. Francis W. Russell, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church, Berkeley. His subject will be "Things Unshaken." Rev. F. S. Brush, pastor of Northbrae church, will conduct the communion service. Ruling Elder Donald Mackenzie of San Francisco, moderator of the Presbytery, will preside. The election of moderator for the new year will follow the communion service.

On Tuesday morning, at 9 o'clock, the Presbytery will convene for the day. Reports will be received from the ecclesiastical, promotional and operational departments, and the executive committee will present nominations for the members of committees.

PLAN GROUP MEETS

A novel plan to effect a closer relation between the members of the First Christian church has been evolved and will be put into practice beginning tomorrow evening. The plan is a series of forty-four group meetings which will be held in the homes of the various members of the church throughout the months of April and May. The different sections of Oakland in which the members live have been divided so that residents of one district may attend the group meetings at the nearest point.

It is expected that a closer relation will be the result of the group meetings. Plans for widening the scope and influence of church work will be discussed during the series, and the results will be reviewed and a general church program announced during the first part of June.

Storm Sewer To Be Discussed By Club

The proposed storm sewer in the Elmhurst district which has created so heated a discussion among the property owners and residents of the East-end will be the important question before the regular meeting of the Elmhurst Community Club in Redman hall, 9410 East Fourteenth street, next Tuesday evening.

Charges are being made by the sponsors of the storm sewer that its opponents are misleading residents in the neighborhood by untrue statements regarding assessments. The Elmhurst Community Club has endorsed the project and is working for its accomplishment. Circulars containing figures vouched for by City Engineer George Mattis and Commissioner W. H. Edwards are being distributed in a house-to-house canvas of the district by the members.

Women Given Permit For Lincoln Statue

The Board of Park Directors has given permission to Women and Girl Workers of '61 and '65 to erect a floral statue of Abraham Lincoln at the City Hall plaza April 14, the day of his death, so that admirers of Lincoln might bring offerings of flowers.

It is planned that April 14 shall be a commemorative day by the women of the Civil War days, and the plaza will be made of flowers. Details for a complete program are being worked out.

As a tribute to the late Hascall Waterhouse, first University of California student to give his life in the world war, former classmates of Waterhouse have secured permission to plant a redwood tree at Mosswood park in his honor.

East Side Body Lauds Late Clayton Strong

Out of respect to the memory of the late Clayton B. Strong, the East Side Board of Trade of Oakland recently passed a resolution deploring his death and offering sympathy to his family. In offering the resolution the board of directors of the club said in part that, "to have known Clayton B Strong and his work is an inspiration in modesty and efficiency that will last long beyond his passing, for in his life he was the highest exemplification of personal honesty, business integrity and progressiveness and civic righteousness."

Copies of the resolution were forwarded to the family and to the Vernon-Rockridge Club, of which he was a member.

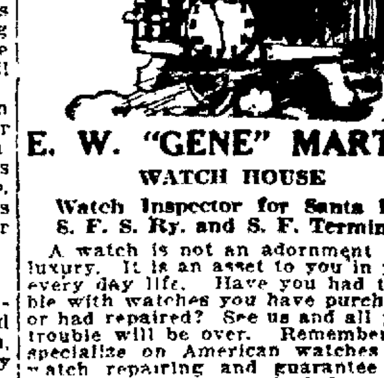

Dr. Brougher To Tell Of Half Baked People

James Whitcomb Brougher, D. D., pastor of Temple Baptist Church, Los Angeles, will deliver one of his humorous lectures at the First Baptist church Friday night. The subject of the lecture, which is to be given under the auspices of the Roger Williams' Club, is "Half Baked, or Why So Many People Are Lopsided."

Dr Brougher is well known in Oakland, having spoken here on several different occasions. During recent years he has been traveling throughout the western states giving a series of lectures which are said to be both humorous and helpful. He is also prominent in social work among the newsboys of Los Angeles.

OAKLAND EAGLES

Oakland Aerie No. 7, Fraternal Order of Eagles, has elected delegates to the state convention of the order, to be held at Rio Vista near Sacramento, during the week beginning June 13. Judge Harry W. Pulcifer, who has been head of the state finance committee since its inception, attends by virtue of his office, as will also President Lee Bertillion and Vice-President Thomas E. Reed. The delegates chosen are as follows: E. DeMello, C. E. Whitaker, William L. Belrose, H. A. Longfellow, M. A. Fitzpatrick, Charles Fagalde, Elias Olson.

THOUGH DEAD, IS MRS. EDDY STILL CHURCH MEMBER?

Boston Court Is Asked To Hold So in Suit Over Government.

BOSTON, April 6.—The question whether Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the Christian Science Church, who died in 1910, is still an active officer of the church, was raised yesterday for the courts to decide.

Edwin A. Krauthoff of Washington, appearing at the hearing in the Supreme Court in one of the several phases of litigation involving the present government of the church, asked for an injunction to restrain any revision of the manual. He said he desired a declaration by the court that Mrs. Eddy, its founder, and the author of the manual, is an active officer of the church just as much as the board of directors are active officers.

Judge Braley remarked that he did not see how such a condition could possibly exist.

MOTION IS DENIED

The doctrines of the church and admissions by church officers, Krauthoff contended, will prove it.

The Judge denied the motion for a temporary injunction, but indicated that he would refer the question for fuller consideration to former Judge Frederic Dodge, as master. Krauthoff then requested that Judge Dodge be required to pass on the status of Mrs Eddy and Judge Braley said he would consider that question on Friday.

The proceedings were in connection with the efforts of John V. Dittemore, who was ousted by the board of directors from that body to prevent omission of his name as an officer of the church from a forthcoming new edition of the manual. It was agreed between counsel by stipulation that his name should not be removed for the present.

MASTER TO HEAR IT

The court postponed until Tuesday a bill brought by Dittemore on the larger question of his difference with the board of directors, but said if facts were found in dispute between the parties they would be referred to a master.

Moose To Celebrate Reopening of Club

Preparations are going ahead in full blast for an entertainment to be staged by the Oakland lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, next Monday evening as a re-opening ceremony for the remodeled clubrooms at 1116 Clay street. The clubrooms have been closed for the last two months, during which time they have been remodeled at a cost of $20,000.

A theater party will be given by the lodge on the evening of April 13 at the MacArthur theater. W. E. Harvent is chairman of the theater party committee.

The lodge is making arrangements for a big Moose spring festival, to be held from May 10 to May 15.

Recital Planned By Young Pianist

Robert Tolmie has opened his Piedmont studio to a recital by David Alberto, pianist, to be given Saturday afternoon. Alberto is one of the younger pianists, for whom older pianists of this section have prophesied a brilliant future.

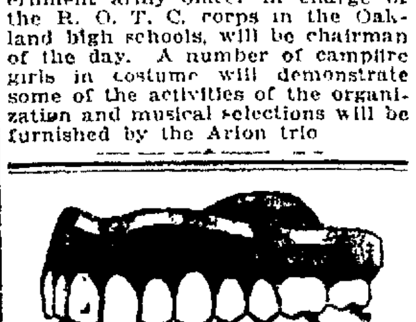

At the age of 17 he began his studies under Theodore Leschetizky in Vienna. He has made a scientific study of acoustics in their relation to tone production and reports discoveries in that line, which will soon be given publication in eastern magazines.

Tolmie and Alberto, both being pupils of the same master, have decided upon giving a series of recitals for two pianos.

Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt Rotary Club Speaker

Dr. Aurelia H. Reinhardt, president of Mills College, will discuss the work of the "Campfire Girls" in promoting young womanhood as a parallel movement to the Boy Scouts of America at the weekly luncheon tomorrow of the Oakland Rotary Club.

Major William McCaughey, government army officer in charge of the R. O. T. C. corps in the Oakland high schools, will be chairman of the day. A number of campfire girls in costume will demonstrate some of the activities of the organization and musical selections will be furnished by the Arion trio.

Show in Third Week Continues To Draw Crowds

Priscilla Dean in "Outside the Law" Attraction At Franklin.

Priscilla Dean, Lon Chaney, Wheeler Oakman and the other members of the big "Outside the Law" cast continue to attract crowds to the New Franklin theater in the third week of the run of this feature.

Thomas Meighan, returning to the type of role which made him famous in "The Miracle Man," heads the Kinema's program this week in "The Frontier of the Stars."

"Outside the Law" will continue until Friday night and will be followed Saturday by Cecil B. De Mille's super-feature, "Forbidden Fruit."

"Outside the Law" is a story of San Francisco's gangsters, with the dazzling heroine of "The Virgin of Stamboul" in the principal part. Lon Chaney, in the picture, plays a double part—one as the gangster and the other as a Chinese servant who figures in the important tong war scenes.

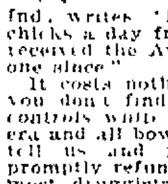

Buster Keaton's "Neighbors" and Hans Hanke are other features of the current Franklin program.

"The Frontier of the Stars" will be followed at the Kinema Saturday by the first picture in many months featuring Elliott Dexter. It is a screen adaptation of the celebrated Augustus Thomas play, "The Witching Hour."

"The Frontier of the Stars" is the story of a leader of a New York gang who turns straight under the influence of a sweet-souled crippled girl who lives on a tenement roof, and who has the battle of his life in his attempt to break away from his old associates and their evil ways. Pretty Faire Binney plays opposite Meighan.

HOW TO RAISE BABY CHICKS

Put Avicol in the drinking water

Most people lose half of every hatch and seem to expect it. Chick cholera or white diarrhoea is the trouble. The U. S. Government states that over half the chicks hatched die from this cause.

An Avicol tablet in the drinking water will save your chicks from all such diseases. Within 48 hours the sick ones will be lively as crickets.

Mrs. Wm. May, Rego, Ind., writes: "I was losing 10 or 15 chicks a day from diarrhoea before I received the Avicol. I haven't lost a one since."

It costs nothing to try Avicol. If you don't find that it prevents and controls white diarrhoea, chick cholera and all bowel diseases of poultry, tell us and your money will be promptly refunded. Avicol is sold by most druggists and poultry remedy dealers, or send 52c (includes war tax) for a package by mail postpaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 100 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.—Advertisement.

MRS. REIFENSTEIN, AGED 67, GAINS 25 POUNDS

Declares She Would Like To Put a Bottle of Tanlac in the Hands of Every Sick Man, Woman and Child in This Country — Never Saw Its Equal.

MRS. EMMA REIFENSTEIN, 337 Webster Avenue, Syracuse, N. Y.

I am sixty-seven years of age but in all my experience I have never known a medicine like Tanlac. Think of it! At my age to gain twenty-five pounds in weight but that is just what I have done," said Mrs. Emma Reifenstein of No. 337 Webster avenue, Syracuse, N. Y.

If I had it in my power," she continued, "I would put a bottle of Tanlac in the home of every sick man, woman and child in this country, for I know what this wonderful medicine would do for them. For almost two years I was almost a nervous wreck. I did not dare to leave the house or even go up town unless my husband went with me. I was afraid to even cross the street and had a feeling of dread all of the time.

"My stomach was weak and easily upset. For days at a time I would go without solid food. I could not rest at night to do any good and felt tired and worn out all of the time. Some days I could hardly drag myself across the room and was so weak and miserable I was ready to give up.

"My health is fine now and I eat anything I want and never have a touch of indigestion. I have never slept better than I do now. My recovery is the talk of our neighborhood, as it was generally believed I could not last but a few weeks longer. This grand medicine has brought me health and happiness and I just can't say enough in its praise."

Mr. J. Reifenstein, in commenting on his wife's statement, said: "Yes, her recovery has been a happy surprise to us all. A few weeks ago I had no idea she would be able to pull through, but now she is in better health than I have ever seen her and the credit is due to Tanlac. We have been married fifty-two years today and I don't believe I have ever seen her looking any better."

Experienced Mothers know the wisdom of assisting nature before Baby's coming

IT is natural to think of the expectant mother's influence upon the unborn babe. Her food, her habits, her hygiene, and even the condition of her mind, all have a part in determining the well-being or ill-being of her infant before birth.

No woman awaiting the joys of coming motherhood should allow the days to pass without giving nature a helping hand—because the conditions of pending motherhood, existing as they do, over a protracted period of months, create almost a new state of being for a woman.

Just as she prepares herself for it, so will most favorable conditions prevail when her child is born.

MOTHER'S FRIEND is a balm for the nerves, an intensley penetrating lubricant that softens the muscles, relaxes tension of the delicate organism involved in maternity, and prepares the way for an easier, quicker and practical delivery.

A GERMAN ERROR EXPOSED

Three phases of Germany's conduct toward her neighbors during the last seven years are susceptible of brief definition. They are connected by indissoluble bonds and all three phases have involved the interest of the United States, the last phase being of lively current interest in this country.

First, Germany tried to gain mastery over her neighbors by military might and a war of frightfulness. She persevered in this effort for four and a half years, until the United States added to her adversaries military strength sufficient to force the practical capitulation of the German army.

Second, Germany signed the treaty of Versailles by which she acknowledged her guilt in the war and undertook to give guarantees against future assault and to make reparation for the damage she had inflicted on the countries against which she had waged war, and then she attempted to escape the obligations of this treaty by cunning. Having been forced to lay down her arms, Germany turned to the execrable methods of obstruction, evasion and repudiation of her contracts.

Third, having also failed in her campaign of cunning, Germany turned to the United States in the hope of obtaining aid in escaping the obligations of the Versailles agreement. The Allies having refused to be tricked again, Germany thought she could induce the government and the people of this country to repudiate the cause of the Allies and forget the experiences and issues of the war.

There was some ground for this last hope in the German mind, but it was a cause rooted in ignorance and error. The suggestion for a separate peace between the United States and Germany, officially expressed in the resolution introduced during the sixty-sixth Congress by Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, had seemed to be an opening wedge by which a rift between the United States and its associates in the war could be created.

But Germany's error was in not correctly understanding the provocations of this resolution and the whole idea of a separate peace. The Knox resolution and the idea underlying it gathers no part of its purpose from Germany's dilemma. It was designed to find a way out of war other than through acceptance of the League of Nations covenant which President Wilson had caused to be inextricably woven throughout the fabric of the peace treaty of Versailles.

The first and exclusive motive of this suggestion was American safety. Pro German sympathizers and propagandists applauded it and thus gave it a superficial taint, but it never had any object than to save this country from Old World entanglements. It implied no repudiation of the military victory won on the battlefield.

Germany's error of interpretation was really inexcusable, but it is not the worst she has committed. It led her, however, to believe that at Washington lay a hope that she would gain assistance in escaping responsibility for the war and from her contract to make restitution of the havoc wrought to the full extent of her ability.

It became necessary for Washington to issue an official statement for Germany's disillusionment. This is found in the note from Secretary of State Hughes to Foreign Minister Simons at Berlin and published in THE TRIBUNE of Monday. The position of this government is set forth in that note with unmistakable emphasis.

"This government," writes Mr. Hughes, "stands with the governments of the Allies in holding Germany responsible for the war and therefore morally bound to make reparation so far as possible." There is no room for equivocation in that sentence, but Mr. Hughes might have added that Germany is bound contractually as well as morally to make reparation.

It is gratifying that Mr. Hughes made no reference to Germany's crooked plea that the reparations amount should be fixed by a fair and just commission of experts. This means only that Germany wants to fix the amount of reparations. The Versailles treaty provides the method of arriving at the amounts due from Germany and no other method should be tolerated.

Also it is gratifying that no notice is taken of the assumption of Dr. Simons that the amount of reparations should not be so heavy that payment will mean the financial crippling of Germany. That country should be crippled. Moral and legal justice demands that it be so crippled that it realize the extent and reasons of the penalties it must bear.

A separate peace with Germany will be an unfortunate and regrettable thing. But the poisoning of the peace treaty with the League of Nations has left no other recourse, in the judgment of the large majority of the United States, which holds the power to give effect to treaties. The separate treaty device of ending the state of war can be made less disagreeable by this country adhering strictly to the policy described in the note of Secretary Hughes to the German foreign office. Only by meticulous loyalty to the Allies in exacting reparations and maintaining the German confession of war guilt can this country be saved from dishonor. It does not propose to follow the course of dishonor.

LEGISLATURE FEIGNS SURPRISE.

Whether it was natural inconsistency or a natural indulgence of political camouflage that has led the State legislature to protest the rate increase for gas service allowed last week by the railroad commission, and to demand a rehearing of the case decided, does not greatly matter. The legislature has placed itself in a ridiculous position.

The cruel record seems to hang lightly in the minds of the legislators. A few weeks ago the joint committee headed by Senator Inman conducted an investigation of the State Railroad commission. This legislative committee gave the commission a clean bill of health, notwithstanding that it knew perfectly well that the most serious complaints against the commission had not been voiced because of the fear of parties to hearings then pending that their interest would thereby be jeopardized. The Inman committee assumed toward the railroad commission an attitude of protective benevolence.

In effect and to all purposes, this legislative committee said that the commission's record was clean and that its decisions had been just and sound.

This being the case, all rates decreed by the commission prior to the investigation were assumed to be justified by the facts. That is, the legislative committee went on record with this assumption. Subsequently the King higher taxation bill was passed, imposing on the utility corporations and banks an additional tax burden of about $18,000,000. This burden was apportioned by the statute among the public service corporations and the gas company which last week sought and received the rate increase claimed, that its expenses would be increased $220,000 thereby.

Now the legislature that gave the commission a certificate of merit and moral purity, and which subsequently passed the King higher taxation measure, pretends to righteous indignation that higher rates have been decreed for utility service. It thinks to square itself with the public by demanding a reopening of the rate case by the railroad commission.

But the time surely has about passed when the public can longer be bamboozled by the spurious claim that it does not have to pay all the taxation. THE TRIBUNE has all along warned the common folk who use the cheaper facilities of transportation and gas and electricity that they must pay the bills of governmental extravagance. No amount or quality of political buncombe can relieve them of the burden.

To convince themselves of this fact they have only to keep their bills for utility service and add up the increases for a year. They will find that the "rich and powerful" corporations pass the buck right on to them.

It will be recalled that when in 1918 shells fired from German guns fifty or sixty miles distant fell in the crowded church of the Madeleine and elsewhere in Paris, there was much talk throughout the world of this mystery gun that could throw a projectile so far. There was considerable speculation on the part of ordnance experts as to its character. Some said it fired a shell within a shell, which exploded enroute, discharging and giving new energy to the smaller projectile. But there is no longer any mystery in this business. There was no super cannon. The German ordnance experts simply took a long naval gun of twelve and fourteen-inch calibre, lined it with a steel cylinder of nine-inch calibre, reinforced the breech with a steel jacket and doubled the propulsion charge. Thus the projectile was hurled the unusual distance by sheer force of the original discharge. Any ordnance expert could have achieved the same result at the cost of accuracy. And the German gun of frightfulness was woefully inaccurate, missing in the majority of cases the large city of Paris.

Wheat growers are beginning to worry about next season's rust and the cotton growers about next season's boll weevil. This is pessimism with a vengeance, but by this test alone there are a lot of wheat and cotton growers in the United States.

"Trade with a country that repudiates private property cannot be based on credit." And when trade cannot be based on credit there can be but little trade, as Bolshevist Russia is coming to understand.

NOTES and COMMENT

Four inches of snow in the Southland. Ingenious explanations as to how this comes in the south, instead of at the north, awaited with curiosity. It is a "cold day" indeed, when such phenomena cannot be explained by the real estaters and others of the self-deprecatory city down State.

Brindell, the New York building magnate, or bandit, has begun his ten-year term in Sing Sing for extortion. He got them going and coming—contractors and owners on the one hand and mechanics on the other. If all such personages everywhere were similarly sequestered it is possible the cost of building would come down so that a building era would ensue.

The new passport regulation seems to be entirely sensible. It is to the effect that American citizens may enter the country and depart from it without passports; that aliens may depart without the permissive document, but must be equipped with it when they seek to enter. The country is not likely to be injured by anybody leaving it; but the possibilities when aliens enter are different.

There is likely to be a feeling that Senate Bill No. 201, which measure will fix the sugar contents of grapes and wine offered for sale, is a viticultural hamper. To sell wine grapes containing less than 16 percent sugar a permit will have to be obtained from the State Department of Agriculture. If this is a necessary regulation its belated enactment serves to illustrate how the world struggles for considerable periods without beacon lights to show the way.

The State Game and Fish Commission is the reputed sponsor of a bill to limit the number of deer that each hunter may take in a year to one. The limit now is two. If the report is true that the Fish and Game Commission is behind such a bill it may prove to be maladroit. Deer hunters themselves are not likely to be pleased with the idea of being limited to a single bag, after waiting a whole year, cleaning their guns, and everything.

Assemblyman Colburn's bill, which would make it a crime to depict a barroom or drinking scene in moving pictures, would be a singular enactment in a State that is as frankly wet as California, at least when the sentiment is determined by popular vote. But it may pass. A vote against it is likely to get a legislator in bad with the drys, and not likely to get him anywhere with anybody else.

The Soviet government of Russia pledges armed aid to Turkey. That gets two elements together that the civilized world may sooner or later have to eliminate, and when the time comes the elimination should be undoubted.

A Chicago man who was attempting an April-fool stunt was shot as he tried to escape. Of course, he may not have deserved that, but April-fool jokes ought to be carried out in a way that would differentiate them in the eyes of the average cop from other offenses.

Those of the sterner sex who may be inclined to cackle over the fact that some Sacramento women cast more than a ballot apiece at the recent election are entitled to be reminded that in times past men have been known to do the same thing. The newly enfranchised will have to "go some" before they do all the things to the ballot that men have been caught at.

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS.

The Solano Courier is of the opinion that Walnut Creek should change its name. The word "Creek" dangling on the end savors too much of the language of a village, in the opinion of the Courier, which suggests "Walnut City" instead. We suggest that "Creek" be left there until after the streets are fixed. To replace it now with "City" would subject the "little green spot" to too much ridicule.—Concord Transcript.

Taxation is the ghost that stalks behind industries today. There has been an abundant increase for five years until the confiscation point has been reached. Tax boosters are largely responsible for the high cost of living.—San Leandro Reporter.

With oil wells being drilled in four directions from San Bernardino, and one derrick soon to rise just outside the southwestern city limits, interest naturally turns to inquire what happens when they bring in the wells. The same question is agitating Long Beach, for there the city commissioners have declared the entire city a "restricted district," and prohibited drilling, whereat the Long Beach Telegram protests.—San Bernardino Sun.

It used to be said in the old days, when Calaveras was an Assembly district by itself, that no Assemblyman sent to the Legislature from here ever returned. They always struck some job that paid better. The common reason given for the non-return was that they did not care to explain just what they had done. Notice what a lot of Democratic statesmen are settling down in Washington."—Calaveras Prospect.

The University of California is doing its bit in the way of improving relations with the South American countries. The university has just published a catalog, printed in Spanish, to be distributed in the Hispanic-American nations, giving such information about the institution as will interest the South American students desiring to be educated in California.—Palo Alto Times.

A famous detective said the other day the bunko kings were operating in a new field, they have abandoned the farmers and are selling gold bricks to the bankers. Mebbe so in Broadway, New York, but on Broadway, Chico, the ranchers are still nibbling.—Chico Enterprise.

SAME OLD GERMAN DOCTRINE

Wilhelm, writing from the seclusion of Doorn, forgets that the world remembers, forgets that the good old German custom of having things so because he says they are so vanished with his exit from Germany, forgets that he is no longer All-highest. Fragmentary excerpts of his precious book cast blame on Great Britain for the war, but in his assertions he would have the reader forget what occurred late in June, 1914, at Serajevo. He, unchanged of mind, blames Russia and France for mobilizing in July, then England. He holds such action brought on the war.

In other words, had not these nations prepared, had they not seen the menace to the peace of Europe through Austria's ultimatum to Serbia, there would have been no war. Of course he is right. Germany would have swept through Belgium to Paris, England would have been unprepared, and Germany would have gained her ends in a month. Wilhelm finds fault because these nations looked upon mobilization by Germany and Austria as a menace. He does not mention the Berlin meeting of July 5; he does not mention the recall of German reserve officers from foreign lands, which is of record as having taken place in the spring—not the summer. Naturally everything Germany did was right, everything the Allies did was wrong—"I say so, therefore it is so," the old German doctrine.

Of course any bearing that pledged word to stand by ally might have on the question is eliminated. The old idea of the "scrap of paper" remains. Here again is the same German habit of complete failure to recognize that there is such a word as "honor" involved which showed in the conversation between Sir Edward Goschen and von Bethmann-Hollweg on August 4, 1914. Can the leopard change his spots, or the German his mental processes?—Worcester Telegram.

About YOUR HEALTH

You Must Keep Busy If You'd Live Many Years

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D., Commissioner of Health, New York City.

Modern life has its dangers and one of these is the danger of idleness. Faulty elimination is essentially a disease of sedentary habits. When will all people learn the secrets of long life? No one can be healthy and have the hope of a ripe old age unless he lives a life of activity, consumes simple food and maintains uninterrupted and perfect elimination of bodily waste.

When I was a young doctor, having little to do except to study and theorize about medical subjects, I became interested in the cause of death, particularly of the business men of my town. One after another of these successful men retired from business. Having accumulated a sufficient amount of this world's goods, there seemed to them no further reason for continuing in the grind of affairs.

When will men learn that the end of any business or profession is not the accumulation of a competence? Men and women should work for the joy of the work, for the joy of accomplishment, for the joy of service. For such there is no such thing as retirement.

As a matter of fact, in the providence of God there is no such thing as retirement. To retire is to die. Service to the end is the rule of the universe. The most fallacious doctrine in the world is the teaching to "lay up money for a rainy day." While we have homes for the indigent and for the infirm, the proportionate number of helpless persons is amazingly small.

I challenge you to produce the names of five acquaintances or personal friends of your who are not able to work.

You may have heard of more than five, or may have read of others, but in your immediate circle the number will not exceed five. You may know a few who do not work. They are satisfied with idleness or are too lazy to produce, but if they had to work or starve, they could work.

Activity is the secret of long life. Mental activity is essential. Don't permit yourself to vegetate. Problems are good for you. A soft life with no problems to solve, means mental stagnation. The more questions your mind deals with and reasons through, the more alert will become your mental faculties and the longer will you retain your normal mental qualities.

Physical activity is essential. The skin must act by reason of vigorous daily exercise. The kidneys must function by reason of good food and lots of drinking water. The intestines must act freely as a result of proper eating and the physical fitness of the muscles and nerves.

To give up activity, mental and physical, means early death. Systematically, joyfully and eagerly to do the work vouchsafed unto you, will by the very doing multiply your days and usefulness.

Peace Trophies.

"Why, of course. How else do you suppose I ever got all my lovely jewels?"—New York Sun.

EXPLAIN, DEMAND OF OAKLAND UPON INSURANCE BODY

Head of C. of C. Makes New Move in Battle By City To Reduce Rates.

Demand by letter was made today by Joseph H. King, president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce upon the Board of Fire Underwriters in San Francisco for explanations as to why Oakland fire insurance rates still stay "up in the air," and why there are "misstatements" in the official publication of the Underwriters regarding the recent conference on fire rates held in the office of Commissioner Morse.

According to members of the insurance committee of the Chamber, the Underwriters promised to have representatives at that conference called through efforts of the committee to discuss the fire insurance situation in Oakland. Instead, the Underwriters it is claimed sent only one representative not empowered to act.

STATES REASONS

President King's letter denies assertions in the Underwriters official organ that "it was not exactly clear to Eastbay men why insurance rates in Oakland should be somewhat lower."

His letter in part follows:

"The Oakland Chamber of Commerce and the merchants of Oakland are exactly clear as to why the insurance rates of Oakland should be reduced. The reasons follow:

"First—The loss record of the city alone justifies a reduction in rates.

"Second—The removal of several frame buildings known as "conflagration breeders" from the business district.

"Third—The installation of the high pressure system for which no credit was ever made.

"Fourth—The improvement of the fire department and water system in the city.

"Fifth—In the residence sections where the higher basis rate is charged, credit should be given for the newly paved streets, new fire alarm boxes and hydrants and the motorization of the fire department.

FLATLY DENIED

"Assertion that a 25 per cent reduction was granted Oakland when the high pressure system was put in operation is made by the Underwriters official publication. This is denied flatly by King, who concludes:

"The Board of Fire Underwriters has not made a re-survey of this city for many years and for the reasons set forth above we believe it should do so."

The intimation on the part of the Underwriters that "it is believed that the matter has been dropped" brought forth the reply by the insurance committee of the Chamber of Commerce that instead of the fight having been dropped it has in fact just begun.

Lakeview school lads made a drive this week upon attics and cellars, piling up tons of papers for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross Shop. (Lower) Lads in the radio class in Hawthorne school who will "bring music down from heaven" on April 15. From left to right they are (upper row) RALPH LOWRY, WALDO FIELDS, GEORGE THORNALLEY, LOWELL HECKING, JOHN HUTCHINS (Lower row) HARRY HERGET, KEITH HILDEBRAND, CARROLL HOWLETT, HARRY DIONYSIUS.

Bringing music down from the heavens for the entertainment of their mothers, fathers, aunts, uncles and cousins and doing their annual spring housecleaning is the big job which the students in the public schools have put before them this month.

"Brothers Night" has been scheduled for Friday, April 15 by the Hawthorne Parent Teacher Association, when the boys in the radio class of the school will put on a unique musical program in compliment to the community. Music will be brought down from the skies by the young entertainers who are eager to demonstrate their classwork. The boys will furnish the entire program including the serving of refreshments, the proceeds to go into the treasury of the Mothers' Club. Among the lads who are planning the features are Ralph Lowry, Waldo Fields, George Thornally, Lowell Hecking, John Hutchins, Henry Herget, Keith Hildebrand, Carroll Howlett, Harry Dionysius.

A pie-eating contest with a nut and ball promised the swiftest and cleanest consumer will offer merriment. Dancing will conclude "Brothers' Night."

Bicycles, carts, coasters, homemade automobiles were pressed into service by the students in Lakeview school this week who contested with Claremont, Grant, Piedmont avenue, Washington and McChesney schools in a newspaper and magazine contest for the benefit of the Junior Red Cross shop.

Mrs. Harry East Miller, Mrs. Richard Ham, Mrs. Francis McCafferty, Dr. Herrick, Mrs. Frank Trower, Mrs. G. H. Bradt, D. F. Trefethen, Mrs. I. F. Chapman, Mrs. Wm. Levansaler, Mrs. E. D. Mendenhall, Mrs. A. M. Pearce, Mrs. Seulberger, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Lowden and scores of other busy people assisted the kiddies.

Official Tally Makes No Election Result Changes

BERKELEY, April 6—While votes were lost or gained by several candidates, the official count of Saturday's primary election does not change results.

The official tally showed a total of 11,836 votes cast. Slight errors made in the unofficial reckoning deprived Mrs. Ida M. Blockman of 64 votes, while Mrs. Daisy L. Bunnell, defeated candidate for the school board, gained 54 votes. Of the other school board candidates, Professor Herms' vote was lowered by two, Dr. Ernest L. Loring's by 28 and Frank D. Merrill's by one.

The comprehensive zone ordinance gained ten votes and the soldiers memorial 38 votes. After spending two hours canvassing the vote the council declared Edward T. Harms and Charles D. Heywood officially reelected as councilmen and Elmer Bell auditor.

Walter P. Johnson Inducted As Judge

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6—Superior Judge Walter Perry Johnson, selected by Governor Stephens as the successor to Judge Henry M. Owens, who dropped dead in his courtroom last week, was inducted into office in the city hall today. Presiding Judge E. P. Shortall was the master of ceremonies and made an address, as did also President Jeremiah Sullivan of the Bar Association, and Attorney E. C. Harrison, a lifelong friend of Judge Johnson's.

Youth Takes All Blame For Robbery

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6—Taking on his shoulders all the blame for the commission of a robbery on December 27, Charles Venezia, 20 years old, brought about the acquittal of his older brother Henry, aged 26, at the hands of a jury in Superior Judge Louderback's court this afternoon. The victim was Arthur Brannagan, a druggist at Twentieth and Valencia streets.

GEORGE GAGE TO APPEAL SANITY CASE TO JURY

Son of Former S. P. Attorney Files Notice On Last Legal Day Allowed.

On the last day on which he legally could do so, George Gage, son of the late Stephen T. Gage, politician and Southern Pacific attorney, and who was committed to Napa state hospital for the insane by Judge F. B. Ogden, has filed notice of appeal and a demand for a jury trial.

Gage was ordered sent to a state hospital a number of months ago but was set free after a jury trial. His arrest then followed his appearance in the dining room of the Hotel Oakland clad in a bathrobe and a number of other unusual acts including the issuance of checks in varying amounts, some as high as $1000, in payment for cigars and sundry other articles.

[illegible] was out on the present occasion [illegible] sworn to by his wife, Mrs. [illegible] who said he had made [illegible] against himself and others [illegible] in an irrational manner.

[illegible] testified that he had said [illegible] to the hills with a [illegible] shotgun intending to kill [illegible] but that none of them [illegible] that he was the man who [illegible] Bolshevism, that he composed [illegible] poem "America" and was [illegible] author of Mutt and Jeff stories, that Debs and Mooney had been [illegible] to the San Francisco jail by [illegible] and that he slept with them the week before and that he had been arrested to prevent the spread of Socialism.

Drs. W. H. Irwin and George [illegible] who examined him said at the time of the commitment that if Gage were to be tried by a jury that day his condition was such that he doubtless would be found insane but that he would improve with treatment and appear sane to the ordinary person in a few days.

Wife Is Accused Of Indiscreet Acts

Many witnesses were in the courtroom of Superior Judge Harris today when the charges of Oliver Carroll that his wife, Mrs. Juanita Carroll, had been indiscreet in her associations with John McCarthy, Oakland policeman, were heard in the divorce suit.

James MacSento, hotel keeper at Santa Rosa, identified McCarthy as the man who had called at his place with Mrs. Carroll and had looked at rooms, after which the couple went across the street to the La Rosa hotel. A page from the register of the latter was introduced, showing that someone had registered in his name followed by the words "and wife." The name of the accompanying man had been scratched out.

Mrs. Carroll has filed a cross-complaint charging cruelty.

GIRL TESTIFIES FOR MOTHER AT DIVORCE TRIAL

Daughter Takes Stand When Mrs. H. H. Brown Is Unable To Go To Court

Nineteen-year-old [illegible] Brown took her mother's place on the witness stand today when Mrs. Florence Sharon Brown broke down and was unable to appear and testified that her father, Herbert Hamilton Brown, had seen things crawling on the wall and that he had been cruel to [illegible]-year-old Billie Brown.

Mrs. Brown, who has broken down under the grilling to which she was subjected, did not appear in the courtroom at all but her daughter sat on the witness stand and answered the questions put to her by Attorney Peter Crosby.

"One time he came home in the middle of the afternoon and went to bed," she testified. "Then he called my older sister to send for a doctor quick because funny things were crawling up and down the wall. There was nothing at all on the walls."

That her father forced Billie to run up and down the hall until he was so exhausted that he was shaky and trembling and then fell down was the statement of the girl. She said her brother was confined to bed after the ordeal.

Miss Brown also told how her father had tried to drive her to a party near Lake Merritt and how he was unable to keep to the street because he was under the influence of liquor.

Petersen Appeal To Come Before Board

The Board members have agreed to hold informal conferences to consider the testimony but it is understood that no decision can be expected for a long time.

Court Delays Auto Suit of Incompetent

Declaring that as the young man is an incompetent he will [illegible] him if the court will protect him, Superior Judge E. C. Robinson today continued for three months action on the petition of James C. Bennett, guardian of Elmer L. Pattillo, to approve a settlement with the [illegible] Pacific company which had seized an automobile belonging to Pattillo and on which there had been a default in payments. It is expected Pattillo, who is on parole from the hospital, will be restored to competency soon.

It was shown that Pattillo purchased the machine last August and had paid more than $600 when he was declared insane in December. A payment fell due the day before the guardian was appointed and before the latter could make the payment it was testified the company took over the car. Bennett said the company had agreed to return $149 to Pattillo.

Judge Robinson intimated he did not consider this satisfactory and said that in view of the claim that the machine was worth more than allowed he would continue the case until Pattillo is able to look out for himself.

Alleged Sinn Feiner Remains in Canada

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 6—Released under bonds of $7000, O. T. Griffin Esmonde, alleged Sinn Feiner envoy who was refused admittance to Australia, will leave here for eastern Canada where he either will seek entry to the United States or sail directly to England, immigration officials announced here today. The plan to send Esmonde to Seattle was defeated by United States Immigration Inspector J. L. Zurbrick, stationed here. Esmonde is considered a political prisoner in charge of the dominion government.

McCREDIE'S MEN ARE BETTER PLAYERS THAN CUSTOMERS EXPECTED

"Silent Walter" Appears To Have Makings of a Team That Will Cause Trouble

By EDDIE MURPHY

The big Easter egg for the baseball fans was hatched yesterday with the ushering in of the Pacific Coast league season for 1921 and there were the usual surprises and disappointments for the fans and fannies. Snow on the Salt Lake diamond kept the Oakland and Salt Lake clubs from playing their opening game, but at San Francisco, Los Angeles and Sacramento the big doings took place as scheduled. The chief surprise was the defeat of the Vernon Tigers at the hands of Bill Rodgers' Sacramento Coyotes. Bill's boys defeated the Tigers 9 to 8 in an uphill battle. Another surprise was the showing of Walter McCredie's Portland Beavers against the Seals at Recreation park in San Francisco, where close to 16,000 fans paid their way in to see the Seals get credit for a 7 to 6 win.

For the past couple of weeks sad tales have been told about McCredie and his bunch of athletes. They had it all doped out that Walter might have to hide his head in shame before the Seals got finished with his team. So those 16,000 fans who went out to Recreation park were naturally surprised to see their home team come close to meeting a defeat.

And To Think They All But Canned Willie Kamm

But for some hard hitting in the pinch by Willie Kamm, McCredie would today be laughing at the dopesters who had been wielding the hammer on him. "Wee" Willie didn't have as much as a job left, even as utility player with the Seals when Maury Rath and Bert Ellison were purchased from the majors, at least that it what everybody on the other side of the bay thought. But Willie fooled them all by being in the opening line-up against the Beavers, and today those fellows who had him "canned" more than a month ago, are probably his best boosters.

The Seals looked like a defeated club after the Beavers gathered a run in the third inning and three more in the fourth to give them a 6-0 lead, but Willie turned the tide by cracking a homer into the left field bleachers in the fifth inning when a teammate was on the bags. That brought the score up to 4 to 3, so it came Willie's turn to bat in the fifth inning again, with runners planted on second and third so the little guy delivered a clean base knock to left field that chased the two runners home. That smash put the Seals back in the lead again, and the lead was never lost.

Beavers Looked Better To Fans Than They Expected

Right now you can write on your cuff that Walter McCredie is not as badly off for a ball club as some think. From what was seen of the Beavers yesterday they looked mighty nice, and with a display for the remainder of the week of the same brand of ball they showed against the Seals yesterday, they are going to cause trouble for Charley Graham's bunch right through the series. The Seals didn't play any better or look any better than McCredie's bunch, but maybe they were a bit over-confident. At that they did fool the home folks by winning the ball game, as it has been customary for the home club to flivver when the big opening crowd is there. McCredie showed the San Francisco fans a young and fighting ball club. It was not until the last man was out that the Seals were sure of victory, and then the game ended with Butler dying on third base as King, pinch hitting for Kingdon, failed out to Agnew.

After seeing what a couple of McCredie's newcomers did against the pitching of Sam Lewis and Johnny Couch and then looking up their past record before coming to the Beavers, McCredie probably was sitting back and laughing at the sympathy the gang was showing for him.

Bourg and Poole Look Like Couple of Finds

Bourg, who covers the right garden and is lead-off at the plate for Walter, looked mighty sweet with the bat, but he didn't get a chance to show what he could do in the fielding line. In five trips to the rubber he connected for three hits and drew a walk, a good day's work for any player in anybody's league. Two of his hits were solid smashes, while the first was a slow grounder which Kamm mussed up. Bourg hit .316 for the Tacoma team in the Pacific International league.

Jim Poole showed signs yesterday of also being a sensation in this league. He is a big fellow who bats after the style of Babe Borton, formerly of the Vernon Tigers. He kissed the horsehide for a pair of blows yesterday that made the Seal fans moan. His triple in the ninth inning was a hard smash against the right field screen. It started a rally that almost resulted disastrously to the Seals. Around first base he handled himself well, making several stops with one hand that made fans forget about Lew Blue. He hit .302 for the Richmond team in the Virginia league last year, and was the best at clouting doubles and triples.

Marty Krug was the same old fighting player he was for the Salt Lake club. He played a bang up game at second and connected for a pair of safe wallops. And Wolfer, another newcomer, got a single for himself, but didn't have a chance to show anything in the field. Willis Butler at third base was the only newcomer to get off to a bad start, as he practically allowed the Seals to cinch the game in the eighth inning by allowing a throw from Del Baker to get away from him when O'Connell and Kamm were in the act of working a double steal. Dick Cox, Del Baker and "Chile" Kingdon, the only men from last season who were in the line-up for the Beavers, played their usual brand of ball. Kingdon looked better than ever, and if Walter McCredie can just get him to hitting he will hardly last in the Coast league more than the present season, as some major club will be after him.

Maury Rath Plays Smart Ball For Graham Club

The newcomers for the Seals also looked good, but Charlie Graham is going to have a hard time keeping Maury Schick out of the outer gardens. Joe Kelly dropped a fly ball in center field that almost caused trouble, but like some of the other boys maybe Joe was nervous before the big opening crowd. Burt Ellison didn't have a chance in the field, but he delivered a hit that scored the Seals' first run. Maury Rath played some smart baseball, although he was charged with two errors. He hit one for a double and gathered himself a hit by dragging one past the pitcher's box intentionally. Maury showed his big league experience and when he gets in shape he is going to be a valuable man to the Graham outfit. Jimmy O'Connell got away nicely with his first base job, and Hasbrook couldn't have done better. And, incidentally, the Sacramento kid gathered a couple of hits for himself.

Neither the Seals nor Beavers played as good baseball as the Oaks did in both their games against the Chicago clubs.

Local fans who did not attend the game across the bay yesterday learned all about the happenings in the Box Score Final of The TRIBUNE. This edition, carrying a complete box score and full description of the game was on the streets just a few minutes after the last Beaver had been disposed of.

Baseball Gossip

It was a great game that Walter McCredie's supposed ball club put up, and everybody was satisfied. Even Walter was among the pleased, for he thought that his youngsters were going to be badly mauled after hearing all the mean things the Seals expected to do to them. The cash customers certainly got a run for their money.

The season will be opened here tomorrow afternoon when the Beavers and Seals will stage their third game of the series at Cal Ewing's ball orchard, Park street and San Pablo at 3:15. Jimmy Richardson, the champion hot dog man, has ordered an extra large supply, as he figures that yesterday's game was enough to get out a big crowd any time.

The official grand opening will not be held here until next week when the Oaks will be home from Salt Lake to tangle with the Seals. As usual, Frank Woodward and a lot of other boosters about town have arranged for the luncheon at the Hotel Oakland and the parade to follow. Tickets are going fast for the game tomorrow, but Herbie McFarlin informs us that he is going to have an awful time pleasing everybody when the Seals and Oaks tangle for the first time on the local lot.

Herman Pillette, Seal castoff, pitched fine ball for the Beavers, but a good many of the breaks went against him. The Seals were first to score in the second inning on a walk to Kelly, a sacrifice by O'Connell and Bert Ellison's hard single to right.

In the third inning the Beavers tied it. Baker singled and was safe at second on Kingdon's fielder's choice, Maury Rath dropping the ball. Pillette laid down a sacrifice and Bourg's infield hit scored Baker.

Charley Graham was certainly out to win for after Cox opened the third with a single and Poole drew a walk, he sent John Couch to the hill. Butler then forced Cox at third, but a walk to Baker filled the bags. Kingdon fanned, and then Pillette fooled them all by getting a hit that scored Poole and Butler. Bourg's clean hit to right scored Baker. And then Rath took care of Wolfer's grounder.

O'Connell's single and Kamm's homer gave the Seals two in the fifth, and two other infield hits went to waste. With two out in the sixth, O'Connell hit off a single, and scored when Pillette fielded Ellison's easy one and heaved wild to first base. Ellison went all the way to third. Kamm's single scored Ellison and the Seals were leading 5 to 4.

A hit batter, Cavency's boot and Bourg's double gave the Beavers one in the eighth and the Seals were fortunate to get two in their half without the aid of a hit. Polson was on the hill at this time for the Beavers, as Fisher had batted for Pillette in the eighth. O'Connell drew a walk, Ellison sacrificed. Kamm also walked, Agnew sacrificed and O'Connell scored from second on a double steal and Butler's error of Baker's perfect throw. Agnew sacrificed to squeeze Kamm over with the last run.

Marty Krug was the first Bee to fan. Lewis turned him back on three pinches in the first inning. Tom Kelly was the first Seal to fan, in fact the only one of the game.

Walter McCredie was the first one to be "called" by Umpire Ed Finney. Walter got all excited in the first inning when he got two runners on with none out, and Finney had to tell him where the coaching line was.

The Mayor and His Boots

MAYOR "JIM" ROLPH, of San Francisco, appeared on the diamond at Recreation park yesterday wearing a baseball uniform and riding boots. The mayor stated he had a lot of trouble locating the plate when he wore baseball shoes but he didn't do any better with the boots. Chief of Police Dan O'Brien, who caught the first ball, is seen pleading with the mayor not to throw a curve.

War Re-opened On Sellers of Baseball Pools

CLEVELAND, April 6.—Seven men were arrested here late last night following raids on a printing shop and a dwelling, which resulted in the confiscation of nearly a million printed baseball pool tickets and declaration by the police that they discovered a new baseball gambling institution with headquarters in Cleveland.

The men are charged with running a game of chance. Among them is the assistant cashier of a bank.

Besides the tickets, police secured a number of books and ledgers which they believe are clews to cities where many of the pool tickets already have been sent. The names of a number of cities, some of them operating clubs in the American, National and International Leagues and the American Association were listed.

The tickets confiscated, police say, bear titles of the A. and P. Industrial Two in One, and All American Pools.

Tickets bearing the name "All American Pool" contain offers of a prize of $1000 daily to the holder of combinations of the six teams in the four leagues scoring the greatest number of runs.

'DOC' CRANDALL IS TOO MUCH FOR RAINIERS.

LOS ANGELES, April 6.—Billy Kenworthy's Seattle Club got off to a bad start in the Pacific Coast pennant chase by losing the opening game to the Angels 8 to 1. Bob Geary and Schorr did the chucking for the losers and were hit hard in the pinches. Brick Eldred drove the ball over the left field fence for the first homer of the season here. Otis "Doc" Crandall pitched a steady game for the Angels. More than ten thousand witnessed the game.

Salt Lake Game Again Postponed

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, April 6.—The Oakland-Salt Lake opening ball game for the season scheduled for yesterday and postponed until today has been further postponed. Snow continued to fall here today but the weather man predicted that Thursday would be fair. "Wet grounds" was the reason assigned for postponement.

At the Claremont Golf and Country Club yesterday the Women's Invitational Tournament met in play handicap against an 80 bogey, attached 16 entries including several visitors. Mrs. C. L. Ford, who has not been at her best lately, showed some of her best form and from scratch finished first, one down to bogey. Mrs. George Field (7), tied for second place with Mrs. C. A. Stacy (11), two down to bogey. Mrs. H. A. Prole (4) and Miss Alice Knowles (3) both finished three down. Mrs. George F. Newton, Mrs. B. F. Legare, Miss Violet Whitney, Mrs. G. B. Wingate, Mrs. J. M. Abbott, Mrs. J. C. Cushing and Mrs. H. H. Sherwood all turned in completed scores which may be used in the Eclictic competition now being played.

The 36 holes medal play for a cup, one dozen balls and a club presented by John Black for second and third prizes, will start Saturday, the second 18 holes to be played Sunday. Quite a number of the players have not yet signed up for this event but may do so during the next day or so.

Players wishing to be included in the forthcoming home and home match against the San Francisco club, should enter this event and show the tournament committee what kind of a game they are playing. The Claremont Club will have Jack Neville, Frank Kales and A. E. De-Almond at the top of their team, but it will be the tail that will bring the victory to Claremont. Over 50 players can be selected with handicaps of 14 and under. It is doubtful if there is another club in California with such a list of good players to choose from.

There seems to be a danger of California not having a representative at the British open championship this year if the local clubs don't make some definite move in the matter. The appeal for subscriptions toward the $30,000 fund to send over 20 players has had a very poor response from California.

An all American team without John Black would be ridiculous, especially when the championship is to be played at St. Andrews.

His knowledge of seaside courses and the run-up shot would give him several strokes advantage over the best of our professionals who are accustomed to the pitch shot on inland courses.

Macdonald Smith, Hubb Martin and Abe Espinoza could easily qualify to be included in a 20-man team if such a contest could be played.

The Clarence L. Johnston birthday tournament at Mount Diablo Golf and Country Club has at last been figured out and William Cavilier is the winner of the premier prize, a handsome silver cup. His gross score for 36 holes was 197-40-157 net. Stewart S. Hawley; 199-36-163 net and Walter Leimert 195-32-163 net, tied for second place, while Mrs. Roger Chickering won the women's event in a miniature wind storm that tested even the strongest men players at Diablo Sunday afternoon.

	1st	2d	gross	hdcp	net
Wm Cavalier	97	100	197	40	157
W. Leimert	97	98	195	32	163

Harry Mosher and Charlie Bates playing partners had identical scores each day, both in gross and net.

HOMER BY BILLY ORR RESULTS IN TIGERS' DEFEAT.

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—Bill Rodgers' Coyotes opened the season here yesterday by defeating the Vernon Tigers, last year's champions, by a 9 to 8 score. A three-run rally in the third and a five-run one in the seventh with another run added in the eighth turned the trick. The Tigers staged a four-run rally to tie up the score in the eighth but that single tally in the Coyotes' half did the trick.

The feature was a homer over the fence by Billy Orr when the bags were full in the seventh. Fittery, Prough and Nichaus did the chucking for the Coyotes and were touched for twelve hits, while the Coyotes got but seven off of Fromme, Dell and Shore.

Four Teams Entered in National Events

CHICAGO, April 6.—Four teams are entered in the National A. A. U. 440-yard relay championship swimming race, tonight and the National A. A. U. water polo championship—the Olympic Club of San Francisco, the New York A. C., the Chicago A. A. and the Illinois A. C.

In addition there will be a 220-yard breast-stroke race between Robert Skelton of the I. A. C., Steve Rudy of the New York A. C., Walter Howell of the Olympic Club and Andrew Brunhart of the C. A. A. The San Francisco team won the water polo title last year.

Spring Practice Is Started At Stanford

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 6.—Fifty men reported to Coach Walter Powell yesterday afternoon for the first spring football practice of the season. The coach addressed a meeting of the football candidates in the Stanford Union last night and outlined plans for the coming season and told of the recent meeting of the rules committee in New York, which he attended as the western representative.

The coach intends to cut his football squad to twenty-four men very soon and get down to intensive training.

GAMES AT U. C. TODAY.

The Mel Anderson Clothiers will start their season this afternoon by meeting the University of California Varsity nine at the Berkeley diamond this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Frenchie LaCloustra will do the chucking for Anderson's club. Anderson is figuring on having a team in The TRIBUNE league next winter, and expects to have a class A one rounded up by that time.

WOLVERINES DECLARE CALIFORNIA TRACK IS ONE OF THE FASTEST

Michigan Boys Smaller Than Bears But Size Does Not Always Win Points in Track Meet

By DOUG. MONTELL

Coach Farrell and his squad of fifteen Wolverine track and field men pulled into Berkeley yesterday morning as per schedule and as soon as the boys had had an opportunity to accept the greetings of the big delegation of enthusiasts, alumni, well-wishers and the curious who always attend such arrivals, they were hustled off to their quarters at one of the fraternity houses where they will stay during their week in the west. The Michigan mentor lost no time and right after lunch he trotted his men out onto the California track for limbering up exercises, thereby giving the Maize and Blue athletes a chance to feel the cinders under their feet for the first time since leaving dear old Ann Arbor.

While the visiting tracksters did not stack up as men of large proportions they appear to be all that has been said of them. In the matter of size the California men are favored to have a little the best of the Big Ten athletes, but mere size does not win any man's track meet and the fifteen men brought West by Coach Farrell stack up on even terms with the Christie Bears, according to all dope, both advance and from local observation. Any advantage that the Bruins may have over their friends from the other side of the Rockies is in the matter of the period of outdoor training. The Blue and Gold men have had the advantage of working outdoors the year around while Michigan's athletes have done most of their early season performing on an indoor track. All meets that the Wolverines have participated in during the early training season were indoors but Coach Farrell expressed the opinion yesterday that he did not believe that his men would be handicapped seriously in the matter of training.

Think California Track Is Fast

The Michigan athletes were enthusiastic over conditions here upon their arrival. The sprinters, after working out on the California oval expressed their opinion that it was the fastest track that they had ever performed on. Losch comes West with a record of :10 flat to his credit and if the California track is faster than the cinder path upon which sprints are run in the Middle West, then the fans and fannies are due for a rare treat when the 100-yard dash is called next Saturday afternoon. Bob Hutchinson of California has performed :10 flat three times this season in competition and :09.4 against the "world's fastest human," Charles W. Paddock of U. S. C. A battle between Losch, Simmons and Hutchinson should be worth watching.

It is very well to attempt to dope track meets but there must be at least a basis of comparative scores or something akin to similar conditions of running before such stuff is spilled. Michigan has had no outdoor season and the only times available are the best performances of the veterans for last season. Can't dope much on that for there is no telling just what condition a man may be in this year who was in top form last season. Take Oxy Hendrixson of California and Captain Larry Butler of Michigan in the 440-yard dash, for example. Last season Hendrixson cut the distance in :48:2 while Butler navigated the quarter mile in :49 flat. This season Hendrixson has :50:2 to his credit while Butler has no outdoor competition behind him to date. It should be one of the prettiest races of the present track season, according to all indications.

Close Finishes Are Expected On Track

All of the track events look to be tight races from start to finish. California has an edge in the 100 and 220 with the 140 and 880 very even. The mile gives California the edge by a fair margin but the two mile is looked as another even race. Both of the hurdle events appear to be even with little to choose between the two institutions. California, if anyone, has a slight advantage in the low hurdles, but the same applies to Michigan in the high sticks. California appears on paper to have a superior set of relay material with Hendrixson, McDonald, Waltz, Sprott and Henderson to choose from. Walt Christie has not announced his relay team as yet but if the meet runs according to the above mentioned dope the relay will have an important part in the day's activities.

The weight events apparently favor the Wolverine with Michigan supporters claiming the hammer throw for Stipe and Van Orden. This is apparently the weakest California event as the Bruins do not use the hammer throw against any other college on the Pacific Coast and Henry Waltz is about the lone hope. Were Jack Merchant in college at Berkeley this year there would be no doubt but that the event would lie in the Blue and Gold point column, but as it is, it is about a foregone conclusion that Coach Farrell's men will take a pair of place.

Hoffman is the holder of the record in the javelin throw in the Big Ten with 172 feet to his credit which passes any mark set by a California hurler of the spear this year. This gives Michigan another first place without much argument, although Court Majors with 170 feet 4 inches is likely to be a dangerous opponent to the Big Ten champ. Wesbrook in the pole vault with better than 12 feet 9 inches is the likely winner in the pole vault with Norris of the Bears his opponent for honors. Michigan is given a shade here. Van Orden of Michigan is counted on to bring in first place in the shot put with 42 feet which tops Majors and Mathews of California by a matter of four inches.

Muller Should Take Both the Jumps

To offset this Michigan field advantage the Bruins are counting on Brick Muller to land honors in the high jump and to repeat in the broad jump. The star Bruin field man should easily win the high jump and has a slight advantage over Cruikshank of Michigan in the broad. Muller is quite likely to upset dope in the discus throw in addition to his jumping ability. Muller has a throw of 132 feet 4 inches to his credit for the season when he was in competition against Boyle and Swede Evans of U. S. C. If Brick can repeat this performance Saturday it will upset dope which calls the event a draw between Muller and Dunne of Michigan at 125 feet. In the meantime pick your favorite. Anyone who picks the score correctly will be awarded a round-trip ticket up the Campanile by Coach Walt Christie of California, so divide up the total points, 140, between the two teams according to your own judgment and mail Walt Christie the answer.

Magnavox Team Wins From the Y. M. I. Club

The Magnavox baseball team defeated the Y. M. I. club 9 to 5 at Bay View.

Magnavox has developed a good Keystone combination, consisting of Robb at short and Barry at second. In addition to taking care of his own territory Robb has been deadly in five times at bat. Barry, a youngster, is going great. Iverson, who up to this season has been playing the outfield, has turned out to be a first string receiver.

The outfield, consisting of Fee, Woodland Gerevas, looks good. Johnson, who has been doing the pitching, has made many go to the bench via the strike-out route.

Magnavox is open to meet any organization in the bay region.

COUNTY AD. BODY PLANS CAMPAIGN OF THREE YEARS

$50,000 Annually To Be Expended in Boosting Mainland Section.

The executive committee of the Alameda county advertising conference, meeting at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, had under consideration plans for carrying on a three-year campaign for the mainland.

The responses to the call for the meeting showed that interest in the project extended from Livermore on the east to Berkeley on the north, all sections promising to have representatives present.

The executive committee's program called for organization of subcommittees for the purpose of embarking immediately upon the proposed $50,000 annual campaign. One of the principal committees to be named was that on finance, which will be charged with raising the $50,000 a year for three years.

Reports coming into the headquarters of the advertising conference in the Oakland Chamber of Commerce offices show that widespread interest has been aroused by the movement. A large number of organizations not originally represented at the conference at the Merchants' Exchange on Wednesday last have come forward with pledges of assistance.

The executive committee has gathered a large amount of data on other community advertising campaigns for the study of local conditions. The results in Kansas City, St. Louis, Seattle and San Diego are proving of particular interest to the committee, in view of the reports received of the results achieved by the campaign.

Kirk Says Unnamed Man Shot Alvarado Banker

While William Kirk was turning state's evidence on the so-called "Thirty Strong" gang and giving testimony that John A. Sullivan, San Francisco bon vivant, was the "master criminal" of the clique, Frank ("Skee") Murphy appeared before Superior Judge A. F. St. Sure and pleaded guilty to stealing an automobile from Albert G. Waddell.

Murphy was captured when the sheriff's posse raided the place at 593 Nineteenth street and arrested John C. Fleming, Ralph Jones, William Kirk, Mark Strickland, Prescott Rey, Eddie Lenehan, Mrs. Rey, Gladys Fleming alias Kirk, Mrs. J. A. Sullivan and Miss Anabel Fegler, besides recovering a large amount of stolen property.

Whether Murphy will join Kirk in testifying against the gang in return for clemency District Attorney Ezra Decoto refused to state. Murphy was with Ralph ("Spike") Jones, who is charged with robbing the Vernon and Harrison hotels, and if he turns state's evidence, the authorities say, his testimony will convict Jones and Eddie ("Boston") Lenehan.

STORY OF SHOOTING

Revelations to the effect that "Lefty" Foley, said to be a notorious criminal, and an unnamed crook of nation-wide fame, were members of the gang that robbed the Alvarado bank and that the unnamed man shot and wounded August May, president of the bank, were made on the witness stand by Kirk, when he appeared against Sullivan today.

Kirk, who has been held in the Emergency hospital instead of in jail to prevent members of the gang from attacking him, told how the money was divided after the robbery. Kirk also described how Sullivan "spotted the lay," going first to the Alvarado Bank as an insurance adjuster and then to Ralph's store to make a petty purchase in order to locate the safe. Both the bank and the store were robbed soon after.

Kirk told how after Beebe, Fitzgerald Foley and the "unknown" had robbed the bank and fled in their automobile, they let Foley and Beebe out of the car at Havenscourt; that the two men then went to Kirk's home at 1008 Chestnut street in Alameda and that the loot was there divided.

DIVISION OF SPOILS

The men arrived at the Kirk home, according to the testimony, with all the loot. Larry Fitzgerald, the driver of the car, and the "unknown" went on into Oakland with the automobile.

Beebe, who is now serving time in San Quentin, and Foley, who is a fugitive from justice, then asked Kirk to go to San Francisco and get Spanny Valente, proprietor of a Howard-street shack, to come over to participate in the division of the spoils. Valente was to share because the robbery had been planned in his shack.

"Valente came over to my house in Alameda," Kirk testified, "and together with Foley and Beebe divided the money. Beebe owed me some money and gave me $100. He told me that he had $4400 more as his share. He also gave $100 to Gladys le Blanc, my divorced wife."

Kirk said that the men discussed the robbery freely and that Foley showed that the "un-named" bandit had accidentally wounded him on the arm when he shot down May.

Miss Mattie Ramsey and Ed Whiting, attendants at Tom Cheeks' in West Oakland, testified for the State that Fitzgerald had come into the place with a shotgun, rifle and a brown coat shortly after the hold-up.

OAKLAND GIRLS AND FIVE MEN ARE ARRESTED

SAN JOSE, April 6.—Five youths and two Oakland girls were arrested this morning on the Homestead road, twelve miles northwest of this city, after the authorities had received complaints from ranchers concerning their conduct and after they are alleged to have endeavored to break into a store on the road. One of the men admits having deserted from the Mare Island navy yard. The police express the belief that all are deserters from some branch of the service. One of the men professes to be the husband of one of the women.

The women are Mrs. Dagmar Arruda, 22, and her sister, May Olsen, 20, both residing at 5669 Grove street, Oakland. They said they had accompanied the men from Oakland and had walked to within a few miles of San Jose. The women and their companions were found lying under a tree bordering the Homestead road at 5 o'clock this morning. The younger woman was exhausted from her long walk.

The men in custody are: Joseph Wimple, 22, of Waterville, Mo., who, the authorities say, deserted from the cavalry at Monterey; George Jones, 18, La Fosa, Calif., who is said to have admitted having deserted from Mare Island; Harold Fray, 19, Sioux City, Ia., in sailor's uniform, but whose claim that he has been discharged is not substantiated by the possession of discharge papers; George Seexer, 19, of Missouri, who has discharge papers which the police say have been tampered with, and a man giving the name of August Arruda, 23, who says he is the husband of the Arruda woman. Arruda claims to have held a commission as first lieutenant in the marine corps, but could not produce discharge papers.

The men are being held pending an investigation by the federal officials. The girls will be charged with vagrancy if it is determined to hold them further.

BOND DISCOUNT BILL IS URGED BY BERKELEY BOARD

Lester Hink Says Proposed Law Would Save City Schools Money.

BERKELEY, April 6.—Resolutions calling upon Alameda county's representatives in the legislature to support a measure now before that body which will give municipalities the right to discount low-interest bonds were adopted at yesterday's meeting of the board of education.

Director Lester W. Hink introduced the resolution, declaring that assembly bill No. 714 offered the only real hope for Berkeley and Oakland as well of marketing bonds voted by the people of the two cities for school purposes. At the present time, Hink pointed out, school construction work is being held up in Berkeley because of the inability to market a half-million dollars in bonds still remaining unsold. Under the present laws the bonds must be sold at par and because of the low rate of interest afforded the school officials have found few prospective buyers.

The assembly bill, according to Hink's explanation to the board provides that bonds may be marketed either by state or municipal officials at a discount not exceeding 6 per cent.

"This bill will be a life-saver for many municipalities and for the state as well," declared Hink. "It is practically impossible at the present time to sell bonds voted at low rates of interest and Berkeley's difficulties are those of Oakland and other cities as well."

Telegrams urging Berkeley's representatives at Sacramento to lend their support to the measure were sent yesterday by Hink preceding the adoption of resolutions by the board.

Pending action by the legislature the calling for bids for a $40,000 boiler plant at the new high school building was delayed by the board. Plans for the plant as submitted yesterday by Architect W. C. Hays were approved by the board members.

UNUSUAL STUNTS TO BE THRILLERS AT LEGION FIESTA

Local Posts To Have Charge of Special Nights; Fun To Be Varied.

Special post nights have been arranged for the first annual fiesta and carnival of Oakland Post, No. 5, of the American Legion, which will be held April 11 to 16. Oakland Post No. 5 will be in charge on the opening night, when a down-town feature parade will be held. On the following night, Tuesday, Alameda and Argonne posts will take charge, and Wednesday will see Livermore and Pleasanton posts in charge that night.

Richmond and Piedmont Posts will hold sway on Thursday night, April 15, and on Friday Berkeley and Hamilton Posts will have charge. Hayward and Crockett posts will conduct affairs on Saturday night. On these nights each post will be represented in full force and will have charge of stunts and special features.

A feature for the opening night will be a courtmartial, with hanging as a sure penalty for the crime unless the accused can produce two very beautiful girls to testify in his behalf. There will also be a recruiting farce, showing a rookie being enlisted into military service. All the harshness of a dozen hard-boiled recruiting officers combined would not equal the stunt that is contemplated.

On Wednesday and Friday nights public pie-eating contests for men only will be held.

GIRLS TO BE EXHIBITS

Indian girl students at the St. [illegible] art Institute at Carson, Nevada, will be offered in evidence to indicate the character of the work being done there when Mrs. B. V. Royce, head of the school, delivers an address before the Woman's Club of Plymouth church tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Plymouth Center, Piedmont and Yosemite avenues.

S.F. Council of Y.M.[illegible] To Go To San Jo[illegible]

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Mrs. Frances Brownlee, prosecutrix of George S. Ross, automobile salesman, whom she accuses of taking $1200 worth of her jewels and putting poison in her tea, was not anxious to prosecute Mrs. Theo[illegible] Nelson, of the Cartwright Hotel, before Police Judge McAtee today. Mrs. Nelson struck Mrs. Brownlee twice in the corridor of the Hall of Justice yesterday by way of aiding Ross in his defense. On the witness stand Mrs. Brownlee described the assault, but said she was satisfied that Mrs. Nelson was unnerved and excited. She denied that she had stolen Mrs. Nelson's husband or wrecked her home, saying that the son had called on her with his attorney and represented himself as a single man. The charge against Mrs. Nelson was dismissed.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

Oakland Hi. Team Defeats Modesto

The Oakland High Track and Baseball teams traveled down to Modesto to combat with the teams from Modesto Hi. The result was an even break, Oakland winning the baseball game and Modesto the track meet.

In regard to the ball game, Oakland uncovered a good twirler in the person of Hoffman (a second Kenny Martin), who allowed only five hits and struck out ten men. King, who twirled for Modesto, pitched good ball until the fatal seventh, when with the score 2 to 1 in Oakland's favor, he was nicked for five runs and had to retire in favor of Park. Oakland showed their best form of the season as Modesto was classed as a fine ball club, having held Alameda High to an eleven-inning battle.

Besides the pitching of Hoffman, the stars of the game were Cooper and Wrixon, both of Oakland Hi. Cooper handled six hard chances in the outfield without an error, while Wrixon who is one of the best high school short patchers seen this season handled ten chances without a single boot.

Fremont 130-Pound Nine Trims Oakland

The Fremont 130-pound team won the championship of the O. A. L. by defeating the Oakland High 130-pound team 9 to 5. Gold started in the box for Oakland, but was knocked out in the third inning. Dresser, who relieved him, was good except in the seventh inning, when he walked three batters in a row. Scammon, the Fremont pitcher, pitched good ball. He has one advantage over other pitchers, being able to throw with either left or right arm with the same effect. Leithman of Fremont hit three doubles. Higgins and Wong started with the willow for Oakland. The lineup

First Game Tonight In Water Polo Play

CHICAGO, April 6.—Preliminary games in the National A. A. U. water polo championships will be played here tonight. The final clash will take place tomorrow night.

With the Olympic club of San Francisco, New York A. C., Chicago A. A. and the Illinois A. C. competing, the National A. A. U. 440-yard relay championship will be decided before the polo games are played.

Association Club To Open Up Again

The Association Club which has not staged any bouts at San Francisco since last November, will open its doors next Wednesday night when a program of strictly amateur bouts will be staged. Al Young, promoter, announced last night that Captain of Police William Quinn has said it is alright to stage the bouts as long as the amateur laws are lived up to. Tryouts will be held at the club, Sixteenth and Mission streets.

Petaluma Man Dies Under His Motor Car

PETALUMA, April 6.—An auto accident yesterday took another toll from Petaluma when Will Arnhart went over the grade in his machine on the St. Vincent's hill, over in Marin county. Arnhart was driving his Buick car when the rear axle broke and the machine plunged down the steep grade, overturning and pinning its lone occupant beneath the wreck.

His body was extricated by passing autoists, death having been instantaneous. Arnhart leaves a widow and several brothers and sisters, one of whom, Mrs. F. H. Dorzas, resides in Oakland. He was a substantial citizen of Petaluma and an expert mechanic, conducting a business of his own in the auto supply and repair line.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

By BUD MORIARTY.

Modesto and Oakland high schools broke even last week-end, when the locals went on a foray into the San Joaquin farm center. The Blue and White players annexed the ball game 7 to 1 and lost the track and field meet to the Modestans on the deciding relay, the final count being 58 1-3 to 54 1-3.

Weight baseball in the O. A. L.:

Track—Chairman Boek (Oakland), Hindman (University) and Burrecker Technical).

Swimming — Chairman Hindman (University, Hardin (Technical) and Polson (Fremont).

Fremont baseball nine defeated the Twenty-third Avenue Merchants 8 to 6. Any team wishing a contest with the Boulevard first aggregation could probably make the date by ringing up Coach Polson, or calling at Fremont, as they are short of frays on the pre-season list.

Oakland's 100-pound team looks to be the goods this season. Last week they defeated Vocational's 100 in one of the Oakland Athletic league games by a score of 11-8, while on Monday the Boekmen licked the Alameda high 100-pound nine by a tally of 15-6.

Abe Leach, the golfing star of Oakland high school, wishes to challenge any other East or West bay prep school golf entry to a foursome or twosome on the local links at Claremont, or Sequoyah, or on the challenger's territory.

Block F's will be awarded to the following men who were regulars on the victorious basketball combination in the recent hot O. A. L. battle: Captain Deane Gibson, Manager Odland, Joe Prelli, Shorty Redman, Dick Chappell, Everett Branstetter, Lew Mason. Circle F-S's will be given to four substitutes: Daufee, Westphal, Croley and Iverson. The letter is a four-inch blocked green and gold F. The players think that they should get eight-inch letters—the standard.

Earl Young Knocked Out in First Round

LOS ANGELES, April 6.—(United Press)—It took Joe Coffey just one minute and 53 seconds to stop Earl Young in the feature fight of the Vernon card last night. With Young hanging on the ropes after two knockdowns, Coffey was awarded a technical knockout. Both are from San Francisco.

ALASKA CITIES ELECT.

JUNEAU, Alaska, April 6.—Mayor Ralph E. Robertson, running on the citizens' ticket, was re-elected yesterday, defeating former Mayor Emery Valentine, Progressive, by 29 votes. The new city council will consist of four citizens' representatives and three Progressives. E. A. Rasmussen was elected mayor of Skagway, R. W. Dearmond was elected mayor at Sitka, Mayor Rice of Nome was re-elected and C. Harry Woodward was elected mayor of Fairbanks, according to resurns received here tonight.

Baseball Gossip

In the ninth for the Beavers, Poole tripled and scored on Butler's double. Baker's out allowed Butler to reach third and King was sent to bat for Kingdon, but fouled out to Agnew to let the tieing run die at third.

Raith's double in the fourth inning would have counted for only a single hadn't Wolfer tried to trap the ball.

Marty Krug always has his head up when in the game. He almost caught Sam Agnew over-running third by making a quick throw to Butler, after Conch had been forced out at second by Fitzgerald.

Fitzgerald couldn't hit in training camp, but he came along yesterday to gather a pair of safe blows.

Jimmy O'Connell at first base for the Seals was another to surprise the gang by playing a better game there than he was expected. And he got two hits to have a perfect batting average for the day.

If Mayor James Rolph, who pitched the first ball had stayed in the dug-out, no one would have known he wasn't one of the regular players. He had on a Seal uniform and looked good until he hopped out of the dug-out and displayed a big pair of riding boots instead of baseball spikes.

ZONE ORDINANCE BEFORE COUNCIL HERE TOMORROW

After requesting the city attorney to suppress a ham and egg shanty at Twentieth and Harrison streets, alleged to be existing without a permit, the City Council this morning reminded all interested citizens that the big proposed zoning ordinance for the residential district will come up tomorrow.

George Shelden of the Uptown Association held that the matter will take much more than one day to decide.

"We want to know who is behind this ordinance," he said. "We are trying to develop certain properties in behind the lake so as to increase taxable wealth for the city. If this is always to be residence property we can never do it. If the Real Estate Board is able to show that taxable wealth will be increased, we will be for it."

"You can discuss that tomorrow," said Commissioner Edwards.

"We need a week and we will ask a postponement," promised Shelden.

A report by the building inspector on a proposed oil station at Nineteenth and Harrison streets was deferred till tomorrow, as that locality is in the proposed zone district.

A report by the poundmaster for March shows that Oakland collected 123 dogs during that month and 21 dead cats, 31 of the dogs still being "on hand." The poundmaster also picked up 15 cattle, 9 horses and 21 goats.

Bowlers Ready For Tribune Tournament

Local bowlers are on edge for the Oakland TRIBUNE Diamond Medal Tournament, which commences at the Maryland Bowling Alleys, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Interest in this contest is growing as the time for starting the balls rolling draws near and the list of entries is larger than ever before.

Vowles, the past season's champion, is so pleased with his TRIBUNE medal that he says he must have this year's prize also to match the other. Consequently he saw to it that he was entrant No. 1 and states that that is the way he is going to finish. Of course there are numerous other entrants who will have something to say as to whether he does or not, but whoever does win the honors, will be well deserving of it.

The TRIBUNE medal this year will be a thing of beauty, and as in former years proclaims the winner of the same, the local bowling champion. Harry Gossett, who conducted last year's TRIBUNE tourney in such an able manner will be on the job again, so the players are assured that the contest will be one of the highest order. After the opening night's play games in the tournament will be held Monday and Thursday nights of each week until completed.

Alleged Gamblers Are Prepared For Trial

CHICAGO, April 6.—Three of the alleged gamblers indicted in State's Attorney Crow's new investigation of the 1919 world's series scandal today advised him that they are ready to waive extradition proceedings and stand trial.

Bobby Ertle Wins Fight At Stockton

STOCKTON, April 6.—In the main boxing bout here last night Bobby Ertle was awarded the contest over Charlie Moy.

Other results were: Jimmy Risso boxed four rounds with Kid Herman, Oakland newsboy; Carpentier quit in the second round in a bout with Murphy; Lynch and O'Leary went four rounds to a draw; Battling Abrew put out Jack O'Brien of Oakland in the second round.

FRANCE BOXES DRAW

BUTTE, Mont., April 6.—Earl France, claimant of the lightweight championship of the Pacific Coast, and Ed Englehart of Billings, last night fought a fast 15-round draw.

ANOTHER DRAW.

HAVANA, Cuba, April 6.—The seventh draw in the championship chess match here between Emanuel Lasker and Jose Capablanca was recorded today. Capablanca has one victory to his credit.

AMERICANS VISIT POPE.

ROME, April 6.—Pope Benedict today received a group of American sailors from the United States cruiser Portsmouth.

$100 IN PENNIES USED AS JAZZ IN BOYS' SCRAMBLE

Because Rufus R. Smith, stock salesman, persisted in telegraphing the President and because he threw $100 in pennies and nickels from a 10-story building in Memphis, Tenn., to street urchins to watch the scramble, Superior Judge James G. Quinn today committed him to Agnew State hospital.

Smith has been held in the county jail on the charge of passing bad checks but on the recommendation of Inspector Richard McSorley and Probation Officer Leonard Compton, he was charged with insanity.

During the war Smith is reported to have wired to President Wilson from an army camp:

"Dear President: Have attended to everything and will see you as soon as the Mayflower docks."

He telegraphed Secretary of War Newton D. Baker from a Tennessee army camp saying:

Grauman, Veteran Theatrical Man, Dead

LOS ANGELES, April 6.—D. J. Grauman, veteran California theatrical man and motion picture exhibitor, died yesterday at his Hollywood residence. Death came suddenly, presumably of heart disease, after an illness of only a day.

Grauman gained a nation-wide reputation as a film exhibitor. He was 68 years old. Eighteen years ago he opened the old Unique theater in San Francisco, later branching out with play houses in San Jose, Stockton, Sacramento, Oakland and Fresno. In after years came the Lyceum, the Imperial and other San Francisco show houses, and finally he built his famous million-dollar theater here. Sid Grauman, his only son, was associated with him in his enterprises. A widow and the son survive him.

Second Victim Dies In Vallejo Shooting

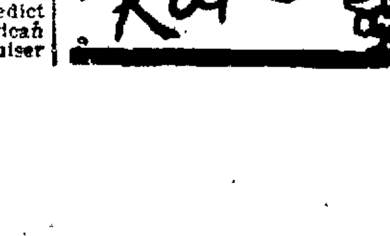

VALLEJO, April 6.—A. J. Herrick Sr., shot early yesterday morning by Juan Padden, chauffeur at the navy yard, died last night, and efforts of the police and navy yard authorities to capture Padden have been redoubled.

A. J. Herrick Jr., little son of the dead man, also wounded, has been removed to another town by his mother and placed with friends. The place is held secret for fear that Padden will return to take further vengeance upon the stricken family.

Contrary to first reports, Padden has not been apprehended and there is no clew at present to his whereabouts.

Doughnut Holes Are All Alike

but what goes 'round 'em is what makes the difference. Pa says that what goes 'round the holes in Superior Doughnuts tastes better'n anything he knows. And I know that Pa's right, because I've tasted all sorts of Doughnuts, but never any so good as Superior Doughnuts.

Government Will Aid Service in Alaska

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Proposal for the lease of a Shipping Board vessel to be operated on the Alaskan coast between Seward and Dutch Harbor was considered at a conference yesterday between Secretary of the Interior Fall and officials of the board. Captain Foley, director of the Shipping Board, indicated the board would be willing either to lease or sell a suitable vessel for the service to any private interests that might organize. Secretary Fall also was said to favor some form of government aid in placing a suitable vessel on the route.

LENROOT'S OPPONENT DIES

LACROSSE, Wis., April 6.—James Thompson, candidate for United States senator against Senator Irving Lenroot in the elections last fall, died here today after an operation for appendicitis performed last Thursday. Thompson was 45 years old and had practiced law here for twenty years. He was a graduate of the University of Wisconsin.

POLITICAL NOTES

"Oakland does need a harmonious and business-like administration and I agree with Major Davie that Mr. Carter and Mr. Colbourn are the men necessary to put this kind of an administration into service," declared Chief Engineer F. C. Taylor, Pacific Tank and Pipe Company, at a [illegible] meeting at the plant in High street near the estuary yesterday. Mayor Davie also spoke. Taylor spoke extemporaneously at the close of the meeting. Last night the two candidates attended the big get-together dinner of the Merchants' Exchange at the Hotel Oakland. They also addressed a meeting of the Butchers' Union, held in their hall at Eleventh and Franklin streets, last night. Earlier in the day the candidates with Mayor Davie made a tour of the wholesale district.

I. H. Spiro, president of the Merchants' Exchange, and a candidate for the office of Commissioner No. 2, spoke last night at Lakeside hall in East Oakland. The candidate has promised the people of Oakland that he will make a supreme effort to reduce taxes, thereby offering inducements to the stranger to locate in our city. Spiro had a busy evening, for after leaving Lakeside he was called upon and did address voters at Dimond, Allendale and Elmhurst. Spiro will establish headquarters in the Leona Heights district shortly where he will meet all voters in the district.

State Senator A. P. Anderson's candidacy for city commissioner No. 2 has been endorsed by Sheriff Frank Barnet, who has written a letter to friends throughout the city. Senator Anderson has been informed of his endorsement by the local Barbers' and Glassworkers' Unions. Last night Anderson addressed a house meeting at the residence of Mrs. M. Murray, 3145 Lynde street.

The problems of Oakland during the war period and its future for the next four years formed the subject of an address delivered Monday evening by Commissioner F. F. Morse before the East Oakland Community club, Seventeenth street and Fruitvale avenue. Reverend A. L. Webb, chairman of the gathering which was a "get-together meeting," introduced Commissioner Morse following a banquet held in the club rooms. Morse, who is a candidate to succeed himself as commissioner of public health and safety, briefly outlined the accomplishments of his administration during the war period of the city's history and told what he hoped to accomplish if permitted by his constituents to continue his work.

Commissioner Morse was endorsed by the Dining and Sleeping Car Employees, Local No. 328, at a meeting held on April 5.

With the primary election two weeks away, Albert E. Carter and Frank Colbourn, candidates of the Good Government League, are campaigning day and night, meeting and talking to citizens in all walks of life. They closed a busy day yesterday by attending the dedication dance in Tupper's hall, Dimond, last night. Twelve hundred voters of the Dimond district were present. Earlier in the day they visited the wholesale produce district, accompanied by Mayor John L. Davie. On Sunday they met 5000 fans at the Pacific Coast League ball park when the Oaks met the Chicago Cubs. Carter and Colbourn are both ardent fans.

CALIFORNIAN IS HARDING CALLER AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, April 6.—(United Press).—President Harding had another long appointment list today. It included:

10 a. m.—Congressman Lineberger, California; J. F. Tregoe and committee from the National Association of Creditmen, Fred S. Cawson, grand commander of the Knights Templar and committee; W. L. McMenimen, deputy president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

3 p. m.—Executive committee of the National Council of the Woman's Party—Miss Anita S. Pollitzer.

Romany Club Will Resume Hikes Friday

With an evening walk through the University of California campus, going through the botanical gardens up to the big "C," where basket suppers will be eaten, the Romany Club, a local hikers' organization, will resume its summer schedule Friday evening hikes.

The hikes will be under the direction of Jessie LaMont. The Club, a girls' organization, will also hold Monday evening swims at the Y. W. C. A. An all-night camp at the Boy Scout camp in Dimond canyon is also planned by the club for April 23, and on next Sunday the club will take a twenty-mile hike from Fairfax in Marin county to Alpine Lake, Cataract Gulch and Rock Springs, and return by way of Mill Valley.

Civil War, Lincoln Views To Be Shown

Members of the Fremont lodge of Masons will hear a lecture on Abraham Lincoln and see lantern slides and stereopticon views of the civil war president, made from original photographs, at the meeting in the Fruitvale Masonic Temple tomorrow night. The lectures will be given by E. R. Jackson. The views not only include historical events, such as the inauguration of Lincoln, but show civil war battlefields. The civil war battlefields will be compared with present-day battlefields, which will also be shown in lantern slides.

STUBBED TOE NIPS THEFT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Because George Edwards, 19 years old, stubbed his toe early today, he and a boy companion, William Seilhorn, are at the city prison charged with attempted burglary. The youths are alleged to have been engaged in prying the screen from the rear door of the Puritan Market, 2627 Mission street, today when Edwards stumbled over a box and hurt his foot. He yelled with pain and the noise was heard by Sergeant Mignola and Patrolmen Kirby and Kerr. They found the boys hiding in a shed. The boys admitted attempting to enter the premises.

PATRIOTIC CLUB TO DANCE

The second ball of the Senior Sons and Daughters of Washington will be held tonight in the Pacific building, Sixteenth and Jefferson streets. Harold Thompson will be chairman of the evening. He will be assisted by Lloyd Abrams, Ernest Silva, Ray Antweiler, Harold Langtry, Michael Delkovich, John Laborda, a hostess committee and members of the Mothers' Club. Miss Angela Pingitore will lead the jazz orchestra.

CHARITIES GIVEN $12,000,000 BY MRS. PULLMAN

CHICAGO, April 6.—The will of Mrs. George M. Pullman, widow of the inventor of the Pullman car, who died recently at Pasadena, Cal., was filed in probate court here today. It disposes of an estate valued at $3,425,000. The will revealed that Mrs. Pullman has given $12,000,000 to charity in recent years.

The bulk of the estate goes to Mrs. Frank O. Lowden, wife of the former Illinois governor and Mrs. Francis C. Carolan. Mrs. Lowden and Mrs. Carolan are daughters of Mrs. Pullman.

The sum of $250,000 is distributed in bequests to various other relatives and friends. Florence Frederick Pohlman of St. Louis received a bequest of $5000.

Two Shop Arithmet[illegible] Classes Are Plann[illegible]

Two classes in shop arithmetic, planned particularly to aid mechanics, are to be started in Oakland next week by the Extension Division of the University of California. The classes will meet at the Oakland High school, Twelfth and Jefferson streets, and Roy D. McCarthy, instructor at the Oakland vocational high school, will be the instructor.

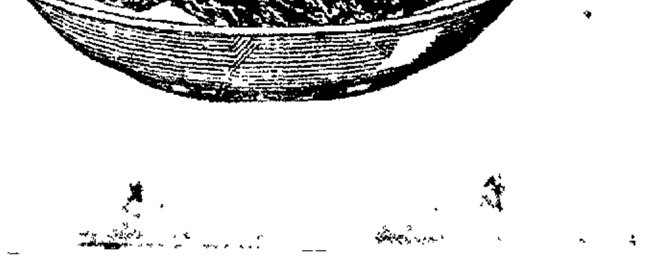

The elementary class in shop arithmetic meets on Tuesday, April [illegible] at 7, and an advanced class Thursday at the same hour. Registration may be made at the class room at room 301, California Hall, Berkeley.

Get Together Is Slogan for Bigger and Better Oakland

For a bigger and better Oakland, 300 business men and members of the Merchants' Exchange gathered at the banquet board at Hotel Oakland last night in observance of the twenty-sixth anniversary of the founding of that pioneer trade organization of the city, laid plans for a membership campaign and for participation in the community advertising campaign for Alameda county now on foot.

The banquet program included varied musical numbers and the presidents of all of the leading commercial organizations of the city and others as speakers.

"The history of the world in the past few years," declared LeRoy Goodrich president of the Lions' club, "has been marked by a great wave of 'unintelligent unselfishness' This is the case in Russia, where an attempt to build a nation on a false doctrine of internationalism is rapidly crumbling.

"No man can be an international good citizen and no man can be a national good citizen until he is a state and local good citizen, and, in turn, this cannot be achieved unless the man is a good leader of his own family and social group about him.

"Germany provides us with a lesson in the result of 'unintelligent selfishness' 'Deutschland uber Alles' was the motto and the citizenry and government was more concerned with itself than with anything else in the world.

LEADS TO SUCCESS

President Harding has come forward with a new doctrine; it is 'enlightened unselfishness,' and that is the course which leads to success. That is the course which Oakland business must and will follow."

The presiding chairman, I. H. Spiro, president of the Merchants' Exchange, called on Mayor John L. Davie as first speaker, recalling that it was the present mayor who twenty-six years ago staged a party which started the local organization on its long and eventful career.

Davie reviewed the birth of the Merchants' Exchange and told how three years later the annual banquet was attended by 300 merchants of what was then a small town clustered around the county buildings on lower Broadway and reaching out West Seventh street.

H. C. Capwell, pioneer merchant and charter member of the organization spoke on "How the Small Merchant Benefits by Belonging to the Merchants' Exchange."

"No man can go it alone. If ever there was a time to get together it is now. There is none so big that he can afford to stay out of an organization of this kind," Capwell said. "There was a time when I believed that the city needed one big amalgamated Chamber of Commerce, but now I see the need of a number of organizations to handle the large number of business men of this city.

MUST GET TOGETHER.

"The man who goes it alone is forever small We must get together in one big effort for a greater city and a greater northern California."

Capwell called attention to a diagram-map appearing in this month's issue of "The Nation's Business," the organ of the United States Chamber of Commerce, in which California is represented in gray for good business conditions and the rest of the country in black for dull business conditions. The three best bets in the State of California today are Oakland, Fresno and Los Angeles, and it is up to us to take advantage of the fact that we are living in "the" best bet in the State and get into the Merchants' Exchange and boost. We can do collectively what we cannot do singly.

Joseph H. King, president of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, took up the thought where Capwell left off. He said:

"City building is the greatest job in the world. Men of today are saddled by burdens brought on by the mistakes of the past and vision and faith is needed everywhere to promote our cities.

WHAT OAKLAND NEEDS

"What Oakland needs today is

"1. Faith unlimited.

"2. Co-operation.

"3. Advertising."

An old prophecy lacking but one year of being seventy years old and made by William Seward, Abraham Lincoln's secretary of State and a leading thinker of his time, was quoted by King:

"'Who does not see then that the West is the coming empire . . . that the centers of European civilization will continue to sink in importance while the Pacific will become the chief theater of events in the years to come.'

"Seward was right," King commented. "No man can make good in a city that is standing still; the time has come for us to get together and do things."

Max Horwinski, president of the Oakland Rotary Club, devoted his brief address to an introduction of the next speaker. He outlined the fame and prosperity of the famous land of Kiwaniola, which, he said, was the Eastbay district centuries ago, and which was presided over by a wise and just sultan, Abdul Lechiosa. Then he introduced Abe Leach, president of the Kiwanis Club and direct descendant of the famous sultan.

KIWANIS CLUB'S WORK

Leach took up the work that the Kiwanis club is doing in Oakland in city boosting and told of its motto, "We Build," and the many ways in which this motto is given a constructive application on local business affairs. The purpose of man on this earth is two-fold: To serve himself and to serve others, he pointed out.

Leach was followed by LeRoy Goodrich, president of the Lions Club, who pledged his club to work shoulder to shoulder with the Merchants' Exchange in city building activities.

Fred M. Hunter "went Joe King one better" in the needs of Oakland, as he announced, King gave three and Hunter presented four. They were:

"1. More self-confidence together with more faith in the city—a future vision of a great city rather than a backward memory of the small town that Oakland has been.

DEFINITE PROGRAM NEEDED

"2. A definite constructive program since co-operation, enthusiasm and hard work lead nowhere without a definite program of activity. This program must be worked out on consistently broad lines and must take care of the economic, commercial, industrial, home building and educational aspects of city development.

"3. Co-operation since it is the chief characteristic of the true 'small town' that it is divided into many factions which will not pull together.

"4. Real leadership for democracy needs leadership. Democracy recognizes that the individual entities of a society are not equally capable and so works for 'the progress of all through all under the leadership of the wisest and best.'"

"One of the best tendencies observable," said Hunter, "is the co-operation of farmers in the formation of strong marketing organizations for which California is now famous. The Merchants' Exchange appeal is a constructive one to which everyone should respond.

WILL WORK SALVATION

Charles A. A. McGee, attorney and political worker, was presented to speak on "The Value of Civic Organizations to Community."

"In the olden days we pledged health of the reigning sovereign," he said, "but recently we have torn the diadem from the stolid and somewhat vacant brow of the sovereign and now we drink to the great American citizen.

"There is a high tone to this meeting tonight. Lincoln said a house divided against itself cannot stand, and this same message will work Oakland's salvation.

"In life there is no such thing as a static condition. Either you move upward and onward or go backward and disintegrate. Politics in the broad and lesser understood sense of the world is the greatest thing in the world. We should realize that the sanctity of the home, the sanctity of business, of the church and of government all depend on that which politics has for its subject matter—the normal relation of the citizen to the state.

TEN FACTORS CONTRIBUTE

The speaking program was wound up by Fred E. Reed, president of the California Real Estate Association.

"Ten factors contribute to the greatness of a city. Oakland is the only city in the world having all of them. Great cities have been built on one or two of them. It is up to us to realize what the unheard of potential possibilities of our city are" declared Reed. Then ten points he enumerated as follows:

"1. Climate.
"2. Physical beauty.
"3. Agricultural back country.
"4. Mining back country.
"5. Forested back country.
"6. Fisheries back country.
"7. Transportation, shipping
"8 Roads and highways.
"9. Schools.
"10. Social life."

Oakland, he pointed out, has each of these ten requisites in the superlative degree. Going over each of these points he pointed out in detail the superior advantages of Oakland in the ten points.

"Three-fourths of the raw material of the world lies in the lands across the Pacific," he declared, "and shipping via Oakland is the cheapest and quickest route from the Orient to American and European civilization."

Reed spoke for the proposal agitated at various times for the dredging of an ocean channel north by the Sacramento river to Red Bluff and south to the headwaters of the San Joaquin valley. He spoke for city planning and urged the parking of the entire length of the Skyline boulevard to make it the greatest scenic drive in the world.

TAX REDUCTION URGED

Reed also touched on the need of tax reductions as a business booster, and issued an invitation to the business men to attend the state conference on realty taxation to be held in the Hotel Oakland Friday and Saturday of this week.

The meeting ended with a brief talk by Lee Bertillion, in which plans for the membership drive of the Merchants' Exchange were presented. The entire downtown area of the city was allotted to business captains by blocks, and preparations made to double the membership of the Merchants' Exchange within the next forty-eight hours.

Musical numbers on the program included the first public appearance of Frank Willard Kimball's saxaphone band in patriotic, classical and jazz selections, vocal solos by Miss Henderson and by the Merchants' Exchange quartet composed of A. E. Castro, G. M. Garcia, M. F. Castro and E. W. Lesser. The team of Young and Gillem presented saxaphone and piano solos. Will M. Cressy, war entertainer and author on the Orpheum circuit, opened the meeting with a humorous talk on California's boosting.

The general committee for the banquet was headed by I. H. Spiro and included Ed Wittenberg, E. F. Muller and Harry G. Williams. The decorations committee was headed by J. W. Musselman, and included E. M. Sanborn, Charles Nisbet, J. E. Maucrhan and J. F. Potter and Lee Bertillion headed the committee on entertainment.

was increased from 5.6 to 7.5 by the King bill." declares Dailey "This amounts to 1.9 increase, which is approximately $19,000 on a million dollars We contend that an 8-cent raise on a $1.05 rate, because of this increase in taxation, is not justified."

Both Gray and Dailey assert the company has no right to collect from the consumer a deficit, because the consumer did not pay a sufficient sum to meet a subsequent increase in taxes. Gray sums up the complaints to be contained in the rehearing petition as follows:

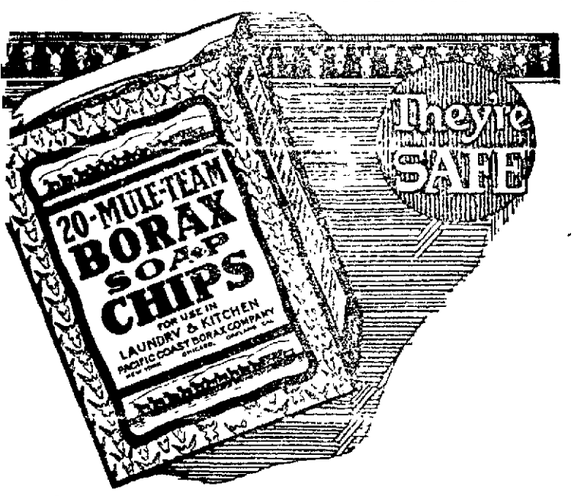

"The decision of the Railroad Commission rendered in July, 1920, which fixed the gas rate at $1.05, was considered fair by attorneys for the cities of Northern California affected by the increase

"Within six weeks the P. G. & E. filed a subsequent application for an increase in rates fixed by that decision We contend that P. G. & E. should have asked for a rehearing of the first case and not have burdened the municipalities with coming back to fight another rate case.

"Then again sufficient time should have elapsed to test out these rates so that facts and not estimates could be submitted in evidence."

SPRING VALLEY WATER PETITION

The Spring Valley Water Company is seeking a readjustment of its rates on the ground that its earnings do not yield a reasonable return upon the value of the properties, that operating costs have increased while the purchasing power of money has decreased and that the failure of San Francisco to purchase the company is the reason action for a rate readjustment has been taken so promptly.

FOREIGN EGGS ARE HARD HIT BY ASSEMBLY BILL

Stevens of Sebastopol Seeks To Control Imported Product Sale.

SEBASTOPOL, April 6.—Considerable interest is being manifested by poultrymen in this county, relative to a bill introduced at the present session of the Legislature, to regulate the scale of imported eggs. This bill is being fostered by Assemblyman stevens of Sebastopol, and is similar to that presented by former Assemblyman Knox Boude, which passed the Legislature and became a law, but was later declared unconstitutional by the California Supreme court.

A law similar to that of Boude's was passed by the Washington Legislature and became a law. The Stevens bill, in part, is as follows:

Section 1—All eggs imported into the State of California from foreign countries shall be sold as such. The case container in which the eggs are shipped shall have the words, 'foreign eggs' displayed thereon in letters two inches high. All retailers of said eggs shall sell them from the container in which he receives them and shall inform the purchaser that said eggs are 'foreign eggs.' All restaurants, hotels, cafes, dining cars, bakeries and confectioners using or serving 'foreign eggs' must place a sign in letters not less than four inches in size in a conspicuous place where consumers entering their place of business can see it, which sign will read, 'We use foreign eggs.' Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

Miss Cynthia Leet To Be Buried Tomorrow

Funeral services for Miss Cynthia P. Leet, pioneer member of the Oakland school department and charter member of the California Botanical Society, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Charles F. Scott, 710 East Nineteenth street. Interment will be private. Her death yesterday in Merritt hospital followed an illness of a week. An operation for appendicitis was performed last Thursday, from which she did not rally.

Miss Leet was the daughter of the late Samuel T. Leet and Mrs. Cynthia R. Leet. She is survived by two brothers, R. A. Leet and Lou C. Leet, and two sisters, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Thomas Kneale, who is en route from San Diego. Miss Leet is listed with the early teachers in this city. She retired from the department several years ago to become manager for the kodak finishing department of the Bowman stores. She taught in Franklin, Lincoln, Garfield, Durant and several other schools.

The collection of plants valued by the California Botanical Society was largely the work of Miss Leet, who was the official photographer as well as charter member of that out of door club. She was a member of the Sierra and Tamalpais clubs; also the Home Club, Oakland Civic Center and Unity clubs of this city.

Miss Leet was born in San Jose. The family is a pioneer one of Oakland.

Christianson Denies Charge of Contempt

Introducing into evidence his cards announcing that he would be an office-seeker in 1922, Attorney T. L. Christianson, in defending himself against the charge of contempt of court before Superior Judge A. F. St. Sure today, said that the action had been started to discredit his candidacy. Christianson has been a periodical candidate for district attorney for some years.

Christianson is charged with contempt of court for having told Edward Landi not to appear before Judge St. Sure when he had been ordered to show cause why he should not be fined for failing to pay alimony to Mary Cristen Landi, his wife. Christianson denies that he ever told Landi this, while Landi says that he did.

Christianson said that if he is adjudged guilty of contempt he would carry his fight to the Appellate Court.

Assistant District Attorney John U. Calkins and Deputy District Attorney Wade Snook represented the prosecution while Christianson defended himself. Christianson first argued insufficiency of the complaint and when this was overruled denied in toto all the charges.

Attorney J. W. Clark, who has offices with Christianson, was one of the witnesses for the prosecution in the case. Court Clerk Frank Schnepple also testified on technical points.

The alleged act of contempt is said to have been committed December 5, 1919.

RESCUED FROM RIVER.

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—An unidentified workman was rescued from the Sacramento river early yesterday by Fred Parnum, plant foreman of the Associated Oil company, who heard the man's cry for help and threw him a rope, by means of which he hauled him to the bank. The man departed without thanking his benefactor.

FRUIT PACKERS OPPOSE S. B. 12, SAYS CHAMBER

Speedy Decision On Change in S. P. Routing Is Urged.

SAN JOSE, April 6.—That the "unfortunate" wording of Senate bill No. 12 would almost make it impossible for canners and fruit packers to operate, was the belief expressed by the San Jose Chamber of Commerce last night when it adopted resolutions disapproving of the measure as it is worded and asking the Legislature to amend the bill or defeat it as it stands.

Resolutions also were adopted suggesting early action on the proposal of the Southern Pacific to abandon its Fourth street franchise and build their main lines through San Jose by a route in the westerly city limits already acquired. This change was contemplated by the Southern Pacific company before the war but was dropped when the government took over the roads and postponed all new construction. The present uncertainty, it was pointed out by the Chamber, is holding up the development of Fourth street and hindering the sale of property.

Wet Resolution Is Delayed Till Friday

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—Decision of the budget findings, which was expected to be reached in the Senate, and argument on a resolution for a memorial to Congress favoring light wines and beer, which was scheduled to be heard in the Assembly, went by the boards temporarily today.

The resolution for light wines and beers that had been a special order for 11 o'clock was continued until Friday at the same hour without argument or objection. This will put the T. M. Wright prohibition enforcement act, which is a special order for tomorrow, to the fore, instead of in second place in pending wet and dry legislation.

Masons Hear Talk On Educational Subjects

ALAMEDA, April 6.—The members of Apollo Lodge, F. & A. M., heard an interesting lecture upon educational subjects in general and the Smith-Towne bill in particular, last night. The speaker was Charles A. Adams, past grand master of California.

The Sciots will meet tonight and make final arrangements for their moonlight picnic to be held in Neptune Beach Saturday night. All Master Masons and families are invited.

Dairyman Is Fined For Watering Milk

Antone Marcial, twice convicted of watering milk, was fined $25 today by Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell for a similar offense, the charges being lodged against Marcial by Dr. C. C. Wing, city veterinarian. Marcial conducts a dairy at 2339 Sixth avenue.

Oakland Orpheus Club Concert Is Big Success

2000 People Hear Most Pleasing Program; Solo Work Feature.

One of the most successful concerts yet given by the Oakland Orpheus Club was held by that organization in the Municipal Auditorium last night. It was attended by more than 2000 persons and was the second to be given in this, the twenty-seventh season of the club.

The soloists were Lulu Daniells Taylor, mezzo-soprano, and Ernest H. McCandlish, tenor. Edwin Dunbar Crandall, although sick in bed, got up to direct the musical numbers on the program. Bessie Beatty Roland acted as accompanist.

The solo work was a particularly enjoyable feature of the concert. Mrs. Taylor's voice was fine in quality and excellent in range. Particularly did she make her songs pleasing by her method of rendition. McCandlish sang in his usual winning voice, and their duet numbers received enthusiastic applause.

The program included "Foresters, Sound the Cheerful Horn", "Roses of Picardy", "Invocation to Eros", "Tobacco", "Smilin' Through", "My Love, the Swallow", "Lola", "Ah, Though the Silver Moon Were Mine", "Song of the Vikings", "The Silver Lanterns of the Night", "Night Hymn at Sea", "O, Wert Thou in the Cauld Blast", "Bedouin Song", "Rolling Down to Rio", "Homing", "Thank God for a Garden", "Bird of Love Divine", "Invitation", "The Lord Is My Light".

Members participating in the concert were:

First tenors—R. A. Brown, J. E. Dean, F. Josephson, Nels E. Carlson, Dixon A. Ervin, O. B. Hicks, A. Christian, George S. Johnson, Charles M. Lee, Robert Irving Lynas, J. I. Thomas.

Second tenors—G. W. Booth, Fred Van Dolsen, Thomas S. Hardy, Frank P. Hudnut Jr., C. R. Cortsen, Lewis J. Fraga, L. D. Holland, Ernest H. McCandlish, G. Herbert Darneille, Dr. Robert A. Glenn, Francis J. Henry, V. E. Swedberg, Ralph E. Wastell, Willson J. Wythe.

Alexander Goldstein Stricken At Byron

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Alexander Goldstein, member of the state industrial welfare commission, died suddenly last night at Byron, Cal., according to word received here today. He represented employers on the welfare commission.

Goldstein was well known in business circles as head of Guggenhime and Company, dried fruit dealers

He has been head of Guggenhime and Company for the past three years. Before that he was president of the Phoenix Packing Company of San Francisco, which was consolidated with the firm of Guggenhime and Company aboue three years ago.

Real Beer Flows Over Chicago Bar

CHICAGO, April 6.—The "good old days" were back in Chicago today.

Real pre-historic beer flowed in golden and frothing streams over the bars of most of the reformed saloons and the thirsty were drinking long and deep.

Chicagoans—the malted species—were looping the loop from one cafe to another and lining up to bars which were three deep.

The gush of bar towels and loud confidential conversation between patrons gave the aspect of the "old days." But one thing was missing—the bowl of pretzels.

"Drink up and buy yourself another," was frequently heard. All of which means that treating has passed. Most drinkers now belong to the "Dick Smith Club"—they buy their own and drink it.

Beer, about six per cent, is selling for 30 cents a stein.

From behind his white apron he replied:

"We robbed the brewery. We are going to rob it on the first of each month. Have another stein?"

Frozen Foreign Meat Must Be So Labeled

SACRAMENTO, April 6.—Assemblyman Powers secured passage of a bill today requiring retail vendors of imported frozen meats and establishments serving it to display placards bearing the words "Frozen foreign meat sold here." The act also makes other restrictions in handling such meats. The bill now goes to the Senate.

2 SAILORS HELD, THIRD HURT AT RIOT AT DANCE

Two sailors, giving the names of "Dice" Shaw and J. Jopes, from the receiving ship Boston at Goat Island, are under arrest, charged with drunkenness following a riot in the Arcade dance hall, Eleventh and Broadway, last night. A third sailor, giving the name Fred Henry Bot, 22, also of the receiving ship Boston, was treated at the Emergency hospital last night for a scalp wound and a laceration of the lower lip.

The trouble started when a young man was arrested for unlawfully wearing a navy uniform, according to Police Sergeant Oscar Watson. The arrest was made by a federal officer. The sailors thought the youth was one of their shipmates and made an effort to take the young man from the officer's custody by force.

The trouble was finally quelled when M. P. Story, chief boatswin's mate from Goat Island, arrived and ordered the sailors to stand at attention, and when Sergeant Sherry and Officers E. Robinson and A. Deike appeared on the scene.

Power Employee Is Accidentally Killed

HAYWARD, April 6.—Word was received here late yesterday of the accidental death at Bakersfield of Homer Lotz, husband of Jessie P. Lotz, a resident of, this city, employed as a milliner by the Abrams Furnishing Co.

Lotz was in the employ of the San Joaquin Light and Power Co., in the southern city. No particulars regarding the nature of the accident have been obtained. His death occurred Monday afternoon, and the body is en route here and is expected to arrive tonight.

Lotz leaves, besides his widow, five children—three boys and two girls. The funeral arrangements are in the hands of the Pratt Undertaking Co

Alameda Man Says Dog Bit Him Twice

ALAMEDA, April 6—A certain little black and tan dog tht has a home somewhere in the vicinity of Encinal and Central avenues, has a particular fondness for the calves of Clyde Guy's legs. The same dag has bitten the same legs twice recently and last night he complained to Poundmaster Grant Hicks. Guy lives at 1234 Regent street.

War Secrets Out at Last!

Oakland Tribune Secures Great Lansing Book and Daniels' Story of Navy

All the world has been waiting for the story of former Secretary of State Lansing on the peace conference, the split with Wilson, the Shantung affair, the Japanese bluff of all the nations. It will be the most noted contribution to diplomatic literature of a decade. The Oakland TRIBUNE has secured exclusive rights for its newspaper publication in the San Francisco bay territory.

"What America Did and Failed to Do at Paris" will be answered by the man best qualified of all the statesmen to answer it. He will give a complete story of the confidential happenings inside the peace conference. Publication will start in The OAKLAND TRIBUNE Saturday, April 16.

The Year's Biggest Newspaper Features

Truths Never Before Revealed

Almost simultaneous with the Lansing publication will come Josephus Daniels' inside story of war secrets that have never before been trusted on paper. Sensational revelations will be made in his series of articles which will start in the Oakland TRIBUNE exclusively April 17. He will tell: Inside facts regarding the biggest mine operation in the world's history—how we put the North Sea mine barrage in operation after the British declared it could not be done. Taking the little nursery rhymes away to war, the amazing story of Mother Goose rhymes used to baffle German submarines. The thrilling story of submarine chaser 28 lost for a month in the Atlantic, avoiding capture and navigating under sails made of bed clothes to the Azores and safety. Tracking submarines; trailing the hornets from the time they left their nests; depth bomb tactics. How we safeguarded supremely important plants—guarding against German spies—some things we never trusted to paper—the mysterious disappearance of the "Black Plan" for war with Germany. Things never before revealed!

Holding a Husband

DINNER IS DELAYED

Luckily, however, I had no time for reflection or meditation upon my fancied wrongs. I went from one thing to another, determined that there should be no hitch at the last moment. I appeared at the dinner upon which Katie had spent her best skill with the proud consciousness that everything of Junior's and mine was all ready, that I myself was dressed to the last hairpin, and that all my belongings left behind were in perfect order.

The Durkees and the Fairfax girls had, of course, been invited to this last dinner. Equally of course they were late, for Leila was in that beatific state which made her drop everything if Alfred summoned her for a walk or a talk. And Alfred has all a man's colossal ignorance of the time required by women to prepare a house and themselves for a long absence from home. Katie—far more nervous than the cat who is supposed to be the symbol of feminine tremulousness—fussed over her pet dishes and appealed to me until my own control felt like a rope that had been frayed almost in two.

"Oh, Missis Graham!" she wailed upon my last trip to the kitchen in answer to her signalled frantic summons from the door, "dot dinner all be spoiled, and I feex heem so nice! And you have to go, nodings to eat. You get headache."

"We'll eat the dinner, never fear, Katie," I soothed her. "In fact, you may serve us in five minutes if you wish. No!" as little Mrs. Durkee's excited, high-pitched voice reached my ears, "there they are now. Put the dinner on immediately."

MOTHER GRAHAM FORGETS

I saw the girl's hands shake as she picked up a dish, and realized that she, also, was near the breaking point, and hurried back to the living room to greet the guests.

"Maj. Grantland took all of our bags to New York with him in the car," Mrs. Durkee was excitedly relating when I entered the room. "He came by a little while ago, said he had to go in unexpectedly and couldn't wait for the next train—you know that man of his makes it with that car faster than the train, anyway, and he'll meet us at the station. He was in a tearing hurry, so he didn't have time to stop for yours, too, but that leaves Alfred free to help Dickey with yours. Wasn't it dear of him?"

"He is always thoughtful," I returned purposely making my voice as enthusiastic as possible. All of my fear of arousing Dicky's jealous anger against Maj. Grantland had vanished. I felt a wild, unreasoning desire to "make him sit up and take notice" in some way, and even looked furtively at him when I had spoken.

But he was not even looking at me. He was talking to Alfred Durkee. There was a glance, however, which I intercepted, and which startled me. It came from the eyes of Edith Fairfax, and it held distinct disapproval, and a tinge of the contempt I had once seen in her face when she had told me I did not deserve my husband's love.

I am afraid the return look I gave her was an insolent one. How dared she pass judgment upon my words and actions when all the time—

"Margaret, get these people to the table at once. We'll not have time to make the train comfortably as it is."

She made these words the keynote of the dinner. And the rest of the time left to us she hurried and worried everything and everybody until Katie and I, at least, were nervously exhausted. When we at last were all seated in the taxicabs which were to carry us to the station she uttered a frantic ejaculation:

"My hat box! It's in my room. And we haven't but a minute or two to spare."

"I got it. Joost a minute!" Katie called, and through the open door and lighted windows we saw her running fleetly up the stairs and to my mother-in-law's room. The next instant she had reappeared and was coming down the stairs. There we saw her stumble, catch herself, and with a wild scream come down in a sickening, huddled heap to the bottom of the stairs.

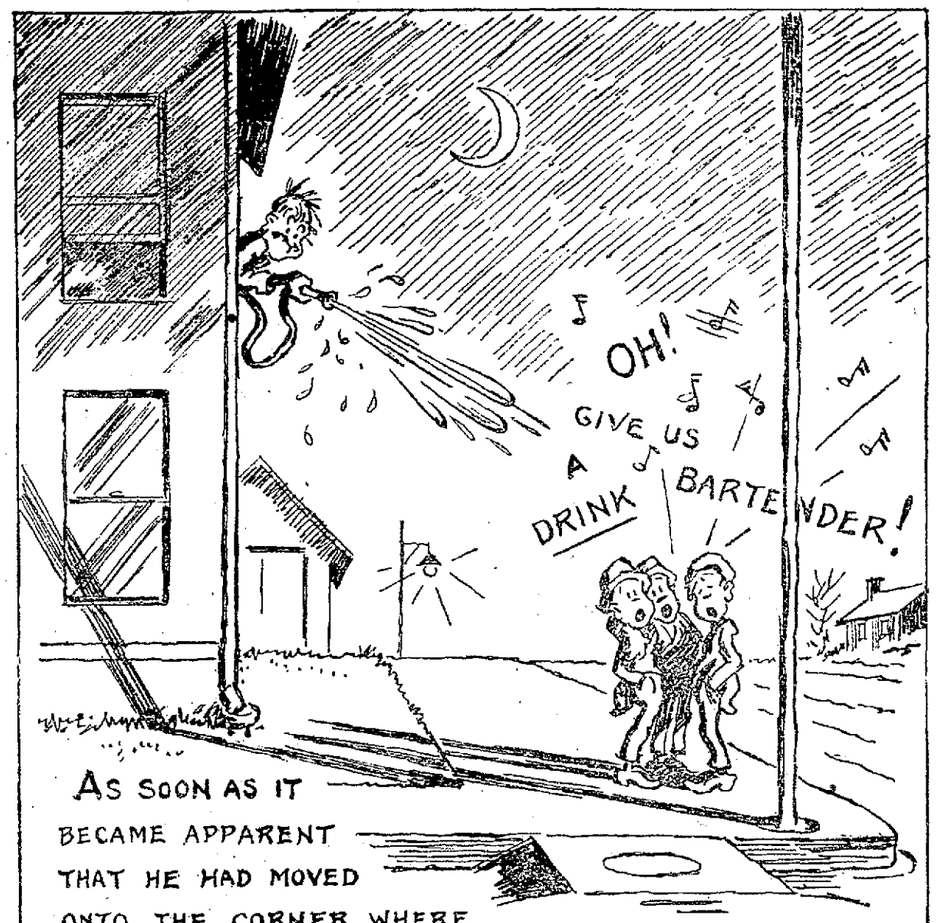

Jim naturally was the first to reach Katie after her fall. He dropped the suitcase he had been putting into the taxi and made a rush for her huddled little figure. But I was not far behind him. As I saw my faithful little maid fall I thrust Junior into the arms nearest me, which happened to be those of Leila Fairfax.

"Hold him," I said, briefly, and jumping out of the cab, ran to Katie's side.

"Is she much hurt?" Mother Graham called anxiously. "If she isn't you'd better let Jim tend to her or we'll miss the train.

Just Folks

BILL PAYS A CALL

Bill dropped in with his "Howdye-do?"
An' he gave the baby a kiss or two,
An' he hugged the girls all 'round till they Had cheeks as pink as the buds of May;
Then he went to Mother an' shook her hand

He galloped the youngster on his knee
An' told him a tale of the rolling sea,
He sprawled full length on the parlor floor
An' made us laugh till our sides were sore;
Then the girls came in from the kitchen where They'd been doin' the dishes, an' Bill said: "There,
Now the work's all done, it is time for play,

An' he brought in gladness for us all;
Old and young, when he passed the door,
Seemed happier folks than they were before,
An' there wasn't a care we had known that day,
But seemed to leave us an' fade away,
Till he suddenly said: "Oh me, oh my!
It's ten o'clock, how time does fly!"

Unless you are one who is rich an' miss
The friendliness an' the warmth an' all
The joys of havin' folks come to call;
Oh, we're richer than millionaires by far,
An' happier, too, than the great men are,
Bill passes 'em by to call on us.

Letters of Terrie & Joe.

DEAR JOE—

I dropped in at Mrs. Brennan's house this afternoon with the baby, because the little angel has been crawling so ambitiously of late that I thought I would let Mrs. B. see him and thus overawe her for the way she's been bragging about her baby's four teeth as opposed to our baby's none.

Well, Joe, you can dimly imagine my unwelcome surprise when the opening words out of Mrs. Brennan's mouth were to the effect that her baby now has six teeth, and she held him up and he opened his mouth in a most disgustedly conceited way and sure enough he had six, the original four and two that were strangers to me.

"Six at his age!" I says, "my goodness, Mrs. B.," I says, "I hope the child isn't deformed or anything of that nature."

That was enough to take her sails in out of the wind, wasn't it, Joe? But it didn't, so I put our little angel down on the floor so she could see him crawl, but the little imp just laid there as if he was frozen to the spot and glad of it. Children are a great trial, there's no doubt about that, Joe. So I had to console myself by explaining to Mrs. B. how wonderful he crawls when he feels the time and the place are just ideal for it, but she hemmed and hawed sneerishly at the whole idea of crawling and said in her opinion it is much more advanced to have teeth than it is to crawl.

"Oh, I don't know, Mrs. B.," I says. "Suppose your baby and my baby were caught in a fire and had to escape," I says. "I guess your baby's six teeth would not get him very far, would they?" I says.

"They'd get him as far as all the crawling your baby did this afternoon," she says.

Can you imagine that, Joe? Anybody low-minded enough to call attention to an accident like that isn't worth talking to, so I took the baby right home and he crawled immediately. I suppose it just goes to prove that after all a baby's place is in the home.

Lovingly, TESSIE.

Prune Short Cake

(MRS. M. WEISENDANGER.)

Two heaping teaspoonsful of baking powder sifted into one quart of flour, a small half teacupful of butter, one tablespoonful of sugar, and sweet milk enough to make a soft dough. Divide the dough into two parts and roll each part almost as thin as pie crust. Lay one on a baking tid, spread a little butter over and sprinkle on a little flour. Then lay the other layer of crust on and bake. Then slip on a hot platter, lift off the top layer, spread on butter and cover plentifully with prunes previously stewed, pitted and sweetened. Lay the top layer on crust side up. To be eaten with sweetened cream.

Listen, World!

I know a little lady who proudly boasts that she has the only effective system for "Holding a husband." An' what do you 'spose it is? Listen—

"I always wear a dainty boudoir cap so that Charlie's last glimpse of me before he leaves me in the morning will be an inspiration all through the long hard day. Of course I don't get up for breakfast with him. I have a peculiarly nervous constitution and I simply MUST sleep until eleven. But I'm not one of those that neglect their duty to their husbands and I'm ALWAYS dainty. The way some women slump after marriage! Rushing through breakfast in gingham dresses with their hair done just any way! It's no wonder men are unfaithful, dearie!"

Yep. Just so. And she isn't alone.

I know hundreds like her. Of all the silly theories! A man doesn't marry because he wants to be "held" by a houri. He takes a wife to help him on the job and keep him in fighting trim. Will a boudoir cap keep him in trim? It will not. And it won't alleviate his feelings while he struggles through a cheerless breakfast either. Nor will the morning sight of that lazy squaw of his cuddled in silk, while he has to go out to work, incite him to higher efforts—unless it be murder.

It might have done once when wives were only excess baggage anyway, but it won't do in view of the modern lineup. The Harem Hunch has now gone into the discard. When a Yawning Boudoir Cap has to compete with a Crisp Little Collar by the office desk, there's no use wasting your money betting. The dice are loaded.

You'd better rise early, Beauteous Ones, if you wish to hold your job. As a Yale Lock on hubby's love, a Gingham Apron beats a Boudoir Cap any day of the week.

Then last, but far from least, "Should Married Women Work"? My opinion is that sometime women's work will be as specialized as the men's, and we will have even more of the comforts and pleasures of life for everyone then than now. But before this can be done our system of living will have to undergo a few changes. For instance, instead of raw material, such as carrots, meat, etc., coming in the back door, the finished article will come instead—the completed meal. It is already being done in New York City.

X. Y. Z.

Incidentally this writer touches on some of the most progressive thought concerning housekeeping. As a matter of fact the average home is run on the least business-like basis in the world. It can only partly be remedied by intelligent co-operation between husband and wife, although that is very badly needed. The real reform must come through NEIGHBORHOOD or COMMUNITY CO-OPERATION. No business man would dream of conducting his business on this piece-meal buying method. He buys on a large scale, and considers the cost of production on every article—whether it will pay him to supply the labor or to buy the finished article. Usually the finished article is infinitely cheaper, because labor comes cheaper by the bulk as well as material.

The buying and operating methods of the average home are still back in the eighteenth century. I CONSIDER THIS LARGELY THE FAULT OF THE HUSBANDS. A man has

Modern Husbands

The man who wrote the following letter didn't sign his name, but I've known just about 7,846,937 men who could have signed it with perfect honesty. Would I pay the bills for a wife that neglected my home and my buttons while she went off visiting? I—WOULD—NOT, and no woman will respect any man that does it either.

Helpful Jerry—Have I any reason to complain? We have been married three years, have a boy nine months' old and some debts. Otherwise everything is fine—BUT there is a "kink" in our joy, and here it is—

I dislike guests and visiting a good deal, but not enough to raise much Cain. My wife, since baby came, has taken a big jump toward both entertaining and visiting. Now that jump is beyond my reach, both in argument and cash—it also is bad because of lack of sleep, for I work very irregular hours.

Before the birth of baby I was the whole cheese. Now I'm just a piece of cheese. My wife was always here then when I came home from work and never left me alone. Now wife leaves me to visit her folks not more than two hours' ride from here and stays as many as four days at a lick and never less than two days.

Now, Jerry, here's a point I can't see. I wouldn't think of staying away from my wife when I could be in her company, but why is it she can stay away from me and lose interest in me so quickly? I'm just a meal ticket now. Can wife be thinking of my welfare and go away when there are repairs to be made on my clothing that are needed very much? My wife hardly ever finds time to do these duties, but I seem to have time to wash clothes and clean house.

Sometimes I think modern husbands are GOATS. Although our fathers had lots of room for improvement, they probably had steadier homes. Jerry, I love my wife dearly and wifey says she loves me, BUT I'D SURELY LIKE A LITTLE MORE ACTION.

A LITTLE DISAPPOINTED.

Be a Night Moth

You're the one that ought to supply the action, my lad! You say it never occurs to you to spend time away from her. Well, why doesn't it? Use the old thinker, lad. Declare a walkout. Put on your buttonless shirtie and your heelless socks and fare ye forth. Make a night moth of yourself for a while. Don't scold—just smile pleasantly and tell wife how much you enjoy running around with the boys again and SEE WHAT HAPPENS. BUT—if you weaken at the first teardrop I hope you never have another button sewed on as long as you live.

Here's a woman I'll wager is making a BIG SUCCESS of the married game. She's replying to some of the Discontented Wives who complain because they can't "manage" or because their husbands read at night or because of a million other reasons. How often have you heard the expression — "DON'T TALK SHOP AT DINNER!" But "talking shop" is one of the healthiest recreations and if a woman realizes its value she can tie her husband to her more firmly that way than by any other medium. I'm sure this woman talks shop, thinks shop—and holds her husband by doing the same.

Dear Geraldine:

I cannot resist "airing my views" if permitted to do so on the following problems brought up in your interesting column.

In the case of Unhappy Wife, if she and her husband would manage their home together in up-to-date fashion and have a budget their troubles would go up in smoke at once.

If the wife whose husband is so fond of reading that he keeps his head in magazines each evening, why don't they take up some regular reading through a correspondence business course? We know it to be a fact that many of

Come Backs For J. Gordon

Friend J. Gordon Temple, feeling I desire to "get the war all over with," wrote a little ditty concerning the modern feminine styles. He called it "all right." Here are a couple of "come-backs." But before they put the lines on you, J. Gordon, please accept Jerry's thanks for the happiness you sent to her personally. And you never even asked Jerry whether her skirts were seven inches from the floor or seventeen!

Dear Geraldine:

J. Gordon Temple's, or whatever his name is, little ditty to Womanhood in Short Skirts aroused me so much that I decided to add my little bit, not particularly about short skirts, though I am strong for them, but just to have my say in the opinions aired in your column, too. But I will say this to J. G. T., if he had to wear long, uncomfortable skirts, and other "modest" clothing, he would not be so eager to don it. I do not approve of extremely short skirts, or low necks, either, but as far as attracting men's attention is concerned, I have found that men will stare just as anxiously at the tiniest bit of an ankle, when long skirts are in vogue, as they will at a full length of leg, when short skirts are the style. And I really don't think that short skirts and low necks are any more immodest than those extremely form-fitting English suits with which men have just ceased a little to mar the landscape!

AN INTERESTED READER.

That poetical chap, I forgot his name,
You know the one that said every dame
Dresses nowadays in a high-cut gown
That makes this appeal to the youth of the town
"Look not into mine eyes—look down"—
That's the fellow, you remember I guess,
Who said he's for the old-fashioned girl
And her modest neat dress—

But tell me, O! tell me, dear Jerry wise,
What forces his gaze down to their ankles,
Instead of up to their eyes?
Now they say human nature thrives on applause;
In that case the gent's not helping his cause,
He's not helping discourage the young Easter Eggs
By joining the thousands who gaze at their legs!

Some Personal Words

Just Me. Don't let your friends decide who you shall like and who you should avoid. It's up to you.

A New Alameda Resident. I can't help you, I am afraid. Try to be so interested in the person you are talking to that you forget yourself. It's the only way to overcome the embarrassment from which you suffer.

M. A. M. Your friend should write to the editor of the magazine which printed his article, asking for his pay. Stories and articles are not donated and editors know it, so tell tell him to write, requesting payment.

Jackie. If you spend your time worrying over whether your friends approve your choice in companions, you are going to have an unhappy time. I think I'd take a chance on the "boy with the book."

L. M. B. You children ask the impossible of your friend Jerry. I don't know why he acts cool toward you during the week and then is so affectionate when you go out together. I think were I in your place I wouldn't be so generous with the kisses, my dear.

Lonesome Heart. I have taken you to my heart and am holding you close, little motherless girl, and you can come to me with all your troubles and all your joys. I wish you would tell your Daddy to write to me and I would tell him how much a girl needs her father's love and understanding. As to your wish for a true girl pal, I think you will find her.

Perplexed. You addressed the envelope rightly or I wouldn't have received your letter. Your mother is right about not allowing you to accept presents other than candy. Be the sailor's good pal—you don't have to lose his friendship just because you don't love him. He's rather a fast worker, don't you think, to be real serious?

Dotty S. I'm going to tell you the truth as I see it, dear, even if it hurts. I don't think your sister is right in the least, and I think she is a little jealous because he changed so quickly to you, but I do think that he turned in his tracks too suddenly and completely to be sincere. There is a difference. He has probably gotten over any feeling of love he had for your sister, and it is because he has so suddenly recovered and loved again that I doubt his sincerity. Why not stand the heartache for a little longer and let time prove his love?

Just a Girl. I can't answer your letters as fast as they arrive, although I would like to, but so many reach me each day that they are bound to be delayed. I have answered the first part of your letter recently, and as to the second part, I think that two persons can truly love each other without being demonstrative.

NEWS OF U. S. INDUSTRIAL AND FINANCIAL CIRCLES

Question of Prices Still To Be Vital One by East

By CONSOLIDATED PRESS.
Special to OAKLAND TRIBUNE

By A. D. WELTON

CHICAGO, April 6.—The most significant thing about the business situation in Chicago and the middle west today is the shrinkage in deposits of commercial banks without corresponding decrease in loans. For the first sixty days of the year the banks were reducing their borrowings at the Reserve Banks. This was in response to the high money rates and the forced liquidation. Deposits are still shrinking but borrowings by large Chicago banks are starting again. Having exhausted their supplies of eligible paper at the Reserve Banks the country banks, whose deposits also have declined heavily, are seeking accommodation from their Chicago correspondents. This indicates that liquidation has not run its course.

SLOW TO REDUCE.

The extreme reluctance of some dealers to reduce prices and take losses is the cause advanced by bankers. This reduction becomes more pronounced as the necessity of taking losses becomes more apparent. Not infrequently a merchant advertises that the goods offered have been bought at prevailing low prices which may be interpreted to mean that loans against goods have been made on the basis. But when the sale of goods at possible prices will not bring enough funds to pay bank loans, the merchant becomes reluctant and seeks to extend the time by paying the bank rather than sacrifice expected profits or take losses. The farmer is in similar position though he can feed his grain in many instances.

OF FIRST IMPORTANCE.

The price level is then still the question of first importance as the country endeavors to reach normalcy. Discussing of foreign trade development continues but the foreign trade enthusiasts speak only in terms of increased exports. Foreign trade means imports as well as exports and of substantially the same value. Otherwise such trade can have no permanency.

NEW YORK

By JAMES ALLERTON

NEW YORK, April 6.—The Federal Reserve Bank for the Second district, which embraces the state of New York, the western end of Connecticut and the northern counties of New Jersey, has issued its monthly review of business conditions in the district. It gives statistical details of the situation which emphasize the estimates that have been given in these despatches although these details naturally do not cover as recent a period.

In the city itself the review measures the volume of net sales during February as one per cent smaller than during the same month in 1920. In the district outside the city the volume was 9½ per cent larger. The number of transactions in the city was 11 per cent larger and in the district outside the city 18 per cent larger. From the beginning of the year there was a comparative decrease of 4½ per cent in net sales in the city and a comparative increase of 1½ per cent for the district outside the city.

MEASURE OF PRICES.

Other communities perhaps will find more of interest, if not of significance, in the measure of the decline in prices reflected in the review. In the city this is shown to be 6¼ per cent, in the district outside the city, 23 per cent, and for the district as a whole, 18 per cent. This estimate is reached by comparative statements of stocks on hand, and since these stocks are measured by their selling prices, the percentages are said by the bank to represent "lower prices rather than a reduction in the actual number of articles."

Since the review is based upon reports by department stores, the decline in prices will be seen to cover a wide scope and for that reason may be taken perhaps as the most important statement upon this highly interesting topic that has been made this year. Of the volume of business done the bank says:

"A further explanation of large sales is found in the type of purchases being made. Merchants report that sales of men's and women's apparel are running well ahead of last year's sales. Many people are replenishing their wardrobes. House furnishing goods and pianos and other musical instruments are not in as great demand as last year. The increase in stocks during February was not as large as during the corresponding month last year because of the tendency on the part of retailers to buy only for immediate needs. Thus far department stores have not to any considerable extent contracted ahead for fall goods to be shipped late in the summer.

SMALLER STORES SUFFER

"One New York city merchant expresses the belief that the larger stores are securing increased sales at the expense of the smaller concerns. The large retailer is financially able to stand the losses incurred in repricing goods at replacement values while the merchant with less capital cannot make drastic reductions. As a result there is a shift to the large stores."

From my own inquiry it may be said that this official opinion of conditions as of the first of March, will hold for conditions as of the last of March. Especially is this true of the growing extent to which the larger stores, at least, are making replacement costs the basis of current prices. More and more is this appearing as an advertised pledge, and it is influencing the direction of trade if not the volume, although the volume continues to be good. The abrupt return of freezing temperatures, the fore part of the week, had not much more effect on spring buying than it did on spring bud... ...s were well enough under way to withstand the nip of frost.

OTHER BUSINESS

NEW YORK, April 6.—With several American delegations in Mexico and a "good will" commission of Mexicans touring this country, the possibilities of the Mexican field for trade are receiving an unusual amount of attention. The good will commission is endeavoring to obtain a large American representation at the International Trade Conference to be held in Mexico City June 20 to 26. The international conference is arranged by the Confederation of Mexican Chambers of Commerce. It is claimed that Mexico is the one bright spot in the export situation. Eighty per cent of Mexico's imports come from the United States and members of the commission say they not only want to maintain that ratio but to increase it. The American exporter was presented with the Mexican market by the war, it may be said, and it is distinctly up to the exporters to perpetuate the advantage they now enjoy. Credit requirements, it is said, offer no great obstacle. New banking laws are now before the Mexican Congress.

NEW YORK, April 6.—High prices of American products are halting purchases by foreign buyers now in this country, according to statements made here today. This is especially true of American manufactured silks. One British buyer declared New York prices were entirely out of reach of the English houses. He said he had seen some beautiful silks in America, silks that would make a strong appeal to the British public, but the prices of these silks had put all thought of purchase out of his head.

RISE IN PRICES CAUSE SHORTS TO COVER CONTRACTS

Oils, Steels and Motors Are Dominant Features in Day's Trading.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Shorts again found it expedient to cover their contracts in popular issues at the opening of today's stock market. Oils, steels and motors were the dominant features.

General Asphalt, California Petroleum, Crucible and Republic steels and Chandler Motors mounting 1 to 1½ points in the early dealings. Sears-Roebuck and Famous Players featured the stronger specialties and Twin City Rapid Transit, ordinarily one of the most inactive stocks, made an initial gain of 4¾ points. Sumatra Tobacco, yesterday's most reactionary stock, was subjected to renewed pressure with Royal Dutch. Rails were dull, but firm, notably grangers and Pacifics.

Irregular tendencies were shown by Mexican Petroleum and Atlantic Gulf, but the market otherwise held or increased its early gains. California Petroleum, common and preferred, Pan-American Petroleum, Studebaker, Chandler and Goodrich were in further demand at gains of 1 to 2 points. Vanadium and Sloss-Sheffield were added to the stronger steels and American Locomotive, Baldwin Locomotive and Chicago Pneumatic Tool represented the higher equipments. American Smelting, common and preferred, rose 1 and 3 points respectively, and American Woolen, International Paper, Industrial Alcohol and Endicott Johnson featured the firm specialties.

Call money repeated yesterday's initial rate of 5½ per cent. Foreign exchange was strong, especially British and Italian rates.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

The Santa Fe has given an order for 1000 fifty-ton gondola cars to the American Car and Foundry Company and for 300 to Haskell Barker Car Company.

Sales of the United Cigar Stores Company in March were 6.5 per cent above March last year and 32 per cent ahead of 1919.

Gross earnings of Mexican Petroleum in February were $6,150,000, the largest in history of the company. Of that amount it is estimated $4,000,000 was net.

A balance of $2,633,738 or $3.83 a share on the capital stock of no-par value is shown in the annual report of the White Oil Company for the last calendar year. Total revenues from sales are $12,984,150 and operating expenses $8,961,000.

An issue of 1,500,000 first mortgage and refunding 7 per cent bonds, due in 1951, were put on the market yesterday by a syndicate for the Southern California Gas Company of Los Angeles.

Reorganization plans of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railway call for a $30 assessment on common and preferred stock, the first installment of $5 to be paid by April 30, it is announced.

Reports after two days' operation show that the two new Tupman wells of the Standard Oil Company still hold up. No. 15 is flowing nearly 3000 barrels and No. 27 about 1300 barrels.

Ten million in outstanding debentures of the Chicago and Northwestern due April 15 will be paid on that date at the company's New York office.

Whereas a profit of $181,000 was made in 1919, Utah Consolidated Mining reports a loss of $193,000 on last year's operations.

DIVIDENDS.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, April 6.—The cotton market opened sharply lower today, 17 to 26 points below the previous close, in response to weaker cables and further disquieting news as to the English miners' strike situation. There was selling pressure at the start from southern interests and commission houses. Subsequently the list steadied a few points on covering on reports of a better Manchester business.

Short covering followed southern buying and local purchasing gave the market a firm tone in the late afternoon with closing prices 10 to 17 points net higher.

Oil—Mining

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—The Mining Shares Market was stagnant during today's forenoon session. Trading was extremely quiet in all groups of the list. Broken Hills was the victim of a selling movement, pressure sending the price down to 18, three points below the high mark of the previous session. Silver Hills regained another point and Eureka Hamilton held firm at 12 cents. Goldfields, Comstocks and other shares were dull but little changed.

SEA RATES OPEN EAST'S MARKETS, OAKLAND LEARNS

New Trade Opportunity Are Show Industries Here By Comparisons.

Development of Oakland as a port of call for vessels of seventeen steamship lines, an advantage which from a small beginning has widened enormously, is now, in the conservative opinion of shipping men here, offering larger opportunity than generally realized.

The opportunity is that this city and the Eastbay districts have at their command water rates which permit them to compete directly with midwestern and eastern producers for eastern business, a thing heretofore never even contemplated.

LOOKS UP RATES

Demonstrating that fact, W. H. Pinkston, foreign traffic manager for the Lawrence Warehouse Company, agents here for the Pacific Mail, one of the numerous lines docking in Oakland to load or discharge all offered cargo, has compiled from the rate schedules of the Pacific Coast-North Atlantic Eastbound Conference a comparison with eastern rates. The comparison has been verified telegraphically.

Two items, of known important manufacture in this area chosen at random, show that they can be delivered in Savannah, Ga., to compete with eastern rail shipped rivals on reasonably advantageous terms.

COMPARISON MADE

Detroit to Savannah..........$1.02
Oakland to Savannah (rail).. 3.20
Oakland to Savannah (water). 2.10

On clothes pins:

Detroit to Savannah.........$1.30
Oakland to Savannah (rail). 5.33½
Oakland to Savannah (water) 1.75

The differential for the single eastern city, prohibitive to Oakland by rail, became more than possible by water and when cities west of Detroit, principally Chicago, are considered a further lowering of differential favoring Oakland is to be seen.

CAN COMPETE

"Oakland factories are successfully competing with eastern manufacturers in eastern markets every day," is the statement of the Oakland shipping firm.

"To a great extent this has been made possible by the water lines putting on lower rates to the East coast which materially cut down the rate handicap. Oakland was still at a disadvantage until the ocean-going steamships began making Oakland a port of call. Since that time we have been going ahead faster than anyone had any reason to believe would be possible.

"Now the only limit to the markets available to the Eastbay manufacturer is the limit set by his own ambition."

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, April 6.—New low-priced records for the season were reached today by breadstuffs. July delivery of wheat and both May and July delivery of rye went under any previous down turn. Opening prices were ranged from 1 to ½ decline to ⅝ advance, with May 1.35 to 1.36 and July 1.09½ to 1.11¼, were followed by losses all around and then by a reaction to about yesterday's finish.

Prospects of freezing temperatures together with talk of further export buying of new wheat counted later in favor of the bulls. Prices closed unsettled ½c net lower to ¼ advance with May $1.36 to $1.36¼ and July $1.12 to $1.12¼.

Corn after opening ⅛ to ½c lower, including May at 59⅜ to 59½, underwent an additional sag and then recovered.

The close:

Wheat—May, $1.36; July, $1.12.
Corn—May, 59 7-8c; July, 63½c.
Oats—May, 37 1-8c; July, 38 5-8c.
Pork—May, $17.15; July, $17.60.
Lard—May, $10.42; July, $10.80.
Ribs—May, $9.80; July, $10.20.

Railway Rates Too High, Reported Hadring View

By HOLLAND
Exclusive to OAKLAND TRIBUNE

NEW YORK, April 6.—President Harding and his administration are regarded here as having recognized, inferentially at least, that at the time of the government control and operation of the railroads everything possible was done in the interest of labor and practically nothing in the interest of the investors and stockholders. Reports come from Washington which tell of the purpose of the President and also of leaders in Congress to begin at once to work out such remedy as will bring the railroads out of the mire and quicksand in which they now flounder.

It is a matter which is of importance not only to those who receive wages but also to those who are investors of railroad securities. These investments are represented by a total of approximately $3,000,000,000. They were in some measure ignored during the months when the government was operating the railroads. It is the surmise here that the Washington authorities, both in the administration and in Congress, now are inclined to the opinion that wages are too high and that rates also are too high. If there is to be a reduction of rates there must also be a corresponding reduction in wages.

WHAT RATES ARE CAUSING

Although some of the railroad companies are hoping that an increase of rates will be granted on some lines of traffic, nevertheless investigation by the committee of Congress or by those who may be appointed by the President presumably will show that the increase in rates which the Interstate Commerce Commission permitted have, on the whole, impaired the earning power of the railroads instead of increasing that power, although that was expected to be the effect. Shippers are either withholding traffic entirely or calling into use other methods of transportation. In the vicinity of Boston the utilization of motor trucks, which has been much increased since the higher railroad rates were permitted, has been so great as materially to affect the railroad traffic between Boston and manufacturing centers in eastern and middle Massachusetts.

The president of one of the largest of American corporations who was called to Pittsburg a few days ago to give his attention to some important business report on his return that he had seen from the car window only two or three freight trains although formerly, when he had made this journey, the freight trains seemed to be almost innumerable. So also passenger traffic has fallen off and there has been a corresponding increase in the employment of the long distance telephone and the telegraph. Senator Cummins, who is giving earnest study to this situation, seems to be of the opinion that rates are already too high; at all events it would be impracticable possibly ruinous to increase them. He is quoted as having said that the American people cannot be expected to pay higher transportation charges.

WHERE THE LOSS FALLS

The dangerous decrease in revenues does not as yet affect wage earners. They still stand in the position where the government put them, when controlling the railroads. The loss is borne by the stockholders and investors. Although the reports which tell of present day conditions with the railroads continue to be discouraging, nevertheless it is confidently believed that President Harding and his administration, together with affirmative action by Congress, will put an end to these embarrassments and it may be that late in the summer policies will be adopted and law enacted, which will bring the railroads out of their "slough of despond."

The situation is not caused by individual depression. But it has been very influential in establishing conditions which have occasioned that depression. These faults, however, are not fundamental. For that reason the conviction is held here that they can be corrected, and without much delay.

TAXES AND GOVERNMENT

Very gratifying information comes from Washington which tells of the purpose of Congress to correct, as early as possible, the mistakes which are incorporated in the present tax law. The excess profits tax which was, for a year or two, a yielder of large revenue to the government, has proved to be undermining business to some extent. It undoubtedly will be repealed. It will be possible for the committee of Congress which has charge of this matter to receive some highly illuminating testimony from those who have had unsatisfactory experience with the excess profits tax.

The executive head of a corporation, which, in normal times, does a large busines, reports to his friends that the government took eighty per cent of his profits in 1919. He admitted that the profits were large and were the result of war demands, and yet they availed his corporation very little, because after the government exacted eighty per cent there remained only twenty per cent out of which it was necessary to take a considerable proportionate part to meet certain costs.

Last year his corporation lost money. It ran behind a good many thousand dollars as did many other corporations, which, in the preceding year, had paid the greater part of their excess to the government.

Of course the government will get little or no revenue from excess profits in 1920 because excess profits were lacking. Yet a wise and carefully framed tax law would equalize conditions. Presumably the new law will be so written as to put an end to the embarrassments which many of the corporations and banks were compelled to face when making out their income tax statements. Even with the aid of lawyers who have made a specialty of the government tax laws, it was sometimes found necessary to work upon the income report far into the night for three or four weeks. The difficulties met with were very great and in some cases the lawyers reported that the best they could do was to reach what they thought was the purpose of the government in levying the income tax.

Senator Penrose has undoubtedly received information from corporations which were anxious to report with accuracy their income but were in doubt whether the report which they last made was entirely accurate. For the Senator is reported to have said that the income tax law will be amended or modified so that its inequalities and its cloudy provisions as well as its excessive rates will be eliminated.

Guggenheims Keep Hold On American

JERSEY CITY, N. J., April 6.—Attack on the Guggenheim interests in the American Smelting and Refining Company failed today when the Guggenheim slate for directors was nominated without opposition. H. B. Leary, minority stockholder, presented a motion to adjourn, coupling with it a demand for investigation of charges against the Guggenheims. The motion said five members of the Guggenheim family were on the company's payroll at one time and alleged that the Guggenheim brothers had profited through transactions with American Smelting. On the vote on the adjournment, the Guggenheim faction had 602,000 of a possible 1,100,000 shares.

Informal discussion of the minority stockholders' charges was held pending the election of directors.

S. R. Guggenheim denied that Guggenheim brothers had dominated the company. Salaries paid members of the family had been made to appear enormous, he said, because critics lumped various amounts.

BECKLEY TALKS TO CHAPTER OF LOCAL BANKERS

After a busy day spent in Oakland, climaxed with a dinner and a general chapter reception yesterday evening, Stewart D. Beckley, national president of the American Institute of Banking, went to San Francisco today to be the guest of the San Francisco chapter.

As a result of action of the Oakland chapter last night he carried with him word of the endorsement of the candidacy of John S. Curran of the San Francisco chapter for the national presidency of the institute at the June convention.

Beckley, who is only 34 and cashier of the City National, one of the largest banks of Dallas, Tex., is an enthusiastic worker for banking education and development, and devoted his talk to the Oakland chapter last night to encouragement along those lines. He urged development of the educational work of the chapter here and the better grasping of its advantages by bank employees.

REED ALSO SPEAKS

At the meeting Professor Thomas Reed of the University of California also was a speaker.

Banking, he told the chapter, was something more than etherialized pawn shop keeping, and declared that in the present day of many and destructive doctrines and false panaceas, constructive business thinking alone would save the nation. He pointed to the banker as the logical business leader.

Professor Reed attacked the communal ideas of Professor Lasky of Harvard and other doctrinaires as anarchistic and impressed vehemently upon his hearers the thought that they owed something to the community.

NEW BY-LAWS.

The Chapter received and adopted new by-laws which require that officers shall hold institute graduation certificates and that each bank in the chapter area shall be represented on the board of governors.

Following the visit of Beckley to San Francisco today, he was to go to Los Angeles and then to Salt Lake City before returning to Texas, whichcity he left for his national tour early in February.

SHIPYARD WORK IS INCREASED AT ALAMEDA PLANT

Encouraging Reports Made At Bethlehem Corporation's Annual Meeting.

Shipyard work, including that at the corporation's plant in the Oakland estuary, is the bright spot in the outlook of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, in the opinion of E. G. Grace, president.

Meeting in New York in annual session yesterday, the stockholders of the corporation re-elected directors and transacted the usual formal business.

President Grace, reporting to the body, said 1921 looked like a lean year, recent signs of improvement in the steel trade notwithstanding. He said the corporation had 60,000 men now working part time.

Referring to the shipbuilding industry, he said the three big yards operated by Bethlehem in Alameda, at Fore River, Mass., and at Sparrows Point, Md., were operating at full time, with plenty of orders to all, the seeming decline of world trade notwithstanding.

During the last two weeks the Alameda plant has been adding to its working forces materially, calls even having been made for men to the state employment bureau office here.

OAKLANDER TO SPEAK.

H. H. Barrows, manager of the Oakland Mazda factory, will describe "How Mazda Lamps Are Made in California" at the weekly luncheon of the California Industries Association at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco tomorrow. The luncheon program is arranged as "Mazda Day."

Heavy Ocean Wage Cut Is Recommended

BOSTON, April 6.—Captain Eugene C. O'Donnell, chairman of the wage scale committee of the American Shipowners' association, today announced his committee had decided on wage cuts which would bring the pay of men in the American merchant marine lower than that of men in British merchant service.

This wage report will be submitted to shipowners in New York, Friday. There is fear here that the new scale, set for May 1, will bring on a strike of the 60,000 men in the American merchant marine, union heads declaring the cuts too drastic.

Messmen and cooks, from $70 to $55

O'Donnell said American ships paying high wages are forced to compete with Japanese ships paying 31 cents a day and Norwegian and other vessels paying not much more.

British shipowners will lower wages as soon as the present agreement with the unions expires, he said.

JEWEL TEA'S BIG LOSS.

An annual report of the Jewel Tea Company, which closed out its Oakland business this year, shows a 1920 operating loss of $2,183,503. This amount, it was stated, was calculated after charges included in adjustment of inventory to a market or cost basis, whichever was lower, and the loss resulting from liquidation of losing branches which constituted a third of the company's business.

MEXICAN OIL EMBARGO

VERA CRUZ, April 6.—An embargo has been placed on all oil shipments of the Mexican Eagle Oil Company, a Lord Cowdray concern, by the state of Vera Cruz. Shipments are prohibited at Minatitlan by government order. The decree follows refusal by the oil concern to pay 200,000 pesos surtax on exportations. Other companies also will be embargoed unless they pay.

AFTER UTAH OIL.

S. L. Fisher of this city has been in the Bluff Oil Fields of the San Juan county district near Moab, Utah, looking to plans for resumption of development there. Fisher's company, the Arcola, had a producing well in the region which was reported to have reached 300 barrels a day, but the well was ruined by an attempt at shooting.

STATE OIL OPERATIONS.

Oil field operations reported to R. E. Collom, state oil and gas supervisor, in the week ended April 2, show 36 wells started as compared with 30 during the previous week. The total new wells this year is 368, as compared with 229 the same date last year. Tests for water shut off in the week numbered 24. Deepening or redrilling jobs during the week numbered 13. There were 6 wells abandoned.

UNION PACIFIC STATEMENT.

Reporting on the two months of operation ended with February, the Union Pacific Railroad shows its railway operating revenue to have decreased $4,944,000 as between this year and last. Passenger revenues increased $49,450, but freight revenues decreased $6,946,000. Total net income showed an increase of $9,647,000 as between the two years, however.

ASSOCIATED OIL MEETING

No change was made in executive staff or directors at the annual stockholders' and directors' meeting of the Associated Oil Company yesterday. The meeting was routine as were those of the Amalgamated and other subsidiary companies that followed. Annual reports were advanced by Paul Shoup, president of Associated, several days ago.

NEBRASKA BANK CLOSES.

LINCOLN, Neb. April 16.—The Brown County State Bank of Lone Pine, capitalized at $55,000 closed today. Depleted reserves and inability to make collections to meet current withdrawals are announced as causes

BREAD PRICE IS CUT

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—Retail prices of bread dropped back to a nickel here today. Loaves weighing 11¼ ounces will sell for that price.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 6.—Millers reduced all grades of family flour 40 cents a barrel today. Best patents now are $8.60, a decline of $1.60 a barrel since January.

LOCAL MARKET NOTES

First real offerings of northern strawberries in any considerable quantity came to Oakland today. There were five chests from Gilroy, Watsonville and vicinities which sold for $1.75 for a drawer today. The offering was snapped up with avidity. There were some southern berries in the market which also sold quickly.

Weakened offerings of good asparagus shot the Oakland price up 2½ today, good white reaching 10c for the first time in more than two weeks. Receipts here were about 1100 boxes but of that not more than 200 boxes were choice and the greater proportion was culls. The demand of the canneries is being felt.

Market men are beginning to take stock of the pea situation. General cannery activity is expected to begin in about three or four weeks. Wide damage has been done to the peas by aphis, resulting from the cool damp weather. Weaker deliveries to the bay markets has strengthened prices somewhat.

Difficulty is being experienced in obtaining celery of even fair quality here. San Diego and other southern offerings are selling high and the crates frequently contain much unmarketable goods. Southern lettuce advanced to $3 top today, while best Gilroy offerings went to $2.50.

The Waterfront

For the first time in many months the weather along the coast from British Columbia to Lower California is the same. A light northwest wind is blowing at the rate of fifteen miles an hour, with clear sky and sea smooth. All bar harbors are again open to navigation. The barometer is rising slowly and fine weather can be expected, with the exception of cloudy in the early hours of the morning, but sunshine during the day for Thursday.

In the vicinity of the spot where the steamer Governor went down the water is covered with oil from her fuel tanks. A great flock of ducks was trapped in the oil, which prevented them from flying. Many were found dead on the beach. Those that did not reach the beach are still floating around, but are unable to secure any food and are starving to death.

The dredger is again working in the lower Oakland harbor and is making a 20-foot channel where the sand has filled in during the winter. The mud is being pumped through pipes to the north side of the Western Pacific road. The dredger will remain at the west end for several weeks before completing her work.

No word has been heard of the motor schooner Annie Johnson, which left the Hawaiian islands for this port March 18, with a cargo of sugar for the Matson Navigation Company. She should have reached here several days ago, but it is thought that her engines became disabled and she is coming up under her sails. If such is the case it would take her about twenty to thirty days to complete the voyage. Captain Murry, master of the Annie Johnson, is an old-time navigator in these waters and has commanded the Johnson for a number of years. The Annie Johnson was formerly a bark, but was rigged as a schooner when engines were installed in her.

Another craft is reported overdue from the South Sea islands with copra for Atkins, Kroll & Co. She is the motor schooner Tague, Captain Williams, which left Barotonga December 21 and is 106 days out, which makes her over 50 days overdue. Like the schooner Harvester, which is over 100 days overdue, and has been posted as lost, the Tague may have met with the same storm and been wrecked. Both cargoes of copra were consigned to the same firm and amounted to almost 1000 tons. Other craft have arrived here during the last few weeks from the same vicinity, making the passage in 50 to 60 days, but none of the skippers report seeing anything of the missing vessels or of any wreckage.

The Shipping Board's steamer Colorado Springs, which has been tied up in East Oakland harbor since she returned from the Orient, December 28, was towed to the other side of the bay, where she will load a cargo for the Columbia river and then load again for the United Kingdom, under charter of Sudden & Christensen. She is the second Shipping Board steamer to be chartered for grain during the week.

The codfishing schooner Louise, which has been tied up in Richardson's bay, off Sausalito, since she returned from Bering sea, August 28, with 115,000 codfish for the Union Fish Company, was taken out of winter quarters yesterday and a crew of movie actors placed on board. The Louise made a trip outside the heads and cruised around until late in the evening when she returned to an anchorage in the bay. The vessel will not be sent codfishing this year and may be sent offshore in the lumber trade. So far none of the codfishing vessels will be fitted out, as the owners will not agree to the wages asked by the men. Heretofore all codfishing vessels were on their way to Bering sea before April 10.

Shipping Board steamer Mahwah sailed from Eureka today for Sydney and Melbourne, Australia, with 1,552,610 feet of lumber.

Captain Edwin Orrett, formerly with the Pacific Mail Company of this port, died at Tacoma yesterday.

Captain H. Z. Howard, formerly of the Oceanic Steamship Company, celebrated his 86th birthday yesterday and was presented with a merschaum pipe by the Pilots' Association.

The British steamer Sedgefool was chartered to load grain on the Columbia river for the United Kingdom by M. H. Houser. She will begin loading in May.

The boilers, engines and deck machinery of the steamer Klamath, recently wrecked on the northern coast, have been removed from the broken hull and are being loaded on barges so they can be shipped to this port on a steam schooner. The machinery is in good condition and can be used in another hull. The salvage work is being done by the marine underwriters.

Change of masters registered at the United States customs house: Captain Thomas Shartzer, steamer Apache; Captain D. E. Griffin, steamer Compton; Captain A. Henrikerson, steamer Brunswick; Captain H. Danskenen, steamer E. H. Meyer; Captain C. H. Hawde, steam tug Standard No. 1; Captain L. P. Harvey J., steam tug Sea Lark; Captain J. K. Nelson, schooner Big Bonanza; Captain A. Beattie, schooner Philippine; Captain J. S. Jennings, scow schooner Traveler; Captain William Reid, scow schooner Rough and Ready.

Here's News for Everybody! Dollar Day Set for April 13

Wednesday, April 13, is Spring Dollar Day in Oakland.

Upon that day Willie will burst open his dollar bank and Dad will surrender his roll, for Ma is going out to take advantage of some of those $1 opportunities that will be offered by the merchants of Oakland. Everything, ranging from a tarveling bag to a self-winding alarm clock, will be offered for one hundred cents.

Dollar Day, the first of which was held six years ago, has been an annual September event, but now two such bargain days are to be held each year, one in the spring and one in the fall. Spring Dollar Day is to be held in the middle of the month that comes in the middle of spring; it is the day upon which the middle falls out of everything, including Willie's bank and Dad's purse. It is the one day in the year when everybody goes out looking for bargains that will be made easy to find. Brother Ned will lay in a supply of shirts which were in the corner window a week ago marked $2—all for $1, and sister Sue will buy half a dozen $4 shirtwaists for $1 each and pretend that they're worth $5 each.

The mania for bargain-hunting is a disease which first affected women only, and was more noticeable in the spring of the year. That was several years ago. Since that time, upon various occasions, women have been badly trampled by one another in bargain rushes. Within the past few years the mania has taken hold of the more sturdy sex and with the first Dollar Day in Oakland, six years ago, two men were arrested for fighting in a dispute as to which one of them first saw a straw hat that was advertised for sale at $1. Each paid a fine of $5 and sold the hat at auction for $4, which they split between them. No matter where you go in Oakland on Dollar Day you find bargains.

Last reports indicated that Dollar Day will be some event this year. Merchants are preparing a rare treat in the way of bargains, and there is now already much rivalry among the merchants as to who can give the most in quantity and quality for $1. Suit cases are reported selling fast, which is taken to indicate that they are to be carried down town on Dollar Day in which to take home the $1 bargains that are contemplated.

U. C. STUDENTS WILL ASSIST IN REPAIR OF WAR

BERKELEY, April 6.—Californians will be sent to France to aid in the reconstruction of the battlefields, according to advices received at the university today. Engineers and architects are greatly needed in the devastated regions.

The French high commission to the United States has asked that student engineers and architects of ability be selected by professors. These students will be sent to France during the summer vacations at the expense of the French government, and will work with the architectural departments of the Marne and Meuse regions.

Club Women Hear Talk On Flowers

RICHMOND, April 6.—Mrs. Marie Ogborn spoke before the Richmond Club yesterday afternoon at the celebration of Floral Day on wild flowers of California. Specimens gathered in Placerville were exhibited.

A large attendance enjoyed the whist party given yesterday afternoon in Woodman hall by Mrs. E. Jennings. Mrs. O. B. Treet won the first prize, Mrs. M. Sheldon the second, Mrs. Burton the third, Mrs. R. Casey the fourth, and Mrs. O. Parks the fifth. The games will be continued as planned throughout April, every Tuesday afternoon in W. O. W. hall.

LOWER PRICE FOR MILK IS URGED BY HOUSEWIVES

League Threatens "New War" If Dealers Fail To Grant Wishes.

Retail milk dealers will receive notice from the State Housewives' League at a meeting on April 12 that unless some benefit from the 4-cent per gallon reduction from the producer is extended to the consumer a new "milk war" will be inaugurated by the women. Action was authorized at a meeting of the state executive board this week in Oakland. The officers of the Housewives' League declare that unless the price of milk is decreased to the households that they will launch a campaign for reducing consumption.

Lower bread prices also are sponsored by the executive board. Declining wholesale prices are cited as grounds for better schedules to the public. The officers charged that many places were still charging wartime prices.

The action of Assemblyman Bradford Crittenden in criticising the State Railroad Commission for increasing gas rates was endorsed. Unfair competition was condemned in a resolution which appealed to the public to refuse patronage to companies seeking to kill off rivals.

Milk prices are as low as they will probably go, according to J. H. Davidson, secretary of the Milk Dealers' Association.

"The reduction which was made last month by the producers will probably not find its way to the public," said Davidson. "During the war we were forced to sell milk on small margin. We undersold San Francisco a cent per quart. In the readjustment we feel that present prices are as close as we can make. We are selling milk at the same price scale as San Francisco. Los Angeles is retailing milk at 16 cents and San Diego 17 cents a quart, against our 15 cents.

Pershing's Detail To Be Equal To Rank

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Secretary Weeks' statement that he would shortly announce a detail to duty for General Pershing, "commensurate with his rank," has caused considerable interest and speculation in the War Department.

It has been rumored he would retire to accept a diplomatic post, probably that of Ambassador to Japan to succeed Roland Morris, whose resignation President Harding accepted. Another diplomatic post mentioned is Paris, but it is believed that if given his choice he would prefer Tokyo.

Many army officers believe General Pershing will either be made Chief of Staff to succeed General Peyton C. March, or that Secretary Weeks will seek from Congress legislation placing the army on a field basis with him as General of the Army at the head of the organization.

Another assignment frequently mentioned in connection with General Pershing is that of Governor-General of the Philippines, but it is not believed such a detail would be acceptable to him. A tour of the world as an envoy extraordinary, similar to the tours made by other allied leaders after the war, also has been mentioned.

Real Americans Have But One Allegiance: Gen. Wood

Major-General and Mrs. Leonard Wood, who arrived here yesterday from Washington en route to the Philippines, will leave tonight for Seattle, from where, on April 9, they will sail for Manila, where Wood is going as a personal envoy for President Harding.

Today General Wood was a guest of the Commonwealth club in San Francisco for luncheon. This afternoon he made an informal call on Elihu Root, who is at the Fairmont Hotel, where he has been ill for several days.

General Wood since his arrival has refused to discuss his mission to the Philippines. While crossing the ferry to San Francisco yesterday his only intimation was that he is officially to report to President Harding on the qualifications of the inhabitants there for an independent government.

FOR ONE ALLEGIANCE

Declaring that there is no room in this country for the man who has more than one allegiance, Wood spoke before a crowded house at the San Francisco Civic Auditorium last night. The mass meeting was held under the direction of the American Legion and the subject of Wood's address was "Americanism."

Speaking as though he were addressing a regiment of men, Wood held the attention of thousands for more than an hour as he pounded home the principles of Americanism.

"I know no better way of beginning an address on Americanism," he said, "than by repeating the words of the noted French soldier—'they shall not pass.' They shall not pass—none of the faults of citizenship or damnable doctrines of the moment.

"Sovietism, attacks on the constitution, efforts to disrupt the relation between ourselves and the allies with whom we fought must be rebuked, for if these things are allowed to pass they will make vain the loss of millions of men.

STAND WITH ALLIES

"All the things that make the world a better place in which to live are the things we stand for. If we do not stand with our allies our enemies will tumble down the edifice which we have built."

Some of the things General Wood pointed out in his address were:

"American cement has had about all the sand put into it that it will stand.

"Almost any move we make as Americans disturbs some group. They have got to drop their double citizenship.

"Every man who does not go into politics as an individual is a slacker, although he may have been a good soldier."

Speaking further on this, Wood said:

"The American Legion is the greatest potential force for good in the United States. It is through the medium of the Legion that Americanism can be spread throughout the land. As an organization we must devote our efforts toward the great problems confronting us. As individuals it is the duty of every member of the Legion to interest himself in all matters of public interest. The Legion as a whole must avoid political entanglements, that its best efforts may be devoted to the good of America, but its members should act in political matters as individuals, or as citizens."

GREETED ON ARRIVAL

A large delegation was on hand yesterday to greet General Wood and Mrs. Wood upon their arrival at the Oakland pier, and a large crowd had assembled at the Ferry building, from where the party was escorted by mounted police and American Legion members to the hotel.

When asked as to what his mission to the Philippines was, Wood replied: "I am not at liberty to discuss that. I can discuss anything else with you, or answer any questions but that one. Isn't the bay wonderful today? You people out here don't realize how much California sunshine is worth."

Thief Negotiates Gas Meter Hole To Rob

ALAMEDA, April 6—The detective department figures that it was a decidedly thin thief that entered and robbed the shoeshop of T. Takashima, 1541 Webster street, last night. In order to gain entrance to the repair shop the burglar crawled through the hole occupied by the gas meter. He left by the same opening. In addition to a number of pairs of shoes, the burglar also took $2.10.

ODD FELLOWS' SOCIAL

RICHMOND, April 6. — Members of Eclipse lodge of Odd Fellows held one of the most enjoyable social gatherings of the season in Richmond hall last night. The gathering was exclusively for the members and was therefore in the nature of a smoker. The members held a good get-acquainted meeting, which was featured by one of the largest attendances that has been recorded for some time.

Writer of Black Hand Letter To Woman Sought

MRS. A. R. RATTO, 770 Fourth street, who has appealed to the police for protection following the receipt of a "Black Hand" letter threatening her with death and mutilation.

Police and federal postal inspectors today are endeavoring to apprehend an unidentified man who yesterday sent Mrs. A. R. Ratto, 770 Fourth street, Oakland, a black hand letter threatening her with death and mutilation. Immediately upon receiving the communication Mrs. Ratto turned it over to the authorities, at the same time asking that precautionary measures be taken to safeguard her life.

The letter ascribes no reason for the expressed intention of the writer to kill Mrs. Ratto, and she is unable to assign any reason why anyone should have sent it to her.

The communication was written in Italian on rough paper, and bears the inscription, a skull and crossbones and a dirk designed in red ink. The writer threatened Mrs. Ratto's life and also to disfigure her face.

The letter did not make any demand for money.

Cats placed in his bed by his wife, when he was away at his office, caused S. M. Weissenberger, 1226 East Fourteenth street, to protest vigorously and finally to file suit for divorce against Mina J. Weissenberger, according to allegations in a complaint just filed in the Superior Court. Weissenberger said that his wife told him she preferred the cats to a husband.

They were married in Oakland, August 7, 1919, and separated June 15, 1920.

Mrs. Gladys Chrisand says that her husband never smiles, in her suit for divorce from James Chrisand, candy store proprietor of 1311 Park street, Alameda. She also charges cruelty. They were married September 13, 1916.

Mrs. Monica Paige in her divorce suit complaint charges that her husband knocked her down. She is proprietor of the Mayrose apartments, 4073 Telegraph avenue. Her husband is William E. Paige. She asks a share of the community property valued at $19,000.

TRADES TAUGHT

AUTOMOBILE SCHOOL FOR YOU
To learn the automobile work. It pays from $5 to $10 per 8-hour day. Steady work all the year 'round. I teach you with tools and practical work in a commercial shop, where I take in all makes of cars for you to work on. This is the only way that a first-class man can be trained in two months. You may study a book all of your life and you will not be able to hold a job without practical experience — doing the work yourself. My school and workshop is equipped with the best tools and plenty of them. Lathe, drill press and emery wheel, and all that is used in an up-to-date shop, and I teach you how to use them. I furnish you with all of your tools free. Come in and see my school before you go anywhere else. I am giving a special low rate in the following courses:
Auto Mechanics, Auto Electrician, Ignition Expert, Battery Man, Vulcanizing, Tire Repairing and Carburetor work. All under expert instructors. Day and evening classes. You can start any day, or Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening from 7 to 10 p. m. Day class from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., 6 days per week.

OPIUM SCANDAL AROUSES JAPAN

TOKYO, April 6. — (Correspondence of The Associated Press) —A hundred million yen opium scandal involving the Seiyukai party, Japanese business houses and public official is charged by the Nichinichi, which alleges that large quantities of the drug have been illegally handled in Southern Manchuria by the connivance of government officials for the purpose of enriching their own pockets. The allegations are denied by Mr. Nakano, chief of the Civil Administration Bureau in Dairen.

Millions of yen worth of the drug has passed through Kwantung during the past few years, says the Nichinichi, of which only a small part has been burned by the government authorities. That which was burned is alleged to have been opium of inferior quality mixed with other substances before being destroyed.

Since April, 1915, the sale of opium has been conducted directly by the Civil Administration Bureau in Dairen, it is said. The Okuma ministry discovered this and forced the profits to be turned into the government's coffers as temporary miscellaneous revene, the Nichinichi goes on to explain, but when the Seiyukai party came into power after the Terauchi ministry, this revenue decreased to a minimum, the explanation being given that the decrease was natural because of the gradual prohibition of the sale of the drug.

As the revenue continued to dwindle a rumor originated in Dairen and Port Arthur, says the Nichinichi, that local government officials were conniving with the Seiyukai for the illegal sale of opium, whereupon the Dairen authorities, "on the advice of a certain high official," publicly announced that the confiscated opium had not been resold for private gain but to the value of 3,600,000 yen had been burned. But, charges the Nichinichi, only a small quantity was destroyed and the public was deluded.

Parcel Post Chicks Survive Long Trip

CHATFIELD, April 6.—After traveling seven days and six hours to Leonard, New York and return to Chatfield, by mail, it was found that only two out of 100 day-old chicks shipped by a local hatchery had died. The hatchery made the shipment in response to an order, but later received word by wire that the man who ordered the chicks had left for Florida. The postmaster at Leonard then sent the shipment back via parcel post to Chatfield.

It is an old axiom of the day-old chick business that young chickens, when hatched, need no food or water for three days, but this shipment doubled that time with a 2 per cent death rate.
